4 Advisory Business

United Advisors Investment Management (“UAIM”, also “Advisor”), a Registered Investment Advisor since January, 2013, provides investment advisory services through its partnership with Envestnet Asset Management, Inc. (“Envestnet”) and their contracted independent investment advisors and portfolio strategists. UAIM is a wholly owned subsidiary of United Atlantic Capital, LLC which is primarily owned by Mark H. Penske. United Atlantic Capital also owns United Advisors Services and Financial Services International Corp which are SEC-registered investment advisory firms. Mark H. Penske is also the majority owner of United Advisors, a SEC-registered investment advisory firm.

UAIM provides its clients with the Managed Portfolio Solutions Program (“MPS Program” or “Program”) through individually managed accounts where UAIM has enlisted third parties, including Envestnet, to offer various investment management products and services. The Program offerings are:

Separately Managed Accounts Program (“SMA Program”)
Mutual Fund and ETF Strategist Program
Advisor As Portfolio Manager

UAIM and Envestnet are not affiliated other than through jointly providing services to the Program. These services include:

Assessment of the client’s investment needs and objectives;
Development of an asset allocation strategy designed to meet the client’s objectives;
Recommendations on suitable style allocations;
Identification of appropriate managers and investment vehicles suitable to the client’s goals;
Evaluation of asset managers and investment vehicles meeting style and allocation criteria;
Engagement of selected asset managers and investment vehicles on behalf of the client;
Ongoing monitoring of individual manager’s performance and management for “Approved” investment strategies (as discussed in Item 6 below);
Review of client accounts to ensure adherence to policy guidelines and asset allocation;
Recommendations for account rebalancing, if necessary;
Online and/or paper reporting of client account(s) performance and progress for client accounts enrolled in the Program; and
Fully integrated back office support systems, including custody, trade execution, and confirmation and statement generation, through the client’s custodian

4.1 The Programs

For all Programs, we work with the client to compile pertinent financial and demographic information to determine their investment experience, anticipated need for liquidity, risk tolerance, rate of return objectives, potential timing of retirement and need for retirement funds and any other investment needs or pertinent factors and develop an investment program that will meet the client’s goals and objectives.

United Advisors Investment Management, LLC

The client's information is electronically forwarded to Envestnet and a proposal is generated for review (the "Proposal"). We will analyze the Proposal and recommend an appropriate strategy based on the client's needs and objectives, investment time horizon, risk tolerance and any other pertinent factors. Envestnet's proposal generation software uses a number of proprietary analytical tools and commercially available optimization software applications in developing its asset allocation strategies. Among the factors considered in designing these strategies are historical rates of risk and return for various asset classes, correlation across asset classes and risk premiums. Depending on your risk tolerance potential retirement timing, life stage or horizon, a client may decide to choose an alternative Program if a client is willing to take more or less risk than suggested Program by the Proposal.

Please note that an alternative Program may not be available for all investor profiles. You, in consultation with your investment adviser representative ("IAR"), ultimately decide the suitability as to whether you want to invest in a recommended Program pursuant to the Proposal or an alternative Program.

UAIM's SMA Program through the Envestnet platform offers clients access to an actively managed investment portfolio chosen from a roster of independent asset managers from a variety of investment disciplines. Unlike a mutual fund, where the funds are commingled, a separately managed account is a portfolio of individually owned securities that can be tailored to fit the client's investing preferences and investment restrictions. Envestnet may assist Advisor with recommendations regarding individual asset managers and investment vehicles that correspond to the proposed asset classes and styles or the Advisor may recommend such individual asset managers and investment vehicles without the assistance of Envestnet. These third party independent investment managers described in this SMA Program are referred to as "Managers." For a further description of Approved and Available Managers, please see the "Manager Evaluation" section below.

Mutual Fund or ETF Strategist Program offerings through the Envestnet platform are mutual fund and/or ETF asset allocation strategies based upon recommendations by Envestnet and as selected by UAIM that offer clients an actively managed portfolio of mutual fund and/or exchange-traded funds provided by third-party mutual fund and/or exchange-traded fund companies.

Advisor As Portfolio Manager allows Investment Advisor Representatives ("IARs") through the Envestnet platform to create their own custom models (subject to UAIM's review and approval) to assist them in acting as portfolio manager for some or all of a client's assets.

