Form ADV Part 2A – Disclosure Brochure

Effective: September 24, 2019

This Form ADV 2A ("Disclosure Brochure") provides information about the qualifications and business practices of Ivy Wealth Management, Inc. ("IWM" or the "Advisor"). If you have any questions about the contents of this Disclosure Brochure, please contact us at (401) 681-4266.

IWM is a registered investment advisor with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The information in this Disclosure Brochure has not been approved or verified by the SEC or by any state securities authority. Registration of an investment advisor does not imply any specific level of skill or training. This Disclosure Brochure provides information about IWM to assist you in determining whether to retain the Advisor.

Additional information about IWM and its Advisory Persons is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with our firm name or our CRD# 164557.

Item 2 – Material Changes

Form ADV 2 is divided into two parts: Part 2A and Part 2B. Part 2A (the “Disclosure Brochure”) provides information about a variety of topics relating to an Advisor’s business practices and conflicts of interest. Part 2B (the “Brochure Supplement”) provides information about Advisory Persons of IWM.

IWM believes that communication and transparency are the foundation of its relationship and continually strives to provide its Clients with complete and accurate information at all times. IWM encourages all current and prospective Clients to read this Disclosure Brochure and discuss any questions you may have with us and, of course, we always welcome your feedback.

Material Changes

The Advisor has transitioned as a state registrant to a registrant with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Advisor has named Todd Sadwin the new Chief Compliance Officer of Ivy Wealth Management, Inc.

Future Changes

From time to time, we may amend this Disclosure Brochure to reflect changes in our business practices, changes in regulations and routine annual updates as required by the securities regulators. This complete Disclosure Brochure or a Summary of Material Changes shall be provided to each Client annually and if a material change occurs in the business practices of IWM.

At any time, you may view the current Disclosure Brochure on-line at the SEC’s Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with our firm name or our CRD# 164557. Item 4 – Advisory Services

A. Firm Information

Ivy Wealth Management, Inc. (“IWM” or the “Advisor”) is a registered investment advisor with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, which is organized as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Rhode Island. IWM was founded in July 2010 and is owned and operated by Brad M. Ingegneri (President and Chief Executive Officer). This Disclosure Brochure provides information regarding the qualifications, business practices, and advisory services provided by IWM.

B. Advisory Services Offered

IWM offers investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates and various types of retirement plans (each referred to as “Client”).

The Advisor serves as a fiduciary to Clients, as defined under the applicable laws and regulations. As a fiduciary, the Advisor upholds a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client and seeks to mitigate potential conflicts of interest. Our fiduciary commitment is further described in our Code of Ethics. For more information regarding our Code of Ethics, please see Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading.

Investment Management Services

IWM provides customized investment advisory solutions for its Clients. This is achieved through ongoing personal Client contact and interaction while providing discretionary investment management and consulting services. IWM works with each Client to identify their investment goals and objectives as well as risk tolerance and financial situation in order to create an appropriate portfolio strategy. IWM will then construct a portfolio, typically consisting of low-cost, diversified mutual funds and/or exchange-traded funds (ETFs) to achieve the Client’s investment objectives. The Advisor may also utilize individual stocks and bonds to meet the needs of its Clients.

IWM’s investment strategy is primarily long-term focused, but the Advisor may buy, sell or re-allocate positions that have been held less than one year to meet the objectives of the Client or due to market conditions. IWM will construct, implement and monitor the portfolio to ensure it meets the goals, objectives, circumstances, and risk tolerance agreed to by the Client. Each Client will have the opportunity to place reasonable restrictions on the types of investments to be held in their respective portfolio, subject to the acceptance by the Advisor.

IWM evaluates and selects ETFs and mutual funds for inclusion in Client portfolios only after applying their internal due diligence. IWM may recommend, on occasion, redistributing investment allocations to diversify the portfolio. IWM may recommend specific positions to increase sector or asset class weightings. The Advisor may recommend employing cash positions as a possible hedge against market movement. IWM may recommend selling positions for reasons that include, but are not limited to, harvesting capital gains or losses, business or sector risk exposure to a specific security or class of securities, overvaluation or overweighting of the position[s] in the portfolio, change in risk tolerance of Client, generating cash to meet Client needs, or any risk deemed unacceptable for the Client’s risk tolerance.

