Item 2. Educational Background and Business Experience

The founder and Managing Member of TIFM since operations were initiated in 1978 is James S. Moore. Mr. Moore's entire business effort is focused on supervising the management company's activities.

Mr. Moore began his Wall Street career in 1968 and has held positions as senior officer, principal, branch manager, chief trading officer, sales manager and director of marketing and investment policy at numerous well-known brokerage firms.

Starting his investment career at Goodbody & Co. in 1968 and Mr. Moore became a large producer for EF Hutton & Co., Conti Commodities and Dean Witter & Co. He was hired as Senior Vice President, Director of Futures Sales & Marketing for Shearson Hayden Stone, Inc. in 1974. Mr. Moore eventually supervised a portion of the firm's proprietary investments, corporate planning and alternative investment product development and worked directly for Mr. Sanford Weill, the Chairman of the Firm.

Mr. Moore established DGM Commodities Inc. in 1978 to offer "The Futures Group" family of funds. Mr. Moore also assisted in developing a futures fund for Mint Investment Management.

In 1984, Mr. Moore was hired as a consultant to the Chairman of Merrill Lynch & Co. to assist them in the development of their alternative investment products. He guided the staffing, development and administration of several new products. In 1985, Mr. Moore financed Buttonwood Associates' growth into a leading index option "market maker" on the American Stock Exchange.

In 1987, he became the Managing Director of Thomson McKinnon's Futures Asset Management department, restructuring all of their public and private derivatives funds and rebuilding these products as leaders in the industry. Mr. Moore simultaneously held the positions of National Commodities Sales Manager, Branch Office Manager of three Thomson branches and Director of Sales and Marketing for Futures and Options.

In March 1986, Mr. Moore developed Cotton Trading Partners L.P. as an extremely successful "Floor Trading Fund". The success of Cotton Trading Partners was followed by development of Triumph Fund and TIFM's tactical Multi-Strategy Portfolio program which is presently offered via Triumph Fund or Separate Managed Accounts to properly qualified investors.

Mr. Moore graduated with a B.S. from the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University, 1961-1965 and was an officer in the United States Army's Special Forces in the Republic of Viet Nam.