4.2 Investment Programs

UAIM has contracted with Envestnet to utilize the Envestnet technology platform to support performance reporting, fee calculation and billing, and to generate rebalancing trades for the asset allocation models managed by us, as well as to provide our clients with access to third party independent investment Managers as part of the MPS Program. For clients in the MPS Program, we will recommend Managers and investment vehicles that correspond to the proposed asset class and styles after reviewing a proposal generated via the Envestnet platform. Envestnet has established relationships with various Managers and may establish relationships with new Managers from time to time. Envestnet evaluates Managers specializing in asset categories which include equities (both domestic and foreign), corporate debt; commercial paper, certificates of deposit, municipal securities, mutual funds, real estate investment trusts, government securities, options, and futures. Investors acknowledge that Envestnet and UAIM cannot guarantee the continued availability of Managers under the program.

As of December 31, 2018, UAIM had approximately $ 834,764.62 Client assets under management. As of that date, UAIM managed $ 834,764.62 on a discretionary basis and $0 on a non-discretionary basis.

5 Fees and Compensation

Clients in the Program pay a MPS Program Fee which includes fees charged by UAIM, Envestnet, Managers or Sub-Manager(s) and any third-party service provider. Depending on the MPS Program(s) selected by the client, the MPS Program Fee also includes investment management services comprised of client profiling, strategic asset allocation, style allocation, research and evaluation of asset managers, ongoing monitoring of manager and account performance, asset manager hiring and termination, account rebalancing, account reporting and Envestnet's other operational and administrative services.

MPS Program Fees charged are calculated as an annual percentage of assets based on the market value of the account at the end of the quarter. MPS Program Fees are charged on a calendar quarter basis in advance and prorated to the end of the quarter upon inception of the account. The level of the MPS Program Fee will vary with the amount of assets under management, and the particular investment styles and investment options chosen or recommended. Clients may receive comparable services from other sources for fees that are lower or higher than those that we charge.

If there is insufficient cash in the Accounts at the time the MPS Program Fee is to be debited from the Accounts, the Client understands and acknowledges that UAIM, Platform Manager or Sub-Managers may sell an amount of MPS Program Assets to generate sufficient cash to pay the Program Fee. This may create a taxable gain or tax loss for the Client. If MPS Program Assets are illiquid and we, Platform Manager or Sub-Manager determine that the sale of MPS Program Assets to pay the MPS Program Fee is not feasible, Client will be invoiced for the MPS Program Fee for the quarter. For reporting only accounts or any other account that necessitates it, another designated Client account will be billed for the MPS Program Fee. The Client agrees to pay this invoice within ten (10) days of receipt. If this Agreement is terminated and all MPS Program Assets are withdrawn from the MPS Program prior to the end of a quarter, the pro rata portion of the MPS Program Fee will be reimbursed to Client.

The standard fee schedule for the MPS Program offerings is as follows but may be negotiable in individual cases depending on the MPS Program and with approval from the Manager, Envestnet and UAIM:

5.1 Separately Managed Accounts Program ("SMA Program")

The SMA Program utilizes Envestnet's manager due diligence and assistance in evaluating separate account managers, providing access to a range of managers and investment disciplines. The SMA Program also includes professional money management, manager due diligence, performance reporting, and associated services and support (such as trading, reconciliation, fee calculation, etc.). Sponsor Fee is representative and may vary by manager. Maximum Program Fee will not be exceeded in the SMA Program.

5.4 Other Issues Relating to Fees

In addition to the Program Fees described above, a client in the Platform may incur other fees and expenses for other services, including but not limited to, fees to distribute an account pursuant to a transfer on death agreement, an account transfer fee and/or an account termination fee.

The cost of investment advisory services provided through the MPS Program may be more or less than the cost of purchasing similar services separately. Among the factors impacting the relative cost of the program to a particular client include the size of the account; the type of account (i.e., equity or fixed income); the size of the assets devoted to a particular strategy; and the managers, mutual funds and/or ETFs selected.

Investment Advisor Representatives (IARs) who recommend the Program to their clients will receive compensation from UAIM as a result of their clients' participation in the MPS Program. This compensation may be more or less than what the IAR would receive if the client participated in other programs or paid separately for investment advice and other services. The IARs may therefore have a financial incentive to recommend the MPS Program over other programs or services. However, the MPS Program Fees have not been increased to cover fees paid to IARs.

