The individuals associated with WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC are appropriately licensed, and authorized to provide advisory services on behalf of WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC. Wealth Management

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC through its investment advisor representatives (“IARs”) provides ongoing investment advice and management on assets in the client’s custodial Strategic Wealth Management (SWM) account held at LPL Financial. Investment advisor representatives provide advice on the purchase and sale of various types of investments, such as mutual funds, exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”), variable annuity subaccounts, real estate investment trusts (“REITs”), equities, and fixed income securities. Our advice is strategically tailored to guide each individual client toward attaining their personal financial goals and protecting their acquired wealth. Accounts are reviewed on a regular basis and rebalanced as necessary according to each client’s investment strategy.

Third Party Advisory Services

The Advisor has entered into agreements with various third-party advisors. Under these agreements, the Advisor can offer clients various types of programs sponsored by these advisors. All third-party investment advisors to whom the Advisor will refer clients will be licensed as investment advisors by their resident state and any applicable jurisdictions or registered investment advisors with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

After analyzing a client's financial situation and investment objectives, the Advisor will assist the client in selecting a third-party program. The Advisor receives compensation pursuant to its agreements with these third-party advisors for introducing clients to these third-party advisors and for certain ongoing services provided to clients.

This compensation is disclosed to the client in a separate disclosure document and is typically equal to a percentage of the investment advisory fee charged by that third-party advisor or a fixed fee. The disclosure document provided by the Advisor will clearly state the fees payable to the Advisor and the impact to the overall fees due to these payments.

Since compensation the Advisor receives may differ depending on the agreement with each third-party advisor, the Advisor may have an incentive to recommend one third-party advisors over another, if the compensation arrangements are more favorable. Since the independent third-party advisor may pay the fee for the investment advisory services of the Advisor, the fee paid to the Advisor is not negotiable, under most circumstances.

Fees paid by clients to independent third-parties are established and payable in accordance with the Form ADV 2A or other equivalent disclosure document of each independent third-party advisor to whom the Advisor refers its clients, and may or may not be negotiable, as disclosed in the disclosure documents of the third-party advisor.

Clients who are referred to third-party investment advisors will receive full disclosure, including services rendered and fee schedules, at the time of the referral, by delivery of a copy of the relevant third-party advisor's Form ADV 2A or equivalent disclosure document at the same time as the Form ADV 2A or equivalent disclosure document of the Advisor.

In addition, if the investment program recommended to a client is a wrap fee program the client will also receive the wrap fee brochure provided by the sponsor of the program. The Advisor will provide to each client all appropriate disclosure statements, including disclosure of solicitation fees to the Advisor and its advisory associates.

Optimum Market Portfolios Program (OMP)

OMP offers clients the ability to participate in a professionally managed asset allocation program using Optimum Funds Class I shares. Under OMP, client will authorize LPL on a discretionary basis to purchase and sell Optimum Funds pursuant to investment objectives chosen by the client. Advisor will have discretion to select a mutual fund asset allocation portfolio designed by LPL consistent with the client's investment objective. LPL will have discretion to purchase and sell Optimum Funds pursuant to the portfolio selected for the client. LPL will also have authority to rebalance the account.

A minimum account value of $15,000 is required for OMP.

LPL will act as the overlay portfolio manager on all PWP accounts and will be authorized to purchase and sell on a discretionary basis mutual funds and equity and fixed income securities.

A minimum account value of $250,000 is required for PWP.

Model Wealth Portfolios Program (MWP)

MWP offers clients a professionally managed mutual fund asset allocation program. The Advisor will initiate the steps necessary to open an MWP account and have discretion to select a model portfolio designed by LPL's Research Department consistent with the client's stated investment objective. LPL's Research Department is responsible for selecting the mutual funds within a model portfolio and for making changes to the mutual funds selected.

The client will authorize LPL to act on a discretionary basis to purchase and sell mutual funds (including in certain circumstances exchange traded funds) and to liquidate previously purchased securities. The client will also authorize LPL to effect rebalancing for MWP accounts.

The MWP program also offers diverse model portfolios designed by outside strategists, other than LPL's Research Department. Our clients, with the guidance of their Advisor, can choose from strategists such as BlackRock, J.P. Morgan Asset Management, Quantitative Advantage, Cougar Global Investments, AlphaSimplex Group, and others under this platform.

A minimum account value of $25,000 is required for MWP.

Retirement Plan Services

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC is focused on providing advisory services to retirement plan sponsors and to individual participants holding assets in retirement plans. Services provided to retirement plans covered by ERISA will be identified as WCG Fiduciary Management Services, WCG Fiduciary Consulting Services or WCG Non-Fiduciary Services in the Advisory Agreement. Clients are required to execute an Investment Advisory Agreement which will disclose the details and provisions of the selected retirement plan services.

For services categorized as WCG Fiduciary Management Services, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will act as the Investment Manager as defined by Section 3(38) of ERISA. When providing WCG Fiduciary Management Services, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC's services include discretionary authority to make investment decisions over assets of a retirement plan. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC acknowledges that it is a fiduciary with respect to its exercise of investment decisions over these assets of a retirement plan. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC acknowledges that in performing Fiduciary Management, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC is acting as a "fiduciary" as such term is defined under Section 3(21)(A)(ii) of Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will act in a manner consistent with the requirements of a fiduciary under ERISA for all services for which WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC is considered a fiduciary under ERISA.