At no time will IWM accept or maintain custody of a Client’s funds or securities, except for the limited authority as outlined in Item 15 - Custody. All Client assets will be managed within their designated account[s] at the Custodian, pursuant to the Client investment advisory agreement, please see Item 12 – Brokerage Practices.

Financial Planning Services

IWM will typically offer a variety of financial planning services to individuals and families, pursuant to a written financial planning or consulting agreement. Services are offered in several areas of a Client’s financial situation, depending on their goals, objectives and financial situation.

Generally, such financial planning services will involve preparing a financial plan or rendering a financial consultation based on the Client’s financial goals and objectives. This planning or consulting may encompass one or more areas of need, including, but not limited to investment planning, retirement planning, personal savings, education savings, insurance needs and other areas of a Client's financial situation.

A financial plan developed for, or financial consultation rendered to, the Client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the Client. For example, recommendations may be made that the Client start or revise their investment programs, commence or alter retirement savings, establish education savings and/or charitable giving programs. IWM may also refer Clients to an accountant, attorney or other specialist, as appropriate for their unique situation. For certain financial planning engagements, the Advisor will provide a written summary of Client's financial situation, observations, and recommendations. For consulting or ad-hoc engagements, the Advisor may not provide a written summary. Plans or consultations are typically completed within three months of contract date, assuming all information and documents requested are provided promptly.

Financial planning and consulting recommendations may pose a potential conflict between the interests of the Advisor and the interests of the Client. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendations made by the Advisor or maintain an ongoing relationship with the Advisor. If the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations made by the Advisor, the Client is under no obligation to implement said recommendations through the Advisor.

Institutional Retirement Plan Consulting Services

IWM provides non-discretionary retirement plan advisory services on a fee-only basis. The Advisor is engaged by benefit plan sponsors such as corporations to advise on the investment strategy of both defined benefit and defined contribution retirement savings plans. IWM advises plan sponsors with regard to the fiduciary process, to include investment selection and monitoring, asset allocation, employee education, benchmarking and training of investment committee members as to their ERISA fiduciary obligations.

- Defined Benefit Plan Asset Allocation and Investment Strategy – IWM advises defined benefit pension plan sponsors on overall asset allocation strategy as well as portfolio structuring and manager selection for the plan. Asset allocation is generally analyzed by considering the plan's liability cost structure.
- IWM works collaboratively with the plan actuaries to develop the associated objectives and constraints for overall pension asset allocation strategy recommendations.
- Defined Contribution Plan Investment Lineup – IWM advises defined contribution plan sponsors on plan investment lineup structure, suitability, efficiency and overall cost/expense expectations. IWM may also advise the sponsor to update the investment lineup to add or remove asset classes and/or portfolio fund managers.
- Investment Policy Statement Review and Development – A written investment policy statement helps provide plan sponsors a foundation and guidelines for prudent management of the plan's investment program. IWM advises both defined benefit and defined contribution plan sponsors on investment policy statement development and structuring. Additionally, for sponsors who maintain a current investment policy statement, IWM will provide advisory review and recommendations to update the policy for current plan oversight and performance monitoring requirements.
- Employee Education – IWM provides general investment and investment-related benefit plan education to employees/plan participants. Educational content can include, but is not limited to, explanations and definitions of different types of asset classes, various wealth management approaches, retirement planning basics, and 401(k)/403(b) plan and pension benefit plan investment structures.

C. Client Account Management

Prior to engaging IWM to provide investment advisory services, each Client is required to enter into one or more agreements with the Advisor that define the terms, conditions, authority and responsibilities of the Advisor and the Client. These services may include:

- Establishing an Investment Strategy – IWM, in connection with the Client, will develop an investment strategy that seeks to achieve the Client's goals and objectives.

- Asset Allocation – IWM will develop a strategic asset allocation that is targeted to meet the investment objectives, time horizon, financial situation and tolerance of risk for each Client.
- Portfolio Construction – IWM will develop a portfolio for the Client that is intended to meet the stated goals and objectives of the Client.
- Investment Management and Supervision – IWM will provide investment management and ongoing oversight of the Client's investment portfolio.