In the event that 12b-1 fees are charged by mutual funds in which clients invest from an MPS Program, the amount of any distribution or 12b-1 fees may be credited back to the client account by the custodian.

Other costs that may be assessed and that are not part of those outlined above include fees for portfolio transactions executed away from the broker/custodian selected by the client, dealer mark-ups, electronic fund and wire transfers, spreads paid to market-makers, and exchange fees, among others. Broker/custodian may charge client certain additional and/or minimum fees.

5.5 Potential Conflicts

Our employees, Investment Adviser Representatives (IARs) and other related persons of UAIM may have accounts in our Programs that they recommend to advisory clients. In addition, our IARs may also own securities through outside brokerage accounts and may also buy or sell securities that clients also own in their accounts. Such investment decisions made for our employees, IARs and related persons are subject to our Code of Ethics. At all times, our employees, IARs and related persons are bound by our Code of Ethics to act in clients' best interests. Please see further discussion of our Code of Ethics on beginning on page 12 of this Brochure.

Conflicts may arise in the allocation of investment opportunities among accounts that we manage. We strive to allocate investment opportunities believed to be appropriate for your account(s) and other accounts advised by our firm among such accounts equitably and consistent with the best interests of all accounts involved. However, there can be no assurance that a particular investment opportunity that comes to our attention will be allocated in any particular manner.

United Atlantic Capital, LLC has an ownership interest in LVH, LLC (also known as 55 Capital Partners), a Third-Party Money Manager recommended by Advisors of United Advisors Services. United Atlantic Capital estimates that ownership interest totals less than approximately 5% ownership. United Atlantic Capital receives a "Distribution Fee", equal to a percentage of the Management Fee. The Distribution Fee may fluctuate based on the products utilized by the Advisor for the client account. This ownership and the additional Distribution Fee may present an incentive for United Advisors Services to recommend the services of LVH, LLC (also known as 55 Capital Partners). Therefore, Clients are advised that this ownership and Distribution Fee creates a conflict of interest when Advisors recommend the third-party investment advisor services of LVH, LLC (also known as 55 Capital Partners). There may be other third-party managed programs that may be suitable to the client that may be more or less costly than LVH, LLC (also known as 55 Capital Partners).

6 Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

The Firm does not charge any performance-based fees (fees based on a share of capital gains or on capital appreciation of the assets of a client). The Firm does not participate in side-by-side management. Side-by-side management refers to the practice of managing accounts that are charged performance-based fees while at the same time managing accounts that are not charged performance-based fees.

7 Types of Clients

We may provide portfolio management services to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates, pension and profit-sharing plans, corporations and other business entities, charitable organizations, IRAs, 401k plans and third-party investment advisors. All the MPS Programs have minimum account sizes and minimum MPS Program Fees associated with them. UAIM generally requests a minimum account size of $25,000 although this may be waived at UAIM's sole discretion.

8 Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear.

United Advisors Investment Management makes use of model portfolios with respect to some of the MPS Programs offered to clients. These model portfolios may be provided by a third party through our services arrangement with Envestnet or by our Advisory personnel.

As discussed above in Item 4 of this Brochure, prospective investors in United Advisors Investment Management managed portfolios in the MPS Program are questioned as to their risk tolerance, goals and objectives. Based upon this assessment conducted by an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR), an investment profile for the client will be identified. The IAR, after evaluating the client information and the Envestnet Proposal for MPS Programs, will place the client's investment assets into a "model" portfolio or portfolio specifically designed to meet the identified profile. Model portfolios are templates, which are usually altered slightly to fit the individual situation.

UAIM regularly monitors activity in client portfolios for adherence to the investment profile. Further, the proprietary model management platform provided by Envestnet is set up not to allow changes to a model portfolio that increases a client's risk level beyond the determined investment profile. For any changes in a client's investment profile a new assessment is required and must be reviewed and approved by UAIM's Investment Committee.

Since client portfolios are individually designed and managed, United Advisors Investment Management must exercise care in the use of models for constructing and operating these portfolios in the MPS Program. Too much standardization in client account removes the individual and personalized element and creates a risk that the accounts being managed to the model portfolios in the MPS Program will be aggregated and treated by the SEC as an "investment company" or "mutual fund" (see below).