For services categorized as WCG Fiduciary Consulting Services as defined by Section 3(21) of ERISA, all recommendations of investment options and portfolios will be submitted to the client for the client's ultimate approval or rejection. For WCG Fiduciary Consulting Services, the retirement plan sponsor client who elects to implement any recommendations made by WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC is solely responsible for implementing all transactions.

WCG Fiduciary Consulting Services are not management services, and WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC does not serve as administrator or trustee of the retirement plan. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC does not act as custodian for any client account or have authority to initiate third-party disbursements of client funds or securities with the exception of, for some accounts, having written authorization from the client to deduct our fees.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will act in a manner consistent with the requirements of a fiduciary under ERISA for all services for which WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC is considered a fiduciary under ERISA. If a retirement plan has elected to receive WCG Fiduciary Consulting Services and not WCG Fiduciary Management Services, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC (a) has no responsibility and will not (i) exercise any discretionary authority or discretionary control respecting management of Client's retirement plan, (ii) exercise any authority or control respecting management or disposition of assets of Client's retirement plan, or (iii) have any discretionary authority or discretionary responsibility in the administration of Client's retirement plan or the interpretation of Client's retirement plan documents, (b) is not an "investment manager" as defined in Section 3(38) of ERISA and does not have the power to manage, acquire or dispose of any plan assets, and (c) is not the "Administrator" of Client's retirement plan as defined in ERISA.

Although an investment advisor is considered a fiduciary under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940 and required to meet the fiduciary duties as defined by the Advisors Act, the retirement plan services that are identified as Non-Fiduciary should not be considered fiduciary services for the purposes of ERISA since WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC is not acting as a fiduciary to the Plan as the term "fiduciary" is defined in Section 3(21)(A)(ii) of ERISA. The exact suite of services provided to a client will be listed and detailed in the Investment Advisory Agreement.

To the extent required by ERISA Regulation Section 2550.408b-2(c), WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will disclose any change to the information that we are required to disclose under ERISA Regulation Section 2550.408b-2(c)(1)(iv) as soon as practicable, but no later than sixty (60) days from the date on which we are informed of the change (unless such disclosure is precluded due to extraordinary circumstances beyond our control, in which case the information will be disclosed as soon as practicable).

In accordance with ERISA Regulation Section 2550.408b-2(c)(vi)(A), WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will disclose within thirty (30) days following receipt of a written request from the responsible plan fiduciary or Plan Administrator (unless such disclosure is precluded due to extraordinary circumstances beyond our control, in which case the information will be disclosed as soon as practicable) all information related to the Retirement Plan Services Agreement and any compensation or fees received in connection with that Agreement that is required for the Plan to comply with the reporting and disclosure requirements of Title 1 of ERISA and the regulations, forms and schedules issued thereunder.

These services may include, as selected by the client on the financial planning agreement, information and recommendations regarding tax planning, investment planning, retirement planning, estate needs, business needs, education planning, life and disability insurance needs, long-term care needs and cash flow/budget planning. The services consider information collected from the client such as financial status, investment objectives and tax status, among other data. Fees for such services are negotiable and detailed in the client agreement.

Explanation of Financial Planning Services Provided

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC is configured to charge a fee for financial planning advice through the following three services:

One-Time Fixed Engagement

Development and delivery of customized financial advice tailored to the client's unique financial situation. The financial advice will address the client's current financial objectives and concerns. Areas of analysis may include: retirement, cash flow, insurance needs, major purchase, education, investments, estate planning, and business planning.

The client relationship in this engagement terminates once the recommendations addressing all the client's specific financial objectives have been delivered to the client and all questions and concerns regarding those recommendations have been addressed. The total timeframe for a fixed engagement shall not exceed 12 months. A personal financial management website provided through a third party may or may not be included and shared with the client during the scope of this engagement. This provides the client with secure access to an online website in which they'll have the ability to aggregate all of their financial accounts into one place, a vault to upload personal documentation into, and the ability to view on demand financial reports that may include but are not limited to; cash flow, balance sheet, and income/expense projections.

Ongoing Financial Advice

Ongoing financial advice is charged at an ongoing rate of $167 a month. For new financial planning clients, the first 12 months of ongoing financial advice includes everything listed in the one-time fixed engagement model. It will also include a personal financial management website provided through a third-party. This provides the client with secure access to an online website in which they'll have the ability to aggregate all of their eligible financial accounts into one place, a vault to upload personal documentation into, and the ability to view on demand financial reports that may include but are not limited to; cash flow, balance sheet, and income/expense projections.

Beyond the first 12 months, clients engaged in an ongoing financial advice relationship will receive an annual progress report which will include at least the client's updated net worth statement and a comparison of their financials from previous years. It may also include other areas of analysis. Clients will also receive continued access to their personal financial management website and unlimited access to their financial advisors who can answer questions. Existing financial planning clients who have received a comprehensive financial plan in the past and wish to engage in Ongoing Financial Advice will immediately begin to receive an annual progress report which will include at least the client's updated net worth statement and a comparison of their financials from previous years. It may also include other areas of analysis. Clients will also receive continued access to their personal financial management website and unlimited access to their financial advisors who can answer questions.

Hourly Consulting

The hourly fees for these services is between $100 and $400. The fee is based on complexity and the Investment Advisor(s) time for participating. The focus of hourly consulting is generally on a specific area of financial concern.