D. Wrap Fee Programs

IWM does not manage or place Client assets into a wrap fee program. Investment management services are provided directly by IWM.

E. Assets Under Management

As of June 30, 2019, IWM manages the following assets:

|--------------------------------------|----------------------|
| Discretionary Assets | $77,150,000 |
| Non-Discretionary Assets | $65,750,000 |
| Total Assets Under Management | $142,900,000 |

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

The following paragraphs detail the fee structure and compensation methodology for services provided by the Advisor. Each Client shall sign one or more agreements that detail the responsibilities of IWM and the Client.

A. Fees for Advisory Services

Investment Management Services

Private wealth management investment advisory fees are paid monthly, in advance of each month, pursuant to the terms of the investment advisory agreement. Investment advisory fees below are annual rates and are charged monthly, in advance, based on the previous month's average daily balance of the assets under management. The annual advisory fee ranges from 1.50% down to 0.25% based on the following tiered fee schedule:

| Asset Level | Tiered Rate | Aggregate Rate @ Tier Max |
|------------------------------|-------------|---------------------------|
| $0 – $250,000 | 1.50% | 1.50000% |
| $250,000 – $500,000 | 1.25% | 1.37500% |
| $500,000 – $1,000,000 | 1.00% | 1.18750% |
| $1,000,000 – $5,000,000 | 0.75% | .96875% |
| $5,000,000 – $10,000,000 | 0.50% | .68750% |
| $10,000,000 – $100,000,000 | 0.25% | .46875% |
| $100,000,000+ | Retainer | Retainer |

The investment advisory fee in the first month of service is prorated from the inception date of the account[s] to the end of the first month. Fees may be negotiable at the sole discretion of the Advisor. The Client's fees will take into consideration the aggregate assets under management with the Advisor. All securities held in accounts managed by IWM will be independently valued by the Custodian. IWM will not have the authority or responsibility to value portfolio securities.

Financial Planning Services

IWM offers comprehensive financial planning on a fixed engagement fee basis ranging from $1,000 to $10,000 depending on the scope of planning involved. IWM may also offer financial planning on an hourly basis ranging from $150 - $300 per hour, again, depending on the scope of the planning involved. These fees or rates may be negotiable at the sole discretion of the Advisor, depending on the Client's circumstances and the scope and complexity of the engagement. An estimate for total hours and overall costs will be provided to the Client prior to engaging for these services.

For information regarding the specific levels of financial planning offered by IWM, please feel free to request IWM's Financial Planning Agreement (FPA) for review by calling (401) 681-4266 or emailing info@ivywealth.net.

Institutional Retirement Plan Consulting Services

IWM's retirement plan division is Ivy Retirement Solutions which offers consulting services for a fee based on either a percentage (0.50% down to 0.10%) of assets under advisement or a fixed fee annually (beginning at $30,000). In each case, the fee is based upon various objective and subjective factors, including, but not limited to, the amount of assets under advisement, the level and scope of services rendered and the complexity of the engagement. Fees may be negotiable at the sole discretion of the Advisor.

| Asset Level | Tiered Rate | Aggregate Rate @ Tier Max |
|------------------------------|-------------|---------------------------|
| $0 – 1,000,000 | .50% | .500% |
| $1,000,000 – $3,000,000 | .40% | .433% |
| $3,000,000 – $10,000,000 | .30% | .340% |
| $10,000,000 – $30,000,000 | .20% | .246% |
| $30,000,000 – $100,000,000 | .10% | .144% |
| $100,000,000+ | Retainer | Retainer |

B. Fee Billing

Investment Management Services

Investment advisory fees will be calculated by the Advisor or its delegate and deducted from the Client's account[s] at the Custodian. The Advisor or its delegate shall send an invoice to the Custodian indicating the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client's account[s]. Clients will be provided with a statement, at least quarterly, from the Custodian reflecting deduction of the fee. It is the responsibility of the Client to verify the accuracy of these fees as listed on the Custodian's brokerage statement as the Custodian does not assume this responsibility. Clients provide written authorization permitting advisory fees to be deducted by IWM directly from their accounts held by the Custodian as part of the investment advisory agreement and separate account forms provided by the Custodian.

