Chartered Financial Consultant® (ChFC®)

The ChFC® designation is offered by The American College. Designation holders are required to serve clients with the highest level of professionalism. The authority to use the ChFC® mark is granted by the Certification Committee of the Board of Trustees of The American College, and that privilege is contingent on adherence to strict ethical guidelines. All ChFC® advisors are required to do the same for clients that they would do for themselves in similar circumstances, the standard of ethical behavior most beneficial for their clients. Each ChFC® has taken 9 or more college-level courses on all aspects of financial planning. The average study time for the program is over 400 hours, and advisors frequently spend years earning this coveted distinction. Each ChFC® must also complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education every two years and must meet extensive experience requirements to ensure that you get the professional financial advice you need.

ITEM 3: DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Mr. Sirota was involved in a dispute with Fidelity on June of 2015 in which it was alleged that he did not spend enough time with a customer to warrant credit for that client interaction. Fidelity did not provide prior notice of this allegation prior to termination, and the reason did not become known to Mr. Sirota until months after termination. These allegations did not result in any customer harm, nor did these allegations involve the purchase or sale of investments, securities, or insurance. No fines or penalties were paid by Mr. Sirota in the resolution of this case. For additional information please search CRD #6084705 at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.