United Advisors Investment Management, LLC

Changes in each individually managed account portfolio must be accompanied with the IAR's rationale for such changes. This is particularly important where an IAR makes a change to one or more portfolios, but not consistently throughout all portfolios. In all instances the IAR has an obligation to act in the best interests of the client.

In the MPS Program, in addition to UAIM's own research, certain Programs utilize the research capabilities of Envestnet's research team. In such instances, Envestnet evaluates: (i) asset allocation and portfolio construction and (ii) asset manager and investment vehicle evaluation.

With respect to asset allocation and portfolio construction, UAIM and Envestnet use information provided by the client, including demographic and financial information, to assess the client's risk profile and investment objectives in determining an appropriate plan for the client's assets. Envestnet's research team uses its own proprietary analytical tools coupled with commercially available optimization software applications to develop its asset allocation strategies. Some factors used as inputs in Envestnet's asset allocation process include historical rates of risk and return on various asset classes, correlation across asset classes, and risk premiums, among others.

Regarding asset management and investment vehicle evaluation, in addition to its own research, UAIM utilizes information gathered by Envestnet through their initial and ongoing research and due diligence process. Envestnet employs a rigorous multi-phase approach to researching and selecting Managers suitable for participation in its investment programs ("Approved Managers"). Approved Managers are evaluated using data and information from several sources, including the Manager and independent databases. Among the types of information analyzed are historical performance, investment philosophy, investment style, historical volatility and correlation across asset classes. Also reviewed are the Manager's Form ADV 2, as well as portfolio holdings reports that help demonstrate the Manager's securities selection process. To ensure accuracy, Envestnet attempts to verify all information by comparing it to publicly available sources.

The investment professionals at the investment management firms are a primary source of information to Envestnet, providing quantitative and qualitative information. In addition, Envestnet employs several publicly available databases from independent sources. These databases are used to verify the information provided by Managers.

Before offering services provided by independent Managers to clients, UAIM's Investment Committee reviews the philosophy of portfolio, managerial competence and experience, performance statistics and performance summary to ensure the objectives of the Manager align with client needs. At least annually, UAIM will review any updates to this information to determine if the Manager is still suitable for our clients.

Envestnet also provides alerts to us through an automated system based on quantitative information for Managers that report to a third-party investment database, which we use in our assessment of a particular Manager (the "Alerts"). We will monitor these Alerts and our Investment Committee will identify any situation which may warrant us to cease offering the Manager's services to new clients, and recommend a replacement Manager(s) to existing clients. In these situations, we will review each client situation based upon tax implications and other considerations involved in replacing the Manager and advise the client of options available in light of the circumstances.

In rare instances, Envestnet may terminate the contractual relationship with the Manager, and we will remove the Manager from client portfolios and cease to offer the Manager to new clients. This will typically occur with Managers who have encountered material regulatory or compliance related problems.

We recommend Managers to clients with a variety of investment strategies. Some strategies may be high-risk strategies. Such strategies usually have the potential for substantial returns; however, there are correspondingly significant risks involved in the strategies. Such strategies are not intended for all investors. Clients who choose to follow high-risk strategies should be aware that there is the possibility of significant losses up to and including the possibility of the loss of all assets placed in the strategies we recommend. We recommend that clients diversify their investments and do not place all of their investments in high-risk investment strategies.

In addition to Approved Managers, Envestnet also makes available certain Managers with respect to whom Envestnet has not performed Due Diligence. These Managers are categorized as "Available Managers" and Envestnet makes no recommendations concerning Available Managers. We are responsible for determining that we have sufficient information about an Available Manager to select such manager to provide services to our clients.

9 Disciplinary Information

UAIM and its management do not have disciplinary information to report.

10 Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

You should be aware that UAIM has several affiliated companies under the common control with UAIM. United Atlantic Capital, LLC wholly owns UAIM and also wholly-owns United Advisors Services, LLC and Financial Services International Corp. which are SEC-registered investment advisory firms. Financial Services International Corp is also an SEC-registered broker-dealer and FINRA Member. Mark H. Penske is also the majority owner of United Advisors, a SEC-registered investment advisory firm. UAIM does not consider such affiliations to create a material conflict of interest for UAIM or its clients.