Institutional Retirement Plan Consulting Services

Plan Sponsors may elect one of the following ways to pay IWM's advisory fee:

- Directive from the plan sponsor to authorize the Custodian to debit the custodial account the amount of the advisory fee and directly remit that fee to IWM in compliance with regulatory procedures
- Directive from the plan sponsor to authorize the Custodian to debit an available ERISA budget/plan expense reimbursement account which derives its funding from the underlying revenue sharing component of the expense ratios associated with the investment offerings
- Any combination of the above

Depending on the specific vendor utilized for the plan sponsor, fees may be billed monthly or quarterly and in advance or in arrears.

C. Other Fees and Expenses

Clients may incur certain fees or charges imposed by third parties, other than IWM, in connection with investments made on behalf of the Client's account[s]. The Client is responsible for any custody and securities execution fees charged by the Custodian. IWM will assess a quarterly technology service fee to cover an online portal and performance reporting. The investment advisory fee charged by IWM is separate and distinct from any custody, execution or service fees.

In addition, all fees paid to IWM for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by mutual funds, ETFs or individual securities (and the exchanges they are traded on) to their shareholders, if applicable. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees and expenses will generally be used to pay management fees for the funds, other fund expenses, account administration (e.g., custody, brokerage and account reporting), and a possible distribution fee. A Client may be able to invest in these products directly, without the services of IWM, but would not receive the services provided by IWM which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which products or services are most appropriate for each Client's financial situation and objectives. Accordingly, the Client should review both the fees charged by the fund[s] and the fees charged by IWM to fully understand the total fees to be paid.

D. Advance Payment of Fees and Termination

Investment Management Services

IWM is compensated for its services in advance of the month in which investment advisory services are rendered. Either party may terminate the agreement with IWM, at any time, by providing advance written notice to the other party. The Client may also terminate the agreement within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's agreement at no cost to the Client. After the five-day period, the Client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the Client. The Client shall be responsible for fees up to and including the effective date of termination. Upon termination, the Advisor will refund any unearned, prepaid fees from the effective date of termination to the end of the month. The Client's agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without Client's prior consent.

Financial Planning Services

Financial planning fees are invoiced upon completion of the engagement deliverable[s]. Either party may terminate a planning or consulting agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. In addition, the Client may also terminate the agreement within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's financial planning or consulting agreement at no cost to the Client. After the five-day period, the Client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the Client.

Upon termination, the Client shall be billed for actual hours logged on the planning project times at the agreed-upon hourly rate or the percentage of a fixed fee earned by the Advisor. The Client's agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without Client's prior consent.

E. Compensation for Sales of Securities

IWM does not buy or sell securities to generate commissions and does not receive any compensation for securities transactions in any Client account, other than the investment advisory fees noted above. Mr. Ingegneri is also a registered representative of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments, Inc. ("PKS") of Albany, New York. PKS is a registered broker-dealer (CRD No. 35747), member FINRA, SIPC. In his separate capacity as a registered representative, Mr. Ingegneri will typically receive commissions for the implementation of recommendations for commissionable transactions, if effected through his broker dealer affiliation. Please see Item 10.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

IWM does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by IWM are as described in Item 5 – Fees and Compensation above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client.

IWM does not manage any proprietary investment funds or limited partnerships (for example, a mutual fund or a hedge fund) and has no financial incentive to recommend any particular investment options to its Clients.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

IWM provides investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals and pension and profit-sharing plans. The amount of each type of Client is available on the Advisor's Form ADV Part 1A. These amounts may change over time and are updated at least annually by the Advisor. IWM generally does not impose a minimum size for establishing a relationship but does assess whether to take on each prospective new client on a case-by-case basis.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. Methods of Analysis

IWM primarily employs fundamental analysis methods in developing investment strategies for its Clients. Research and analysis from IWM are derived from numerous sources, including financial media companies, third-party research materials, Internet sources, and review of company activities, including annual reports, prospectuses, press releases and research prepared by others.