Termination of Services

This agreement may be terminated by either involved party. For one-time fixed engagements, the first 12 months of ongoing financial advice, and hourly consulting, no refunds will be made after signed delivery acknowledgement of financial plan is received. Prior to plan receipt of signed delivery acknowledgement, a client may receive a full refund at any time once a receipt of written notice to terminate is received by either party. Monthly ongoing financial advice can be terminated any time upon receipt of a 30-day written notice by either party. There will be no partial month refunds.

Clients will still have full service for the month a 30-day written notice is received/and or given and monthly payments will terminate upon completion of that month. Termination of the agreement will not affect the liabilities or obligations of the parties for activity initiated prior to termination.

Payment of Fees

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC collects its one time fixed engagement and hourly consulting fees, either 100% in advance, 50% in advance and 50% upon delivery. The monthly fee for ongoing financial advice is charged in advance on the 1st of each month. If execution of fee agreement for ongoing financial advice is signed mid-month, the first payment will be billed on the first of the month following the date of the signed agreement. WCG offers clients the ability to pay by check, credit card, or via ACH debit for planning services.

The financial plan may include generic recommendations as to general types of investment products or specific securities which may be appropriate for the client to purchase given his/her financial situation and objectives.

The client is under no obligation to act upon the investment advisor's recommendation or purchase such securities through WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and the IAR. However, if the client desires to purchase securities or advisory services to implement his/her financial plan, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC may make a variety of products and services available through its IARs. This may result in the payment of normal and customary commissions, advisory fees or other types of compensation to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and the IAR.

A conflict exists between the interests of the investment advisor and the interests of the client. Depending on the type of account that could be used to implement a financial plan, such compensation may include (but is not limited to) advisory fees, commissions; mark-ups and mark-downs; transaction charges; confirmation charges; small account fees; mutual fund 12b-1 fees; mutual fund sub-transfer agency fees; hedge fund, managed futures, and variable annuity investor servicing fees; retirement plan fees; fees in connection with an insured deposit account program; marketing support payments from mutual fund, annuity and insurance sponsors; administrative servicing fees for trust accounts; referral fees; compensation for directing order flow; and bonuses, awards or other things of value offered by WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC to the IAR. To the extent that IAR recommends that Client invest in products and services that will result in compensation being paid to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and the IAR, this presents a conflict of interest. This compensation to IAR and WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC may be more or less depending on the product or service that IAR recommends. Therefore, the IAR may have a financial incentive to recommend that a financial plan be implemented using a certain product or service over another product or service.

The IAR may receive additional cash or non-cash compensation from advisory product sponsors. Such compensation may not be tied to the sales of any products. Compensation may include such items as gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational meetings or marketing or advertising initiatives.

Hourly Consulting Services

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC, through its investment advisor representatives, may provide consulting services on an hourly basis. These services may include, as selected by the client in the consulting agreement, advice regarding tax planning, investment planning, retirement planning, estate planning, cash flow/budget planning, business planning, education planning, and personal financial planning. The services consider information collected from the client such as financial status, investment objectives and tax status, among other data. The investment advisor representatives may or may not deliver to the client a written analysis or report as part of the services. The investment advisor representatives tailor the hourly consulting services to the individual needs of the client based on the investment objective chosen by the client. The engagement terminates upon final consultation with the client. The negotiated hourly fee for these services is $400. Fees are charged 50% in advance, but never more than six months in advance, with the remainder due upon presentation of the plan.

Transactions in LPL Financial advisory program accounts are generally effected through LPL Financial as the executing broker/dealer.

Neither the firm nor any investment advisor representative are registered or have an application pending to register, as a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, a commodity trading advisor, or a representative of the foregoing.

The specific manner in which fees are charged by the firm is established in a client's written agreement between the client and WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC – up to 2.5% of assets under management. Clients can determine to engage the services of WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. The firm's annual investment advisory fee shall be based upon a percentage (%) of the market value and type of assets placed under the firm's management to be charged quarterly in advance, and WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC's representatives may at their discretion negotiate a fee in accordance with the above fee schedule.

Fees for Retirement Plan Services

For the Retirement Plan Services provided by WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC, clients will be charged a fee as described in the Advisory Agreement. Fees are charged in advance at the beginning of each calendar quarter. Payments for services are due within thirty (30) days after the quarter end.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will not be compensated based on capital gains or capital appreciation of the funds held by the Plan. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will not maintain custody of any Plan assets. Clients will authorize any broker-dealer or mutual fund sponsor that maintains custody of the Plan's assets to automatically deduct all fees owed to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC from the Plan's assets and to pay such fees directly to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC when they are due.

Fees are prorated (based on the number of days' services will be provided) for partial billing periods. If services begin other than on the first day of the quarter, the prorated fee for the initial partial quarter will be calculated on the total plan(s) value on the last day of that initial calendar quarter, billed in arrears, and prorated from the effective date of the Agreement.

The initial pro-rated fee for the initial partial quarter's services will be billed at the same time as the first full quarter's fees are billed in advance.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC believes that its annual fee is reasonable in relation to the services provided and the fees charged by other retirement plan consultants, including investment advisors, offering similar services/programs. However, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC's annual fee may be higher or lower than that charged by other consultants offering similar services and programs. In addition to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC's compensation, clients will incur charges imposed at the investment level (e.g., mutual fund advisory fees and other fund expenses) and charges imposed by the Plan's custodian and Third-Party Administrator (if applicable). A description of mutual fund fees and expenses are available in each mutual fund prospectus.

