Item 4: Services, Fees and Compensation

Program Description

Every Newday Impact Portfolio is custom-made, proprietary, and targeted investment strategy built to benefit a specific area of impact. Our multi-portfolio approach allows us to provide a fully-diversified investment strategy while impacting the areas the clients care about directly.

The Program is offered to clients through two platforms: a web-based digital investment advisory portal (the “App”) and a full service advisory (“Premier”) channel designed to compliment our online services for clients requiring non-individual types of accounts.

Clients will receive Newday’s Investment Advisory Agreement which will further detail the services the Client will receive and the fees charged to the Client. It is important to note, Newday does not provide overall financial planning nor does it provide tax advice.

App Platform

The Newday App gives the Client access to automated investment guidance where they can learn about investing, create and manage an investment portfolio that is designed to meet their financial goals, interest and beliefs. Each Client is required to respond to a series of questions designed to identify the client’s investment objectives, risk tolerance and the impact theme(s) in which they are interested. Based solely on the information provided by the Client the Newday algorithms analyzes the information and provides the Client access to a selection of investment portfolios. Portfolios focus on the following themes: global, carbon, gender and ocean. Our investment management services are currently limited to these portfolios, but additional portfolios may be added in the future. Newday portfolios are managed by our portfolio managers.

Newday provides investment advice to each Client, and each Client is solely responsible for implementing any such recommendations. Newday provides ongoing investment management services on a discretionary basis only. Newday’s investment advice is not tailored to the individual needs of the clients and client may not place restrictions on their investment portfolio. Clients should carefully review all information provided by Newday and any relevant company reports prior to investing. Newday does not provide investment advice in person or over the phone or in any other manner to Newday App clients.

It is the Client’s obligation to promptly update their information through the Newday App if there are changes to their financial situation, personal circumstances, goals, objectives or if other relevant information changes.

Premier Platform

The Premier platform allows Clients who are unable to open accounts through the digital platform due to account type, ie. entity accounts, access to all Newday portfolios. Each Client is required to respond to a series of questions designed to identify the client's investment objectives, risk tolerance and the impact theme(s) in which they are interested.

Based solely on the information provided by the Client the Newday adviser analyzes the information and provides the Client investment portfolios recommendations. Newday portfolios are managed by our portfolio managers. Portfolios focus on the following themes: global, climate, gender, animal welfare and ocean. Our investment management services are currently limited to these portfolios, but additional portfolios may be added in the future. The Client should understand that the Newday adviser relies upon the information provided by the Client in making its risk assessment and providing investment advice.

Newday provides investment advice to each Client, and each Client is solely responsible for implementing any such recommendations. Newday's investment advice is may be tailored to the individual needs of the clients and client may place restrictions on their investment portfolio. Newday provides ongoing investment management services on a discretionary basis only. Clients should carefully review all information provided by Newday and any relevant company reports prior to investing.

It is the Client's obligation to promptly update their information if there are changes to their financial situation, personal circumstances, goals, objectives or if other relevant information changes.

B. Fees

Newday Wrap Fee Program (the "Program") offers investment advisory service to clients in a program that bundles services together and charges a single fee based on the value of assets under management (the "Program"). The Program is offered to clients through two platforms: a web-based digital investment advisory portal and a full service advisory channel designed to compliment our online services for clients requiring non-individual types of accounts. A wrap fee program allows Newday to manage client accounts for a single fee that includes advisory services, trade execution, clearance, custodial and reporting.

Newday will not act as the custodian for accounts opened on either the Newday Premier or App platform, though our right to deduct advisory fees from the Client Account deems us to have "custody" of your funds. The securities and assets in each Client account are held in a separate account in the name of the Client at an independent custodian. Apex Clearing Corporation ("Apex") shall be the custodian for digital app Client and Charles Schwab, Inc. ("Schwab") shall be the custodian for the premier Client, and it shall have possession of the assets of the Account. All brokerage and clearing services are provided by, and securities are offered through Apex or Schwab.