Fundamental analysis utilizes economic and business indicators as investment selection criteria. These criteria are generally ratios and trends that may indicate the overall strength and financial viability of the entity being analyzed. Assets are deemed suitable if they meet certain criteria to indicate that they are a strong investment with a value discounted by the market. While this type of analysis helps the Advisor in evaluating a potential investment, it does not guarantee that the investment will increase in value. Assets meeting the investment criteria utilized in the fundamental analysis may lose value and may have negative investment performance. The Advisor monitors these economic indicators to determine if adjustments to strategic allocations are appropriate. More details on the Advisor's review process are included in Item 13.

As noted above, IWM generally employs a long-term investment strategy for its Clients, as consistent with their financial objectives. IWM will typically hold all or a portion of a security for more than a year but may hold for shorter periods for the purpose of rebalancing a portfolio or meeting the cash needs of Clients. At times, IWM may also buy and sell positions that are more short-term in nature, depending on the goals of the Client and/or the fundamentals of the security, sector or asset class.

B. Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves certain investment risks. Securities may fluctuate in value or lose value. Clients should be prepared to bear the potential risk of loss. IWM will assist Clients in determining an appropriate strategy based on their tolerance for risk and other factors noted above. However, there is no guarantee that a Client will attain their investment objectives.

Each Client engagement will entail a review of the Client's investment objectives, financial situation, time horizon, tolerance for risk and other factors to develop an appropriate strategy for managing a Client's account[s]. Client participation in this process, including full and accurate disclosure of requested information, is essential for the analysis of a Client's account[s]. The Advisor shall rely on the financial and other information provided by the Client or their designees without the duty or obligation to validate the accuracy and completeness of the provided information. It is the responsibility of the Client to inform the Advisor of any changes in financial condition, goals or other factors that may affect this analysis.

The risks associated with a particular strategy are provided to each Client in advance of investing Client accounts. The Advisor will work with each Client to determine their tolerance for risk as part of the portfolio construction process. Following are some of the risks associated with the Advisor's strategy:

Market Risks

The value of a Client's holdings may fluctuate in response to events specific to companies or markets, as well as economic, political, or social events in the U.S. and abroad. This risk is linked to the performance of the overall financial markets.

ETF Risks

The performance of ETFs is subject to market risk, including the possible loss of principal. The value of the ETFs will fluctuate with the value of the underlying securities that make up the funds. In addition, ETFs have a trading risk based on the loss of cost efficiency if the ETFs are traded actively and a liquidity risk if the ETFs have a large bid-ask spread and low volume. Authorized participants in an ETF may change at any time; this may result in change to the liquidity and the ability to redeem the ETF as the authorized participants control the number of shares of the ETF. The value of an ETF fluctuates based upon the market movements and may disassociate from the index being tracked or from the value of the underlying investments. An ETF purchased or sold at one point in the day may have a different value than the same ETF purchased or sold a short time later.

Mutual Fund Risks

The performance of mutual funds is subject to market risk, including the possible loss of principal. The value of the mutual funds will fluctuate with the value of the underlying securities that make up the funds. The value of a mutual fund is typically set daily therefore a mutual fund purchased at one point in the day will typically have the same value as a mutual fund purchased later that same day.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Clients are reminded to discuss these risks with the Advisor.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, regulatory or disciplinary events involving IWM or any of its Supervised Persons. IWM and its Supervised Persons value the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider with which you partner. Our backgrounds are available on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with our firm name or our CRD# 164557.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Broker-Dealer Affiliation

As noted in Item 5 above, Mr. Ingegneri is also a registered representative of PKS. In his separate capacity as a registered representative, Mr. Ingegneri will typically receive commissions for the implementation of recommendations for commissionable transactions. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendation provided by Mr. Ingegneri. Neither the Advisor nor Mr. Ingegneri will earn ongoing investment advisory fees in connection with any services implemented in Mr. Ingegneri's separate capacity as a registered representative.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Certain Advisory Persons of IWM are also licensed insurance professionals. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from one's role with IWM. As an insurance professional, an Advisory Person may receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. Advisory Persons are not required to offer the insurance products for any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This may cause a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by the Advisor or one of its Advisory Persons.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Code of Ethics

IWM has implemented a Code of Ethics that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code of Ethics applies to all Supervised Persons associated with IWM (our "Supervised Persons"). The Code of Ethics was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. IWM and its personnel owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of IWM Supervised Persons to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code of Ethics covers a range of topics that address employee ethics and conflicts of interest. To request a copy of our Code of Ethics, please contact us at (401) 681-4266 or via email at info@ivywealth.net.

