Item 3: Disciplinary Information¹

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Greene.

¹ Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving the advisor to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of advisor to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

In February 2017 Mr. Greene started consulting part-time for Cyberpress, a commercial printer located in Santa Clara, CA. He focuses on strategic planning and A/R management.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Greene has received assistance covering transition-related legal, software and accounts transfer costs from Charles Schwab & Co. Inc. ("Schwab") in order to transition his business to the Schwab custodial platform. Our firm examined this potential conflict of interest when our firm chose to recommend Schwab and has determined that the recommendation is in the best interest of our firm's clients and satisfies our fiduciary obligations, including our duty to seek best execution.