The fee schedule is set forth below:

Total Assets Under Management	Annual Fee
Premier Platform	1.00%
Digital Platform	0% up to $100.00 1.00% (for account value above $101.00)

Participants in the “wrap” fee program pay a single inclusive fee (the “fee”) that typically includes custody, investment consultation, trading and investment advisory services. These fees are negotiable depending upon the needs of the client and complexity of the situation and the final fee schedule is attached as Exhibit II of the Client investment advisory agreement. Newday uses the last day of previous quarter for purposes of determining the market value of the assets upon which the advisory fee is based.

Advisory fees are withdrawn directly from the client’s accounts with client’s written authorization. Newday App Client fees are generally paid quarterly in arrears or at such other times as agreed upon by the parties involved, and invoices are provided to the client.

If a client terminates their investment advisory contract with Newday prior to quarter-end, the advisory fee will be pro-rated based on the portion of the quarter the account was opened, and Newday will automatically debit the amount of the fees from the assets of in the account. Therefore, no refund policy is necessary.

The program may cost the client more or less than purchasing such services separately. There are several factors that bear upon the relative cost of the program, including the trading activity in the client’s account, the adviser’s ability to aggregate trades, and the cost of the services if provided separately (which in turn depends on the prices and specific services offered by different providers).

Newday reserves the right to waive the fee or any part thereof for any period for any Client at Newday’s sole discretion.

C. Additional Fees

Clients incur certain charges imposed by custodians, brokers and other third parties such as fees charged by other managers, deferred sales charges, odd-lot differentials, transfer taxes, wire transfer and electronic fund fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. Mutual funds and exchange-traded funds charge internal management fee, which are disclosed in the fund's prospectus. Such charges, fees and commissions are exclusive of an in addition to our fee, and Newday does not receive any portion of these commissions, fees or costs incurred by the client.

D. Compensation of Client Participation

Neither Newday, nor any representatives of Newday receive any additional compensation beyond advisory fees for the participation of client's in the wrap fee program. However, compensation received may be more than what would have been received if client paid separately for investment advice, brokerage, and other services. Therefore, Newday may have a financial incentive to recommend the wrap fee program to clients.

Item 5: Account Requirements and Types of Clients

Newday generally provides its wrap fee program services to the following types of clients who are U.S. residents and maintain a checking account with a U.S. bank:

- ❖ Individuals
- ❖ High-Net-Worth Individuals
- ❖ Charitable Organizations
- ❖ Corporations or Entities

Minimum Account Size

There is no account minimum. A minimum balance of $100.00 must be maintained in order for the account to rebalance. If the account value is below $100.00 the account will not rebalance.

Item 6: Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

A. Selecting/Reviewing Portfolio Managers

Newday manages the portfolios of Clients in the program pursuant to each Client's Advisory Agreement.

Standards Used to Calculate Portfolio Manager Performance

Newday will use industry standards to calculate portfolio manager performance.

Review of Performance Information

A third party reviews the performance information to determine and verify its accuracy and compliance with presentation standards. The performance information is reviewed quarterly and is reviewed by third party advisor and Newday.

B. Related Persons

No related persons act as a portfolio manager for digital platform the wrap fee program as described in this brochure. As such, there are no conflicts of interest with related persons and Newday will not select any related persons as portfolio managers for this wrap fee program.

C. Advisory Business

Newday Funds, Inc., a Delaware corporation, was founded in 2015 by its predecessor Seed Financial Services, Inc.

Seed Financial Services, Inc., merged with GrowShares, Inc. with the surviving company continuing operations as GrowShares, Inc. Simultaneously, GrowShares, Inc. merged with Grow Financial Technologies, Inc. (the “Parent”), whereas GrowShares, Inc. became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Parent. Grow Financial Technologies, Inc. continued the advisory business through its wholly owned GrowShares, Inc.

In October 2017 Grow Financial Technologies, Inc. and GrowShares, Inc. change their name to Newday Financial Technologies Inc. and Newday Funds, Inc. (“Newday”), respectively.

Newday offers investment advisory services to its wrap fee program participants as discussed in Section 4 above.

Wrap Fee Portfolio Management

Digital Platform: Newday manages separate account Client portfolios in the Program based on the individual goals, objectives, time horizon, and risk tolerance of each client. Newday creates a portfolio with target asset allocations for equity and fixed income. The initial allocations are determined based on the Newday App software which selects the target asset allocation based on the information the Clients provided.