The Plan's custodian or the Third-Party Administrator to the Plan will send statements to the Plan, at least quarterly, showing all disbursements from the Plan, including, if applicable, the amount of the fee paid to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC directly from the Plan and when such fee is deducted directly from the Plan. Any discrepancies between fee billing notices received from WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and the statements received from the Plan custodian or Third-Party Administrator should be immediately reported to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and/or to the issuer of the account statements (the Plan custodian or Third-Party Administrator).

Brokerage commissions and/or transaction ticket fees charged by the custodian will be billed directly to the client by the custodian. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will not receive any portion of such brokerage commissions or transaction fees from the custodian or the client.

The fees charged by WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC are in addition to other costs charged by third parties for custodial, legal, accounting, or record keeping tasks. In addition, the client may incur certain charges imposed by third parties other than WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC in connection with investments made through the Plan, including but not limited to, 12(b)-1 fees and surrender charges, variable annuity fees and surrender charges, and qualified retirement plan fees.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC does not expect to receive any other compensation, direct or indirect, for its services. If WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC receives any other compensation for such services, we will (i) offset that compensation against its stated fees, and (ii) will disclose the amount of such compensation, the services rendered for such compensation and the payer of such compensation to the client.

The Retirement Plan Services may be terminated by either party at any time without penalty upon receipt of thirty (30) days written notice of termination. There is no penalty or "termination fee" for the termination of services. If either party terminates the services during a billing quarter, the client will be charged a pro-rated fee based on the number of days that services were provided and if WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC has received fees in advance, we will promptly issue a pro-rated refund to the client.

The hourly consulting fee will be based on the type of services to be provided, experience and expertise, and the sophistication of the client. The maximum hourly fee to be charged any client will not exceed $400 without extenuating circumstances and approval by the Chief Compliance Officer.

If a client desires, a client can engage certain representatives of the firm, in their individual capacities as registered representatives of LPL Financial, an SEC registered and FINRA/SIPC member broker-dealer, to implement investment recommendations on a commission basis. In the event a client chooses to purchase investment products through LPL Financial, LPL Financial will charge brokerage commissions to effect securities transactions, a portion of which commissions LPL Financial shall pay to the firm's representatives, as applicable. The brokerage commissions charged by LPL Financial may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker/dealers.

In addition, LPL Financial, as well as the firm's representatives, relative to commission mutual fund purchases, may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 trailing commission compensation directly from the mutual fund company during the period that the client maintains the mutual fund investment.

The recommendation that a client purchase a commission product from LPL Financial presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions received, rather than on a client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from LPL Financial. The firm's Chief Compliance Officer, Shelley Echeverria, is available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding this conflict of interest.

LPL Financial charges brokerage commissions and transaction fees for effecting certain securities transactions (i.e., transaction fees are charged for certain no-load mutual funds, commissions are charged for individual equity and debt securities transactions). LPL Financial enables us to obtain many no-load mutual funds without transaction charges and other no-load funds at nominal transaction charges. LPL Financial commission rates are generally discounted from customary retail commission rates. However, the commission and transaction fees charged by LPL Financial may be higher or lower than those charged by other custodians and broker/dealers. Clients may direct their brokerage transactions at a firm other than LPL Financial. Advisory fees are generally not reduced to offset commissions or mark-ups.

When dealing with investment advisory clients and services, investment advisor representatives have an affirmative duty of care, loyalty, honesty and good faith to act in the best interests of their clients. Investment advisor representatives are required to fully disclose all material facts concerning any conflict that does arise with these clients, and should avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest.

The Firm and IARs must abide by honest and ethical business practices including, but not be limited to:

- Not inducing trading in a client's account that is excessive in size or frequency in view of the financial resources and character of the account;
- Making recommendations with reasonable grounds to believe that they are appropriate based on the information furnished by the client;
- Placing discretionary orders only after obtaining client's written trading authorization contained within the advisory agreement or via separate amendment;
- Not borrowing money or securities from, or lending money or securities to a client;

- Not placing an order for the purchase or sale of a security if the security is not registered, or the security or transaction is not exempt from registration in the specific state;

The Firm and the IAR will:

- Allocate securities in a manner that is fair and equitable to all clients
- Not effect agency-cross transactions for client accounts

All Investment Advisor Representatives of WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC are required to sign an acknowledgment of their understanding and acceptance of these terms.

Clients may purchase investment products recommended by our firm through other, broker dealers or agents.

When the firm's representatives sell an investment product on a commission basis, the firm does not charge an advisory fee in addition to the commissions paid by the client for such product. When providing services on an advisory fee basis, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC representatives do not also receive commission compensation for such advisory services (except for any ongoing 12b-1 trailing commission compensation that may be received as previously discussed). However, a client may engage the firm to provide investment management services for an advisory fee and purchase an investment product from the firm's representatives on a separate commission basis.

Fees for customized and participant advisory services are typically based on the value of assets under management and will vary by engagement. The amount of the fee will be set out in the client agreement executed by the client at the time the relationship is established. The advisory fee is negotiable between the investment advisor representative and the client, and is payable either in advance or in arrears as described in the client agreement. LPL Financial is responsible for calculating and deducting advisory fees from client accounts held at LPL Financial. Client will provide LPL Financial with written authorization to deduct fees and pay the advisory fees to the RIA firm. The advisory fee is paid directly by LPL Financial to the RIA firm (not the individual). The RIA firm will then share the advisory fee with its advisors/associated persons. A custom program account may be terminated per the client agreement.

