Item 4 Other Business Activities

Robert Klaess, Investment Advisor Representative with CCA, is licensed and registered as an insurance agent to sell life and health insurance for various insurance companies through the affiliated entity, Clear Creek Insurance, LLC. Therefore, he will be able to purchase insurance products for any client in need of such services and will receive separate, yet typical compensation in the form of commissions for the purchase of insurance products. This creates a conflict of interest. A conflict of interest exists because Mr. Klaess can recommend products for which he can receive additional compensation, i.e. insurance. Clients always have the right to decide whether to purchase insurance recommended by Mr. Klaess and if they do purchase insurance, clients are not obligated to use Clear Creek Insurance, LLC or its representatives for insurance product services. However, in such instances, there is no advisory fee associated with these insurance products. Mr. Klaess will spend approximately 75% of his time on insurance related activities.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Amy Bratsch, Chief Compliance Officer, monitors the investment advisory activities, personal investing activities, and adherence to the Advisor's compliance program and code of ethics of CCA's supervised persons on a continuous basis using various methods, including periodic inspection and review of client securities positions and transaction activity, obtaining certifications of compliance with company policies and procedures from those supervised, and obtaining and reviewing brokerage statements or transactions and holdings reports of the supervised persons. To provide adequate oversight of CCA personnel, Erik Krom, Partner, will provide the same oversight activities over the Chief Compliance officer. Amy Bratsch can be reached at (720) 642-8348.