Premier Platform: Newday offers separate account clients on the Premier platform ongoing portfolio management services based on the individual goals, objectives, time horizon and risk tolerance of each Client. Newday creates an Investment Policy Statement for each client, which outlines the client’s current situation (income, tax levels, and risk tolerance levels) and then constructs a plan (the Investment Policy Statement) to aid in the recommendation of a portfolio that matches each client’s specific situation. Investment Supervisory Services include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Investment strategy
- Personal investment policy
- Asset allocation
- Asset selection
- Risk tolerance
- Regular portfolio monitoring

Newday evaluates the current investments of each client with respect to their risk tolerance levels and time horizon. Risk tolerance levels are documented in the Investment Policy Statement, which is given to each client.

Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Newday does not accept performance-based fees or other fees based on a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the assets of a client.

Services Limited to Specific Types of Investments

Newday generally limits its investment advice to mutual funds, equities, fixed income, and ETFs. Newday may use other securities as well to help diversify a portfolio when applicable.

Client Tailored Services and Client Imposed Restrictions

Newday offers the same suite of services to all of its clients. However, Premier Clients may impose restrictions and their implementation are dependent upon the client Investment Policy Statement which outlines each client's current situation (income, tax levels, and risk tolerance levels) and is used to construct a client specific plan to aid in the selection of a portfolio that matches restrictions, needs, and targets.

Wrap Fee Programs

Newday sponsors and acts as portfolio manager for this wrap fee program. The fees paid to the wrap account program will be given to Newday as a management fee.

Amounts Under Management

Newday has the following assets under management:

Discretionary Amounts:	Non-discretionary Amounts:	Date Calculated:
$886,913	$0	October 2017

Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies

Newday's method of analysis include modern portfolio theory.

Modern portfolio theory is a theory of investment which attempts to maximize portfolio expected return for a given amount of portfolio risk, or equivalently minimize risk for a given level of expected return, by carefully choosing the proportions of various assets.

Newday uses long term trading.

Investing in securities involves a risk of loss that you, as a client, should be prepared to bear.

Material Risks Involved

Modern Portfolio Theory assumes that investors are risk averse, meaning that given two portfolios that offer the same expected return, investors will prefer the less risky one. Thus, an investor will take on increased risk only if compensated by higher expected returns. Conversely, an investor who wants higher expected returns must accept more risk. The exact trade-off will be the same for all investors, but different investors will evaluate the trade-off differently based on individual risk aversion characteristics. The implication is that a rational investor will not invest in a portfolio if a second portfolio exists with a more favorable risk-expected return profile – i.e., if for that level of risk an alternative portfolio exists which has better expected returns.

Long term trading is designed to capture market rates of both return and risk. Frequent trading, when done, can affect investment performance, particularly through increased brokerage and other transaction costs and taxes.

Investing in securities involves a risk of loss that you, as a client, should be prepared to bear.

Risks of Specific Securities Utilized

Newday generally seeks investment strategies that do not involve significant or unusual risk beyond that of the general domestic and/or international equity markets. The investment types listed below (leaving aside Treasury Inflation Protected/Inflation Linked Bonds) are not guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other government agency.

Mutual Funds: Investing in mutual funds carries the risk of capital loss and thus you may lose money investing in mutual funds. All mutual funds have costs that lower investment returns. They can be of bond “fixed income” nature (lower risk) or stock “equity” nature (mentioned above).

Equity investment generally refers to buying shares of stocks by an individual or firms in return for receiving a future payment of dividends and capital gains if the value of the stock increases.

There is an innate risk involved when purchasing a stock that it may decrease in value and the investment may incur a loss.

Treasury Inflation Protected/Inflation Linked Bonds: The Risk of default on these bonds is dependent upon the U.S. Treasury defaulting (extremely unlikely); however, they carry a potential risk of losing share price value, albeit rather minimal.

Fixed Income is an investment that guarantees fixed periodic payments in the future that may involve economic risks such as inflationary risk, interest rate risk, default risk, repayment of principal risk, etc.