If the client agreement provides for payment in advance, the agreement will state how the client can obtain a refund of any pre-paid fee if the agreement is terminated before the end of the billing period.

In certain cases, LPL Financial may serve as the broker/dealer on transactions in a customized advisory account. In such case, LPL Financial may charge the client transaction charges in connection with trade execution through LPL Financial. The transaction charges will be clearly stated in the client agreement executed by the client at the time the relationship is established. If the custom advisory services apply to variable annuities for which the investment advisor representative receives trail compensation, such trail fees generally will be used to offset the advisory fee.

In most cases, however, a third-party broker dealer will provide trade execution. In such case, the broker-dealer may charge clients commissions, markups, markdowns and/or transaction charges.

Advisor receives compensation as a result of a client's participation in an LPL Financial program. Depending on, among other things, the size of the account, changes in its value over time, the ability to negotiate fees or commissions, and the number of transactions, the amount of this compensation may be more or less than what the Advisor would receive if the client participated in other programs, whether through LPL Financial or another sponsor, or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage and other services.

LPL Financial serves as program sponsor, investment advisor and broker/dealer for the LPL advisory programs. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and LPL Financial may share in the account fee and other fees associated with program accounts. Associated persons of Advisor may also be registered representatives of LPL Financial.

Lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources.

Investment advisor representatives may also be licensed insurance agents. In the capacity of an insurance agent, they may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis.

The purchase a securities and/or insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions received, rather than on a client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from investment advisor representative of the firm. Clients may purchase investment products recommended by investment advisory representatives through other, non-affiliated broker/dealers or insurance agents. Such conflicts are subject to review by the Chief Compliance Officer for consistency with the firm's Code of Ethics.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-by-side Management

Neither the firm nor any supervised persons accepts performance-based fees, fees based on a share of capital gains, or on the capital appreciation of assets. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC does not provide advisory services to such clients as a hedge fund or other pooled investment vehicles.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

The advisory services offered by WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC are available for individuals, individual retirement accounts ("IRAs"), banks and thrift institutions, pension and profit sharing plans, including plans subject to Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), trusts, estates, charitable organizations, state and municipal government entities, corporations and other business entities.

However, the firm generally provides investment advice to individuals and high net-worth individuals as well as corporate clients. The firm is currently not working with other types of clients or pursuing them as prospects but would not turn away any opportunities that may arise.

For LPL's Financial Sponsored Advisory Programs account minimums are as follows:

- Asset Management: $25,000
- Optimum Market Portfolios Program (OMP): $15,000
- Personal Wealth Portfolios Program (PWP): $250,000
- Model Wealth Portfolios Program (MWP): $100,000
- Manager Access Select Program (MAS): $100,000 (in certain instances, the minimum account size may be lower or higher).

For customized advisory services, any required minimum account value will be set out in the client agreement.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

We emphasize continuous and regular account supervision. As part of our asset management service, we generally create a portfolio, consisting of individual stocks or bonds, exchange traded funds ("ETFs"), options, mutual funds and other public and private securities or investments.

The client's individual investment strategy is tailored to their specific needs and may include some or all the previously mentioned securities. Each portfolio will be initially designed to meet an investment goal, which we determine to be suitable to the client's circumstances. Once the appropriate portfolio has been determined, we review the portfolio at least quarterly and if necessary, rebalance the portfolio based upon the client's individual needs, stated goals and objectives. Each client has the opportunity to place reasonable restrictions on the types of investments to be held in the portfolio.

The firm uses a combination of fundamental, technical and cyclical analysis to formulate investment advice when managing assets. Depending on the analysis the firm will implement a long or short term trading strategy based on the objectives and risk tolerance of a client.

Fundamental analysis involves the analysis of financial statements, the general financial health of companies, and/or the analysis of management or competitive advantages. Fundamental analysis concentrates on factors that determine a company's value and expected future earnings. This strategy would normally encourage equity purchases in stocks that are undervalued or priced below their perceived value.

The risk assumed is that the market will fail to reach expectations of perceived value.

Technical analysis involves the analysis of past market data; primarily price and volume. Technical analysis attempts to predict a future stock price or direction based on market trends. The assumption is that the market follows discernible patterns and if these patterns can be identified then a prediction can be made. The risk is that markets do not always follow patterns and relying solely on this method may not take into account new patterns that emerge over time.

Cyclical analysis involves the analysis of business cycles to find favorable conditions for buying and/or selling a security. Cyclical analysis assumes that the markets react in cyclical patterns which, once identified, can be leveraged to provide performance. The risks with this strategy are two-fold: 1) the markets do not always repeat cyclical patterns; and 2) if too many investors begin to implement this strategy, then it changes the very cycles these investors are trying to exploit.

Please note, investing in securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear. There are different types of investments that involve varying degrees of risk, and it should not be assumed that future performance of any specific investment or investment strategy will be profitable or equal any specific performance level(s). Past performance is not indicative of future results.