B. Personal Trading with Material Interest

IWM allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. IWM does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, the Advisor does not act as the general partner of a fund or advise an investment company. IWM does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts.

C. Personal Trading in Same Securities as Clients

IWM allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Owning the same securities we recommend (to purchase or sell) to you presents a potential conflict of interest that, as fiduciaries, we must disclose to you and mitigate through policies and procedures. As noted above, we have adopted a Code of Ethics, which addresses insider trading (material non-public information controls) and personal securities reporting procedures. When trading for personal accounts, Supervised Persons of IWM may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by IWM requiring reporting of personal securities trades by its Supervised Persons for review by the Chief Compliance Officer ("CCO"). We have also adopted written policies and procedures to detect the misuse of material, non-public information. We may have an interest or position in certain securities, which may also be recommended to you.

In addition, the Code of Ethics governs Gifts and Entertainment given by and provided to the Advisor, outside employment activities of employees, Employee reporting, sanctions for violations of the Code of Ethics, and records retention requirements for various aspects of the Code of Ethics.

D. Personal Trading at Same Time as Client

While IWM allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, such trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards. At no time will IWM, or any Supervised Person of IWM, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

A. Recommendation of Custodian[s]

IWM does not have discretionary authority to select the broker-dealer/custodian for custody and execution services. Further, IWM does not have the discretionary authority to negotiate commissions on behalf of Clients on a trade-by-trade basis.

Where IWM does not exercise discretion over the selection of the Custodian, it may recommend the Custodian to Clients for custody and execution services. Clients are not obligated to use the Custodian recommended by the Advisor and as such are not obligated to engage the Advisor's services if choosing to use a Custodian not recommended by IWM. IWM may recommend a Custodian based on criteria such as, but not limited to, reasonableness of commissions charged to the Client, services made available to the Client, reputation, and/or location of the Custodian's offices. IWM typically recommends to Clients that they establish their brokerage account[s] at Fidelity Clearing & Custody Solutions, a division of Fidelity Investments, Inc. (collectively "Fidelity"). Fidelity is an independent and unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer and FINRA member. Fidelity offers independent investment advisors services, which include custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. IWM receives certain benefits from Fidelity through its participation in the program.

Following are additional details regarding the brokerage practices of the Advisor:

1. Soft Dollars - Soft dollars are revenue programs offered by broker-dealers/custodians whereby an advisor enters into an agreement to place security trades with a broker-dealer/custodian in exchange for research and other services. IWM does not participate in soft dollar programs sponsored or offered by any broker-dealer/custodian. However, IWM does receive certain benefits from Fidelity as detailed in Item 14 below.

2. Brokerage Referrals - IWM does not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with the recommendation for establishing an account.

3. Directed Brokerage - All Clients are serviced on a "directed brokerage basis", where IWM will place trades within the established account[s] at the Custodian designated by the Client. Further, all Client accounts are traded within their respective brokerage account[s] at the Custodian. The Advisor will not engage in any principal transactions (i.e., trade of any security from or to the Advisor's own account) or cross transactions with other Client accounts (i.e., purchase of a security into one Client account from another Client's account[s]). IWM will not be obligated to select competitive bids on securities transactions and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available transaction costs. These costs are determined by the Custodian.

B. Aggregating and Allocating Trades

The primary objective in placing orders for the purchase and sale of securities for Client accounts is to obtain the most favorable net results taking into account such factors as 1) price, 2) size of order, 3) difficulty of execution, 4) confidentiality and 5) skill required of the Custodian. IWM will execute its transactions through the Custodian as directed by the Client. IWM may aggregate orders in a block trade or trades when securities are purchased or sold through the Custodian for multiple (discretionary) accounts. If a block trade cannot be executed in full at the same price or time, the securities purchased or sold by the close of each business day must be allocated in a manner that is consistent with the initial pre-allocation or other written statement. This must be done in a way that does not consistently provide an advantage or create a disadvantage for any particular Client accounts.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

A. Frequency of Reviews

Securities in Client accounts are monitored on a regular and continuous basis by Mr. Ingegneri, President and Chief Executive Officer of IWM. Formal reviews are generally conducted at least annually or more frequently depending on the needs of the Client.