Stocks & Exchange Traded Funds (ETF): Investing in stocks & ETF's carries the risk of capital loss (sometimes up to a 100% loss in the case of a stock holding bankruptcy).

Long term trading is designed to capture market rates of both return and risk. Due to its nature, the long-term investment strategy can expose clients to various other types of risk that will typically surface at various intervals during the time the client owns the investments. These risks include but are not limited to inflation (purchasing power) risk, interest rate risk, economic risk, market risk, and political/regulatory risk.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities involves a risk of loss that you, as a client, should be prepared to bear.

Voting Client Proxies

Newday will not ask for, nor accept voting authority for client securities. Clients will receive proxies directly from the issuer of the security or the custodian. Clients should direct all proxy questions to the issuer of the security.

Item 7: Client Information Provided to Portfolio Managers

Newday has access to all Client information obtained by Newday with respect to the particular Client accounts they manage. Newday relies on the information provided by the Client either through the App or New Account Documentation completed for the Separately Managed Accounts.

Item 8: Client Contact with Portfolio Managers

We have a written Code of Ethics that covers the following areas: Prohibited Purchases and Sales, Insider Trading, Personal Securities Transactions, Exempted Transactions, Prohibited Activities, Conflicts of Interest, Gifts and Entertainment, Confidentiality, Service on a Board of Directors, Compliance Procedures, Compliance with Laws and Regulations, Procedures and Reporting, Certification of Compliance, Reporting Violations, Compliance Officer Duties, Training and Education, Recordkeeping, Annual Review, and Sanctions. Our Code of Ethics is available free upon request to any client or prospective client.

Recommendations Involving Material Financial Interests

Newday does not recommend that clients buy or sell any security in which a related person to Newday has a material financial interest.

Investing Personal Money in the Same Securities as Clients

From time to time, representatives of Newday. may buy or sell securities for themselves that they also recommend to clients. This may provide an opportunity for representatives of Newday to buy or sell the same securities before or after recommending the same securities to clients resulting in representatives profiting off the recommendations they provide to clients. Such transactions may create a conflict of interest. Newday will always document any transactions that could be construed as conflicts of interest and will never engage in trading that operates to the client's disadvantage when similar securities are being bought or sold.

Trading Securities At/Around the Same Time as Clients' Securities

From time to time, representatives of Newday may buy or sell securities for themselves at or around the same time as clients. Such transactions may create a conflict of interest; however, Newday will never engage in trading that operates to the client's disadvantage if representatives of Newday buy or sell securities at or around the same time as clients.

Frequency and Nature of Periodic Reviews and Who Makes Those Reviews

Newday provides Newday App Clients with continuous access via the web-based application to real time reporting information about their accounts status, securities holdings and balances. On a periodic basis reviews of accounts are conducted through the Newday App. Clients are encouraged to update the Newday should there be a change in their objectives or financial circumstances.

Separate Accounts are continuously reviewed to ensure their portfolios are within a set range of their Allocation. If the Client's portfolio deviates from this range, Newday will rebalance the portfolio back to its target allocation.

Factors That Will Trigger a Non-Periodic Review of Client Accounts

Reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events, or by changes in client's financial situations (such as retirement, termination of employment, physical move, or inheritance).

Content and Frequency of Regular Reports Provided to Clients

Each client will receive at least quarterly from the custodian, a written report that details the client's account including assets held and asset value which will come from the custodian.

Economic Benefits Provided by Third Parties for Advice Rendered to Clients (Includes Sales Awards or Other Prizes)

Newday does not receive any economic benefit, directly or indirectly from any third party for advice rendered to Newday clients.

Compensation to Non – Advisory Personnel for Client Referrals

Newday does not directly or indirectly compensate any person who is not advisory personnel for client referrals.

Balance Sheet

Newday does not require nor solicit prepayment of more than $500 in fees per client, six months or more in advance and therefore does not need to include a balance sheet with this brochure.

Financial Conditions Reasonably Likely to Impair Ability to Meet Contractual Commitments to Clients

Neither Newday nor its management have any financial conditions that are likely to reasonably impair our ability to meet contractual commitments to clients.

Bankruptcy Petitions in Previous Ten Years

Newday has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition in the last ten years.