The firm's methods of analysis and investment strategies do not represent any significant or unusual risks however all strategies have inherent risks and performance limitations such as:

- Market Risk - the risk that the value of securities may go up or down, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably, due to factors affecting securities markets generally or particular industries.
- Interest Rate Risk - the risk that fixed income securities will decline in value because of an increase in interest rates; a bond or a fixed income fund with a longer duration will be more sensitive to changes in interest rates than a bond or bond fund with a shorter duration.
- Credit Risk - the risk that an investor could lose money if the issuer or guarantor of a fixed income security is unable or unwilling to meet its financial obligations.
- Mutual Funds - Investing in mutual funds carries the risk of capital loss and thus you may lose money investing in mutual funds. All mutual funds have costs that lower investment returns. The funds can be of bond "fixed income" nature (lower risk) or stock "equity" nature (mentioned below).
- Equity - investment generally refers to buying shares of stocks in return for receiving a future payment of dividends and/or capital gains if the value of the stock increases. The value of equity securities may fluctuate in response to specific situations for each company, industry conditions and the general economic environments.
- Fixed income - investments generally pay a return on a fixed schedule, though the amount of the payments can vary. This type of investment can include corporate and government debt securities, leveraged loans, high yield, and investment grade debt and structured products, such as mortgage and other asset-backed securities, although individual bonds may be the best-known type of fixed income security. In general, the fixed income market is volatile and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.)

Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk, liquidity risk, call risk, and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. The risk of default on treasury inflation protected/inflation linked bonds is dependent upon the U.S. Treasury defaulting (extremely unlikely); however, they carry a potential risk of losing share price value, albeit rather minimal. Risks of investing in foreign fixed income securities also include the general risk of non-U.S. investing described below.

- Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) - An ETF is an investment fund traded on stock exchanges, similar to stocks. Investing in ETFs carries the risk of capital loss (sometimes up to a 100% loss in the case of a stock holding bankruptcy). Areas of concern include the lack of transparency in products and increasing complexity, conflicts of interest and the possibility of inadequate regulatory compliance. Precious Metal ETFs (e.g., Gold, Silver, or Palladium Bullion backed “electronic shares” not physical metal) specifically may be negatively impacted by several unique factors, among them (1) large sales by the official sector which own a significant portion of aggregate world holdings in gold and other precious metals, (2) a significant increase in hedging activities by producers of gold or other precious metals, (3) a significant change in the attitude of speculators and investors.
- Annuities - are a retirement product for those who may have the ability to pay a premium now and want to guarantee they receive certain monthly payments or a return on investment later in the future. Annuities are contracts issued by a life insurance company designed to meet requirement or other long-term goals. An annuity is not a life insurance policy. Variable annuities are designed to be long-term investments, to meet retirement and other long-range goals. Variable annuities are not suitable for meeting short-term goals because substantial taxes and insurance company charges may apply if you withdraw your money early. Variable annuities also involve investment risks, just as mutual funds do.
- Non-U.S. securities - present certain risks such as currency fluctuation, political and economic change, social unrest, changes in government regulation, differences in accounting and the lesser degree of accurate public information available.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisors are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of an advisory firm or the integrity of a firm’s management.

Any such disciplinary information for the company and the company’s investment advisor representatives would be provided herein and publicly accessible by selecting the Investment Advisor Search option at <http://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov>.

There are no legal or disciplinary events to disclose.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Investment advisor representatives are also registered representatives of LPL Financial, an unaffiliated SEC registered and FINRA/SIPC member broker/dealer. Clients may choose to engage a registered investment advisor in their capacity as a registered representative of the unaffiliated LPL Financial broker/dealer, to implement investment recommendations on a commission basis.

Representatives of our firm are insurance agents/brokers. They may offer insurance products and receive customary fees as a result of insurance sales. A conflict of interest may arise as these insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation advisor and/or our supervised persons may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client. Such potential conflicts of interest are subject to review by the Chief Compliance Officer.

Neither WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC nor any of the management persons are registered or has a registration pending to register as a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, a commodity trading advisor, or an associated person of the foregoing entities.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC may recommend and select independent, third-party money managers in addition to the third-party managers offered through LPL Financial to manage all or a portion of a client's account. It should be noted that the total fees incurred by clients when utilizing third-party managers will include both management fees payable to the third-party managers for their services well as the fees payable to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC for their investment advisory services.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC maintains a Code of Ethics, which serves to establish a standard of business conduct for all employees that are based upon fundamental principles of openness, integrity, honesty and trust.

The code of ethics includes guidelines regarding personal securities transactions of its employees and investment advisor representatives. The code of ethics permits employees and investment advisor representatives or related persons to invest for their own personal accounts in the same or different securities that an investment advisor representative may purchase for clients in program accounts.

This presents a potential conflict of interest because trading by an employee or investment advisor representatives in a personal securities account in the same or different security on or about the same time as trading by a client could potentially disadvantage the client. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC addresses this conflict of interest by requiring in its code of ethics that employees and investment advisor representatives report certain personal securities transactions and holdings to the Chief Compliance Officer for review.

An investment advisor is considered a fiduciary. As a fiduciary, it is an investment advisor's responsibility to provide fair and full disclosure of all material facts and to act solely in the best interest of each of our clients always. We have a fiduciary duty to all clients. Our fiduciary duty is considered the core underlying principle for our Code of Ethics which also includes Insider Trading and Personal Securities Transactions Policies and Procedures. We require all our supervised persons to conduct business with the highest level of ethical standards and to comply with all federal and state securities laws at all times. Upon employment or affiliation and at least annually thereafter, all supervised persons will sign an acknowledgement that they have read, understand, and agree to comply with our Code of Ethics. Our firm and supervised persons must conduct business in an honest, ethical, and fair manner and avoid all circumstances that might negatively affect or appear to affect our duty of complete loyalty to all clients. This disclosure is provided to give all clients a summary of our Code of Ethics. However, if a client or a potential client wishes to review our Code of Ethics in its entirety, a copy will be provided promptly upon request.