United Atlantic Capital, LLC has an ownership interest in LVH, LLC (also known as 55 Capital Partners), a Third-Party Money Manager recommended by Advisors of United Advisors Services. United Atlantic Capital estimates that ownership interest totals less than approximately 5% ownership. United Atlantic Capital receives a "Distribution Fee", equal to a percentage of the Management Fee. The Distribution Fee may fluctuate based on the products utilized by the Advisor for the client account. This ownership and the additional Distribution Fee may present an incentive for United Advisors Services to recommend the services of LVH, LLC (also known as 55 Capital Partners). Therefore, Clients are advised that this ownership and Distribution Fee creates a conflict of interest when Advisors recommend the third-party investment advisor services of LVH, LLC (also known as 55 Capital Partners). There may be other third-party managed programs that may be suitable to the client that may be more or less costly than LVH, LLC (also known as 55 Capital Partners).

United Atlantic Capital also owns United Advisors Investment Management, a SEC-registered investment advisory firm. United Atlantic Capital also owns Financial Services International Corp. Financial Services International Corp. is also a SEC-registered and FINRA member broker-dealer. Mark H. Penske is also the majority owner of United Advisors, a SEC-registered investment advisory firm.

11 Code of Ethics, Participation in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

11.1 Code of Ethics

The interests of clients are held in the highest regard. Our employees or individuals associated or affiliated with UAIM may purchase or sell securities that are recommended to, or purchased or sold for, clients. Investment decisions made for our personnel may not be made at the same time or in the same manner as those made for clients. Personal securities transactions by our employees are subject to our Code of Ethics (the “Code”) which is intended to comply with the provisions of Rule 204A-1 of the Investment Advisers Act. The Code requires our employees at all times to act in our clients’ best interests and to avoid even the appearance of conflicts of interest. UAIM and its associated persons will not place itself in a position to have added benefit as a result of advice given to clients. The staff of UAIM shall not buy or sell securities for their personal portfolio(s) where their decision is substantially derived, in whole or in part, by reason of his or her employment, unless the information is also available to the investing public on reasonable inquiry. Jaclyn Sandler, the Chief Compliance Officer of UAIM, is responsible for the monitoring of personal trading conducted by staff.

The Code includes various reporting disclosure and approval requirements, described in summary below. UAIM designed these requirements to prevent or mitigate actual or potential conflicts of interest with clients. The Code applies not only to transactions by the individual employee, but also to transactions for accounts in which such person or the person's spouse, minor children or other dependents residing in the same household have an interest. Compliance with the Code is a condition of employment.

In accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission rules relating to record keeping by investment advisors, UAIM requires prompt reports of all Reportable Securities transactions. UAIM further requires that all brokerage account relationships be disclosed, that UAIM receive duplicate confirmations of transactions and custodial account statements, and annual certifications of compliance with the Code from all access persons. UAIM excludes the following from its reporting requirements: transactions in U.S. government securities, bank acceptances, bank certificates of deposit, commercial paper, high quality short-term instruments, including repurchase agreements, index-based futures/options, options/futures on treasury notes and bills or currency options/futures, shares of open-end mutual funds, exchange-traded funds and commodities.

United Advisors Investment Management, LLC

The responsibilities of UAIM's Chief Compliance Officer (or designee) include overseeing the regular monitoring and verification of compliance of covered persons with the requirements of the Code, and reporting material violations to UAIM's senior management. Covered transactions of the Chief Compliance Officer will be approved by another officer (or designee) of UAIM. In addition to reporting and record keeping requirements, the Code imposes various substantive and procedural restrictions on Reportable Securities transactions. The Chief Compliance Officer also may recommend to management the imposition of more severe sanctions, including suspension of personal investing privileges, or termination of employment, in the case of certain types of violations.

Our Code will be provided to clients or prospective clients upon request.

12 Brokerage Practices

UAIM has discretionary authority to execute transactions on behalf of its clients. Therefore, UAIM generally determines the securities and quantities to be bought and sold for each client's account, as well as the broker(s) to be used for such transactions. Clients with managed accounts at Fidelity Investments and/or Charles Schwab & Co. Raymond James and/or TD Ameritrade will use the brokerage services of these custodians. UAIM follows procedures intended to provide reasonable assurance of best execution, taking into consideration such factors as the ability of brokers to effect the transactions with minimal information leakage and market impact, the broker's recent history of effecting transactions for the securities in question, price, brokerage commission, timing, the brokers' stability and capital strength, capability of traders and floor brokers, reliability and accuracy of communications and settlement processing, etc. To the extent that UAIM clients direct brokerage, UAIM cannot be responsible for achieving best execution.

