Item 3: Disciplinary Information¹

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Abbott.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Abbott is a registered representative of Allegis Investment Services, LLC, member FINRA/SIPC, and licensed insurance agent/broker. He may offer products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of these transactions. A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation earned.

¹ Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving the advisor to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of advisor to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Abbott does not receive any other economic benefit for providing advisory services in addition to advisory fees.

Item 6: Supervision

Stephen Milner is a principal of Squar Milner Financial Services and as such supervises and monitors Mr. Abbott's activities on a regular basis to ensure compliance with our firm's Code of Ethics. Please contact Stephen Milner if you have any questions about Mr. Abbott's brochure supplement at (949)-222-2999.

- 1983: Juris Doctor (JD)
- 1987: Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. Experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education, minimum experience levels, and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination. In order to maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of continuing professional education. Additionally, CPAs are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information¹

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Milner.

¹ Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving the advisor to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of advisor to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Milner is a registered representative of SagePoint Financial, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC. He may offer products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of these transactions. A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation earned.

Mr. Milner is a Certified Public Accountant. In such capacity, he may also provide income tax preparation or accounting services. These services are independent of our firm's financial planning and investment advisory services and are governed under a separate engagement agreement. Clients have the option of engaging our representative for tax preparation or accounting services, however, they are under no obligation to do so.

Mr. Milner is a licensed attorney in the State of California. Legal services are not offered through our firm. Should a client of our firm require legal services, they will be referred to a separate attorney. Our firm will not receive any additional compensation for these referrals.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Milner does not receive any other economic benefit for providing advisory services in addition to advisory fees.

Item 6: Supervision

Chartered Financial Consultant® (ChFC®)

The ChFC® designation is offered by The American College. Designation holders are required to serve clients with the highest level of professionalism. The authority to use the ChFC® mark is granted by the Certification Committee of the Board of Trustees of The American College, and that privilege is contingent on adherence to strict ethical guidelines. All ChFC® advisors are required to do the same for clients that they would do for themselves in similar circumstances, the standard of ethical behavior most beneficial for their clients. Each ChFC® has taken 9 or more college-level courses on all aspects of financial planning. The average study time for the program is over 400 hours, and advisors frequently spend years earning this coveted distinction. Each ChFC® must also complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education every two years and must meet extensive experience requirements to ensure that you get the professional financial advice you need.

Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU®)

The CLU® is offered by The American College. The CLU® designation is obtained by completing 8 core, 3 elective courses and a final exam for each course. As a prerequisite the IAR must have 3 years of full time business experience within the 5 years preceding the awarding of the designation. All candidates must meet ethics standards and agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures. This designation requires 30 hours of continuing education every 2 years.