It is the expressed policy of our firm that no person employed by us may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction being implemented for an advisory account, thereby preventing an employee from benefiting from transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts.

Neither WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC nor a related person recommends to clients, or buys or sells for client accounts, securities in which you or a related person has a material financial interest.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC receives support services and/or products from LPL Financial, many of which assist the WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC to better monitor and service program accounts maintained at LPL Financial. These support services and/or products may be received without cost, at a discount, and/or at a negotiated rate, and may include the following:

- investment-related research
- pricing information and market data
- software and other technology that provide access to client account data
- compliance and/or practice management-related publications
- consulting services
- attendance at conferences, meetings, and other educational and/or social events
- marketing support
- computer hardware and/or software
- other products and services used by Advisor in furtherance of its investment advisory business operations

These support services are provided to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC based on the overall relationship between WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and LPL Financial. It is not the result of soft dollar arrangements or any other express arrangements with LPL Financial that involves the execution of client transactions as a condition to the receipt of services.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will continue to receive the services regardless of the volume of client transactions executed with LPL Financial. Clients do not pay more for services as a result of this arrangement. There is no corresponding commitment made by the WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC to LPL Financial or any other entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific securities because of the arrangement.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC has an arrangement with LPL Financial. LPL Financial offers to independent investment advisors' non-soft dollar services which include custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. We receive some non-soft dollar benefits from LPL Financial through our participation in the program.

LPL Financial may make certain research and brokerage services available at no additional cost to our firm. These services may be directly from independent research companies, as selected by our firm (within specific parameters). Research products and services provided by LPL Financial may include research reports on recommendations or other information about, particular companies or industries; economic surveys, data and analyses; financial publications; portfolio evaluation services; financial database software and services; computerized news and pricing services; quotation equipment for use in running software used in investment decision-making; and other products or services that provide lawful and appropriate assistance by LPL Financial to our firm in the performance of our investment decision-making responsibilities.

Although the non-soft dollar investment research products and services that may be obtained by our firm will generally be used to service all our clients, a brokerage commission paid by a specific client may be used to pay for research that is not used in managing that specific client's account.

As a result of receiving the services WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC may have an incentive to continue to use or expand the use of LPL Financial services. Our firm examined this potential conflict of interest when we chose to enter the relationship with LPL Financial and we have determined that the relationship is in the best interest of our firm's clients and satisfies our fiduciary obligations, including our duty to seek best execution.

LPL Financial charges brokerage commissions and transaction fees for effecting certain securities transactions (i.e., transaction fees are charged for certain no-load mutual funds, commissions are charged for individual equity and debt securities transactions). LPL Financial enables us to obtain many no-load mutual funds without transaction charges and other no-load funds at nominal transaction charges. LPL Financial commission rates are generally discounted from customary retail commission rates. However, the commission and transaction fees charged by LPL Financial may be higher or lower than those charged by other custodians and broker/dealers.

Clients may pay a commission to LPL Financial that is higher than another qualified broker dealer might charge to affect the same transaction where we determine in good faith that the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received in seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Accordingly, although we will seek competitive rates, to the benefit of all clients, we may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for specific client account transactions.

Neither we nor any of our firm's related persons have discretionary authority in making the determination of the brokers with whom orders for the purchase or sale of securities are placed for execution, and the commission rates at which such securities transactions are effected. We routinely recommend that a client directs us to execute through a specified broker-dealer. Our firm recommends the use of LPL Financial. Each client that chooses LPL Financial will be required to establish an account if not already done. Please note that not all advisers have this requirement.

Clients may direct their brokerage transactions at a firm other than LPL Financial. Due to various circumstances, WCG may be unable to achieve more favorable executions of client transactions. Client directed brokerage may cost clients more money. For example, in a directed brokerage account, you may pay higher brokerage commissions because we may not be able to aggregate orders to reduce transaction costs, or you may receive less favorable prices.

Charles Schwab & Co., Inc.

WCG may recommend/require that clients establish managed accounts with the Schwab Institutional division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc ("Schwab"), a FINRA-registered broker-dealer, Member SIPC, to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. Although WCG may recommend/require the clients establish accounts at Schwab, it is the client's decision to custody assets with Schwab. WCG is independently owned and operated and not affiliated with Schwab. WCG may recommend additional unaffiliated broker-dealers to affect fixed income transactions.

Schwab provides WCG with access to its institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to Schwab retail investors. These services generally are available to independent investment advisors on an unsolicited basis, at no charge to them so long as a total of at least $10 million of the advisor's clients' assets are maintained at Schwab Institutional. These services are not contingent upon WCG committing to Schwab any specific amount of business (assets in custody or trading commissions). Schwab's brokerage services include the execution of securities transactions, custody, research, and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require significantly higher minimum initial investment.

Firm Brochure ADV Part 2A

For WCG's clients' accounts maintained in its custody, Schwab generally does not charge separately for custody services but is compensated by account holders through commissions or other transaction-related or asset-based fees for securities trades that are executed through Schwab or that settle into Schwab accounts. Schwab Institutional also makes available to WCG other products or services that benefit WCG but may not directly benefit clients' accounts. Many of these products and services may be used to service all or some substantial number of WCG's accounts, including accounts not maintained Schwab.