For situations where there is more than one broker-dealer in the marketplace, UAIM will consider various factors for best execution, including, but not limited to, securities availability, speed of showing appropriate securities, price competitiveness, operational efficiency, idea generation, dealing and operational flexibility, strength of bids, capability to commit capital, timeliness and ability to handle a difficult trade, prior involvement of a broker-dealer with a security, current market and security conditions and overall commitment to UAIM.

UAIM conducts periodic reviews of UAIM's brokerage and best execution practices.

UAIM has no written or verbal arrangements whereby it receives "soft dollar services" in return for directing clients' commissions.

UAIM may receive certain added benefits for utilizing the recommended custodian firms such as the ability to deduct advisory fees from clients' custodial accounts, access to a trading desk that services UAIM, discounts on periodicals or materials, complimentary business and compliance newsletters, and various other non-cash services. While UAIM's preferred service providers do not directly provide any research, they may offer discounts on general products. Any general research received is used for the benefit of all clients. The value of products, research and services given if any, is negligible and not a material factor.

Advisory Representatives may also receive admission to industry conferences (but not airfare or lodging) in conjunction with industry relationships.

12.1 Aggregation and Allocation

Transactions for each client generally will be effected independently, unless UAIM decides to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. UAIM may, but is not obligated to, combine or "batch" such orders to obtain best execution, to negotiate more favorable commission rates, or to allocate equitably among UAIM's clients differences in prices and commissions or other transaction costs that might have been obtained had such orders been placed independently. Under this procedure, transactions will generally be averaged as to price and allocated among UAIM's clients pro rata to the purchase and sale orders placed for each client on any given day. To the extent that UAIM determines to aggregate clients orders for the purchase or sale of securities, including securities in which UAIM's Advisory Representatives may invest, UAIM shall generally do so in accordance with applicable rules promulgated under the Advisers Act and no-action guidance provided by the staff of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. UAIM shall not receive any additional compensation or remuneration as a result of the aggregation. In the event that UAIM determines that a prorated allocation is not appropriate under the particular circumstances, the allocation will be made based upon other relevant factors, which may include: (i) when only a small percentage of the order is executed, shares may be allocated to the account with the smallest order or the smallest position or to an account that is out of line with respect to security or sector weightings relative to other portfolios, with similar mandates; (ii) allocations may be given to one account when one account has limitations in its investment guidelines which prohibit it from purchasing other securities which are expected to produce similar investment results and can be purchased by other accounts; (iii) if an account reaches an investment guideline limit and cannot participate in an allocation, shares may be reallocated to other accounts (this may be due to unforeseen changes in an account's assets after an order is placed); (iv) with respect to sale allocations, allocations may be given to accounts low in cash; (v) in cases when a pro rata allocation of a potential execution would result in a de minimis allocation in one or more accounts, UAIM may exclude the account(s) from the allocation; the transactions may be executed on a pro rata basis among the remaining accounts; or (vi) in cases where a small proportion of an order is executed in all accounts, shares may be allocated to one or more accounts on a random basis.

Other than as described above, we do not expect to receive any benefits as a result of directing brokerage to any particular broker.

12.2 Trade Errors

From time-to-time, trade errors may occur. When trade errors occur, UAIM's policy is to correct the error promptly. In the event that UAIM caused the error, UAIM will make the Client whole for the loss. If a third-party caused the error, UAIM will take steps to collect from the third-party the amount of the error; however, there is no guarantee that UAIM will be successful recuperating such funds in which case the Client will bear the loss. If the Client caused the error, the Client will bear the error.

In the event that a trade error results in a gain for a Client, the Client's ability to retain the gain will be dependent upon the trade error correction policies of the Client's custodian which may vary between custodians and are subject to change at any time. For information concerning the trade correction policies of custodians, Clients should contact their custodian.

12.3 Other Brokerage Practices

UAIM's recommended service providers feature a broad line of products and services that may be suitable to many types of investors with varying investable assets. UAIM recognizes its duty to obtain best price and execution for its clients under the circumstances available. The decision to recommend the preferred service providers is based upon the customer service provided to investors and the services available to UAIM and providing such recommendation is consistent with UAIM's fiduciary duty to the clients.