B. Causes for Reviews

In addition to the investment monitoring noted in Item 13.A., each Client account shall be reviewed at least annually. Reviews may be conducted more or less frequently at the Client's request. Accounts may be reviewed as a result of major changes in economic conditions, known changes in the Client's financial situation, and/or large deposits or withdrawals in the Client's account[s]. The Client is encouraged to notify IWM if changes occur in his/her personal financial situation that might adversely affect his/her investment plan. Additional reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events.

C. Review Reports

The Client will receive brokerage statements no less than quarterly from the Custodian. These brokerage statements are sent directly from the Custodian to the Client. The Client may also establish electronic access to the Custodian's website so that the Client may view these reports and their account activity. Client brokerage statements will include all positions, transactions and fees relating to the Client's account[s]. The Advisor may also provide Clients with periodic reports regarding their holdings, allocations and performance.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

A. Compensation Received by IWM

Broker-Dealer Affiliation

Mr. Ingegneri is also a registered representative of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments, Inc. ("PKS") of Albany, New York. PKS is a registered broker-dealer (CRD No. 35747), member FINRA, SIPC. In his separate capacity as a registered representative, Mr. Ingegneri will typically receive commissions for the implementation of recommendations for commissionable transactions.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Mr. Ingegneri is also a licensed insurance professional. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from his role with the IWM. As an insurance agent, Mr. Ingegneri may receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold.

Participation in Institutional Advisor Platform

IWM has established an institutional relationship with Fidelity to assist the Advisor in managing Client account[s]. Access to the Fidelity Institutional platform is provided at no charge to the Advisor. The Advisor receives access to software and related support without cost because the Advisor renders investment management services to Clients that maintain assets at Fidelity. The software and related systems support may benefit the Advisor, but not its Clients directly. In fulfilling its duties to its Clients, the Advisor endeavors at all times to put the interests of its Clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits from a Custodian creates a potential conflict of interest since these benefits may influence the Advisor's recommendation of this Custodian over one that does not furnish similar software, systems support, or services.

Additionally, the Advisor may receive the following benefits from Fidelity: receipt of duplicate Client confirmations and bundled duplicate statements; access to a trading desk that exclusively services its institutional participants; access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts; and access to an electronic communication network for Client order entry and account information.

B. Client Referrals from Solicitors

IWM does not engage paid solicitors for Client referrals.

Item 15 – Custody

IWM does not accept or maintain custody of any Client accounts, except for the authorized deduction of the Advisor's fees. All Clients must place their assets with a "qualified custodian". Clients are required to engage the Custodian to retain their funds and securities and direct IWM to utilize the Custodian for the Client's security transactions. IWM encourages Clients to review statements provided by Custodian. For more information about custodians and brokerage practices, see Item 12 – Brokerage Practices. Item 16 – Investment Discretion

IWM generally has discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be bought or sold in Client accounts without obtaining prior consent or approval from the Client. However, these purchases or sales may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, or limitations previously set forth by the Client and agreed to by IWM. Discretionary authority will only be authorized upon full disclosure to the Client. The granting of such authority will be evidenced by the Client's execution of an investment advisory agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority. All discretionary trades made by IWM will be in accordance with each Client's investment objectives and goals.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

IWM does not accept proxy-voting responsibility for any Client. Clients will receive proxy statements directly from the Custodian. The Advisor will assist in answering questions relating to proxies, however, the Client retains the sole responsibility for proxy decisions and voting.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Neither IWM, nor its management has any adverse financial situations that would reasonably impair the ability of IWM to meet all obligations to its Clients. Neither IWM, nor any of its Advisory Persons, have been subject to a bankruptcy or financial compromise. IWM is not required to deliver a balance sheet along with this Disclosure Brochure, as the firm does not collect fees of $1,200 or more for services to be performed six months or more in advance.