Schwab's products and services that assist WCG in managing and administering clients' accounts include software and other technology that (i) provides access to client account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements); (ii) facilitate trade execution and allocate aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts; (iii) provide research, pricing and other market data; (iv) facilitate payment of WCG's fees from some of its accounts; and (v) assist with back-office functions, recordkeeping and client reporting.

Schwab Institutional also offers other services intended to help WCG manage and further develop its business enterprise. These services may include: (i) compliance, legal and business consulting; (ii) publications and conferences on practice management and business succession; and (iii) access to employee benefits providers, human capital consultants and insurance providers. Schwab Institutional may discount or waive fees it would otherwise charge for some of these services or pay all or part of the fees of a third-party providing these services to WCG. Schwab Institutional may also provide other benefits such as educational events or occasional business entertainment of WCG personnel. While as a fiduciary, WCG endeavors to act in its clients' best interests, WCG's recommendation that clients maintain their assets in accounts at Schwab may consider availability of some of the foregoing products and services and other arrangements not solely on the nature of cost or quality of custody and brokerage services provided by Schwab, which may create a potential conflict of interest.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

For those clients to whom WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC provides investment supervisory services, account reviews are conducted on an ongoing basis by Shelley Echeverria, the Chief Compliance Officer. All investment supervisory clients are advised that it remains their responsibility to advise WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC of any changes in their investment objectives and/or financial situation. All clients (in person or via telephone) are encouraged to review financial planning issues (to the extent applicable), investment objectives and account performance with their investment advisor representative on an annual basis.

Shelley Echeverria, the Chief Compliance Officer, may also conduct account reviews based on the occurrence of a triggering event, such as a change in client investment objectives and/or financial situation, market corrections and by client request.

Clients are provided, at least quarterly, with written transaction confirmation notices and regular written summary account statements directly from the broker-dealer/custodian and/or program sponsor for the client accounts. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC may also provide a written periodic report summarizing account activity and performance.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC receives an economic benefit from LPL Financial in reimbursement for marketing related expenses. Please see detailed discussion of the categories of marketing related expenses and potential conflicts of interest in Item 12 Brokerage Practices.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and employees may receive additional compensation from product sponsors. However, such compensation may not be tied to the sales of any products. Compensation may include such items as gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational meetings with investment advisor representative, client workshops or events, marketing events or advertising initiatives, including services for identifying prospective clients. Product sponsors may also pay for, or reimburse WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC for the costs associated with, education or training events that may be attended by WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC employees and investment advisor representatives and for WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC sponsored conferences and events. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC has agreements in place to pay solicitors a portion of advisory fees. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC does not directly or indirectly compensate any person who is not a supervised person for client referrals.

There are no other economic benefits provided by someone who is not a client for providing investment advice.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC may receive referral fees from other third-party managers when we refer clients. Thus we have a conflict of interest in our decision to recommend a third-party manager that pays WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC a referral fee. At all times, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will act in the best interest of the client when recommending a third-party manager.

When a client is referred to a third-party manager by us, we will provide the client with a copy of the third-party managers Form ADV Part 2 Disclosure Brochure, if the firm is an unaffiliated registered investment advisor firm, as required by the Investment Advisors Act of 1940.

The referral agreements between WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC and any third-party manager we refer client to will not result in any charges to clients in addition to the normal level of advisory fees charged.

Charles Schwab & Co., Inc.

We receive an economic benefit from Schwab in the form of the support products and services it makes available to us and other independent investment advisers whose clients maintain their accounts at Schwab. These products and services, how they benefit us, and the related conflicts of interest are described above (see Item 12 – Brokerage Practices). The availability of Schwab's products and services is not based on us giving particular investment advice, such as buying particular securities for our clients.

Item 15 – Custody

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC does not have actual or constructive custody of client funds. LPL Financial will serve as the custodian of client assets on behalf of the WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC. WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC may also provide advisory services on assets held at different third party custodians.

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC urges you to carefully review the statements provided by the custodian and compare such official custodial records to the account statements that may be provided by WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC.

LPL Financial as the custodian sends statements at least quarterly to clients showing all disbursements in account including the amount of the advisory fees paid to advisor, the value of client assets upon which advisor's fee was based, and the specific manner in which advisor's fee was calculated. Clients provide authorization to LPL Financial permitting advisory fees to be deducted from client advisory account. LPL Financial calculates the advisory fees and deducts them from client's account every quarter.

Item 16 - Investment Discretion

The client can determine to engage WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC to provide investment advisory services on a discretionary basis. Prior to WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC assuming discretionary authority over a client's account, the client shall be required to execute an Investment Advisory Agreement, naming WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC as the client's attorney and agent in fact, granting WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC full authority to buy, sell, or otherwise effect investment transactions involving the assets in the client's name found in the discretionary account.

Accounts that utilize third-party money managers may be managed on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. For non-discretionary accounts, WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC will discuss the investments to be purchased or sold for the client's account(s) and will obtain client approval before any changes are made, while staying within the parameter of the Investment Policy Statement mutually agreed upon by the client and WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC does not vote client proxies, however, third party money managers selected or recommended by our firm may vote proxies for clients. Clients will otherwise receive their proxies or other solicitations directly from their custodian. Clients may contact WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC at (800) 346-4063 to discuss any questions they may have with a solicitation.

Item 18 – Financial Information

WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC does not require or solicit prepayment of more than $1,200 in fees per client, six months or more in advance.

There are no financial conditions that are reasonably likely to impair the firm's ability to meet contractual commitments to clients. At no time has WCG Wealth Advisors, LLC been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