UAIM also considers its experience with the service providers, the providers' reputation, and the quality of execution services and costs. UAIM's clients are also welcome to evaluate these service providers before opening an account. While it is possible that clients may pay higher commissions or transaction fees through preferred service providers. UAIM has determined it currently offers the best overall value to UAIM and clients for the brokerage and technology provided. In an effort to minimize transaction fees on its Client's behalf, UAIM has negotiated fixed fees with the institutional custodians and affiliated brokerage firms that the Firm works with to execute trades. The Firm periodically reviews other alternatives that are available to UAIM.

13 Review of Accounts

We provide account reviews (either on an individual basis or in aggregate) to all accounts participating in our MPS Programs described above. Reviews are conducted to ensure conformity to investment policy guidelines, established asset allocation strategies and the stated needs and objectives of the individual client. The Investment Advisor Representative responsible for the client account will contact Client at least annually to determine whether there have been any changes in Client's financial situation or investment objectives, and whether client wishes to impose any reasonable restrictions on the management of Client's account. We utilize the performance reporting service provided by Envestnet to monitor individual account performance for custom managed accounts and model portfolio performance for the Programs in aggregate. Performance reporting provided by Envestnet is calculated according to industry standards and is applied to each account or combination of several related accounts for a household's or family's assets or to groups of accounts in each asset allocation model for internal composite purposes.

Clients receiving general investment advice for a negotiated hourly or set fee for advisory services that are not part of the MPS Program will receive reviews as agreed upon in the Advisory Services Agreement. These reviews will be provided by the Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) and will be of a nature dictated by the scope of the agreed upon services.

Clients enrolled in an MPS Program or who receive general investment advice outside of the MPS Program through UAIM are encouraged to contact their IAR to discuss changes to their financial situation or risk tolerance changes as those changes occur throughout the year.

Clients receiving general investment advice for a negotiated hourly or set fee for advisory services that are not part of the MPS Program will receive reports as agreed upon in the Advisory Services Agreement. These reports will be provided by the Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) and will be of a nature dictated by the scope of the agreed upon services. These reports will generally include an aggregated portfolio allocation and performance summary.

14 Client Referrals and Other Compensation

UAIM may enter into agreements with Solicitors (“Referring Parties”) who may refer prospective clients to UAIM. If a referred client enters into an advisory agreement with UAIM, compensation is paid to the referring party. The compensation is based upon the advisory fees that are generated. The referral arrangements between any referring party and UAIM will not result in any charges to referred Clients that are above the normal level of advisory fees charged. At the time of a referral, prospective clients will receive a copy of UAIM’s Brochure and the solicitor’s compensation disclosure document.

The referral agreements between UAIM and referring parties comply with Rule 206(4)-3 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

15 Custody

UAIM does not intend to have custody of client’s assets. Most client assets will be held in brokerage accounts with Charles Schwab & Co., Fidelity, Raymond James and TD Ameritrade under which our clients will grant us discretion to place trades.

Clients should receive at least quarterly statements from the broker dealer, bank or other qualified custodian that holds and maintains clients’ investment assets. UAIM urges you to carefully review such statements and compare such official custodial records to the account statements that we may provide to you. Our statements may vary from custodial statements based on accounting procedures, reporting dates, or valuation methodologies of certain securities.

Since the client’s custodian does not verify advisory fees deducted from the account, clients are encouraged to review their statements and to promptly contact their Investment Advisor Representative directly with any questions.

Additionally Envestnet will make available, generally updated on a daily basis (dependent on successful reconciliation with the Custodian’s records), the following information for each Program Client account: (i) account holdings and performance information, (ii) account transactions, (iii) contributions and withdrawals and (iv) current market value of the account.

Within five days of the fifteenth day of the month following each calendar quarter Envestnet will make available for electronic delivery a quarterly statement that includes a description of all activity in each Program Client's account(s) during the previous quarter, including all of the following: (i) an asset summary and performance section, (ii) comparative indices, (iii) all transactions made on behalf of the account(s), (iv) all contributions and withdrawals made by the Program Client, (v) all fees charged to the Accounts, the asset value of the Accounts for Program Fee calculation purposes and the Program Fee calculation, and (vi) information indicating the market value of the account(s) at the beginning and end of the period, as well as the cost, market value and estimated annual income of each of the Program assets. We have contracted with NFS to obtain and deliver these quarterly statements on our behalf. The quarterly statement will also include a statement to the effect that Client should contact us if there have been any changes in Client's financial situation or investment objectives, if Client wishes to impose reasonable restrictions on the management of Client's account or if Client wishes to reasonably modify existing restrictions and such statement will explain to Client the means by which contact with us may be made. UAIM urges you to carefully review such statements and compare such official custodial records to the account statements that we may provide to you. Our statements may vary from custodial statements based on accounting procedures, reporting dates, or valuation methodologies of certain securities.

16 Investment Discretion

Clients participating in the MPS Programs are required to grant full discretionary investment authority to us and Envestnet to invest, reinvest, sell, exchange and otherwise deal with MPS Program assets in their discretion, including without limitation the authority to select, allocate and reallocate the Program Assets in client's accounts to different sub-Managers and to delegate such discretion to such sub-Managers. Each client's account is managed on the basis of the client's individual financial situation. Each client has the opportunity to select the account's investment objective and impose reasonable investment guidelines and restrictions on the management of assets in the account. We may decline to manage accounts if these proposed investment guidelines or restrictions conflict with our investment philosophy or strategies or for any reason we deem appropriate. In addition, clients will be contacted annually and notified quarterly, in order to confirm the accuracy of information regarding this client. Investment guidelines and restrictions and any amendments thereto must be provided to UAIM in writing.

17 Voting Client Securities

As a matter of firm policy and practice, UAIM does not have any authority to and do not vote proxies on behalf of advisory clients unless a Client enters into an agreement with us to vote proxies on behalf of a Client. Clients retain the responsibility for receiving and voting proxies for any and all securities maintained in client portfolios. We may provide advice to clients regarding the clients' voting of proxies. In the event that UAIM accepts responsibility it will only cast proxy votes in a manner consistent with the best interest of its clients. Absent special circumstances, which are fully described in UAIM's Proxy

Voting Policies and Procedures, all proxies will be voted consistent with guidelines established and described in UAIM's Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures, as they may be amended from time-to-time. At any time, clients may contact UAIM to request information about how Registrant voted proxies for that client's securities or to get a copy of UAIM's Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures.

18 Financial Information

Registered investment advisors are required in this item to provide you with certain financial information or disclosures about the advisors' financial condition. UAIM has never filed for bankruptcy and is not aware of any financial condition that is expected to affect its ability to manage client accounts.

19 Requirements for State-Registered Advisors

As an SEC Registered Investment Adviser, this item does not apply to us.

Privacy Policy Notice

Privacy Policy of United Advisors Investment Management, LLC

We have adopted this policy with recognition that protecting the privacy and security of the personal information we obtain about our customers is an important responsibility. We also know that you expect us to service you in an accurate and efficient manner. To do so, we must collect and maintain certain personal information about you. We want you to know what information we collect and how we use and safeguard that information.

What Information We Collect

We collect certain nonpublic personal identifying information about you (such as your name, address, social security number, etc.) from information that you provide on applications or other forms as well as communications (electronic, telephone, written or in person) with you or your authorized representatives (such as your attorney, accountant, etc.). We also collect information about your brokerage accounts and transactions (such as purchases, sales, account balances, inquiries, etc.).

What Information We Disclose

We do not disclose the nonpublic personal information we collect about our customers to anyone except: (i) in furtherance of our business relationship with them and then only to those persons necessary to effect the transactions and provide the services that they authorize (such as broker-dealers, custodians, independent managers etc.); (ii) to persons assessing our compliance with industry standards (e.g., professional licensing authorities, etc.); (iii) our attorneys, accountants, and auditors; or (iv) as otherwise provided by law.

We are permitted by law to disclose the nonpublic personal information about you to governmental agencies and other third parties in certain circumstances (such as third parties that perform administrative or marketing services on our behalf or for joint marketing programs). These third parties are prohibited to use or share the information for any other purpose. If you decide at some point to either terminate our services or become an inactive customer, we will continue to adhere to our privacy policy, as may be amended from time to time.

Security of Your Information

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to those employees who need to know that information to service your account. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable federal or state standards to protect your nonpublic personal information.

Changes to our Privacy Policy or Relationship with You

Our policy about obtaining and disclosing information may change from time to time. We will provide you notice of any material change to this policy before we implement the change.
