Item 2 - Material Changes

The Signature Wealth Management Group LLC (“SWMG”) Brochure is used to inform clients of the nature of advisory services provided, types of clients served, fees charged, conflicts of interest and other information. The Brochure requirements include the annual provision of a Summary of Material Changes (the “Summary”) reflecting any material changes to our policies, practices, or conflicts of interest made since our last required “annual update” filing. In the event of any material changes, such Summary is provided to all clients within 120 days of our fiscal year-end.

Our annual amendment was filed on March 23, 2018. Since that date, we made the following changes to our Brochure:

July 2018

Our Brochure Supplements in Exhibit A were revised to reflect that our new Chief Compliance Officer is Brian Walker. Brian is listed as the contact person on the cover page of this Brochure for those that have any questions about the contents of the Brochure and/or would like a copy of the updated Brochure.

March 2019

- In Item 4, we revised the amount of client assets under our asset management services.
- In Item 15, we explain that Advisers are deemed to have constructive custody if they instruct the custodian to deduct advisory fees from client accounts and/or set up certain 1st party wire transfers or 3rd party standing letters of authorization for disbursement of funds from client accounts. Your custodian maintains physical custody of your assets.

A copy of our updated Brochure is available to you free of charge and may be requested by contacting us at (678) 932-2500 or Brian.Walker@signaturewmg.com.

Additional information about SWMG is also available via the SEC’s web site www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. The IARD number for SWMG is 285713. General Information

Signature Wealth Management Group LLC ("SWMG") was formed in 2017, and provides financial planning and portfolio management services to its clients.

James O. Sims and Scott R. Bishop are the principal owners of SWMG. Please see Brochure Supplement(s), Exhibit A, for more information on these principal owners and other individuals who formulate investment advice and have direct contact with clients, or have discretionary authority over client accounts.

As of December 31, 2018, SWMG had approximately $222.3 million of discretionary client assets under management. We do not offer non-discretionary portfolio management services.

SERVICES PROVIDED

Financial Planning

Financial planning generally includes advice that addresses one or more areas of a client's financial situation, such as estate planning, risk management, budgeting and cash flow controls, retirement planning, education funding, and investment portfolio design. Depending on a client's particular situation, financial planning includes some or all of the following:

- Gathering factual information concerning the client's personal and financial situation;
- Assisting the client in establishing financial goals and objectives;
- Analyzing the client's present situation and anticipated future activities in light of the client's financial goals and objectives;
- Identifying problems foreseen in the accomplishment of these financial goals and objectives and offering alternative solutions to the problems;
- Making recommendations to help achieve retirement plan goals and objectives;
- Designing an investment portfolio to help meet the goals and objectives of the client;
- Providing estate planning;
- Assessing risk and reviewing basic health, life and disability insurance needs; or
- Reviewing goals and objectives and measuring progress toward these goals.

This service is provided in conjunction with SWMG's portfolio management services. Clients are under no obligation to act upon any of the recommendations made by SWMG under a financial planning engagement and/or to engage the services of any recommended professional.

Portfolio Management

At the beginning of a client relationship, SWMG meets with the client, gathers information, and performs research and analysis as necessary to develop the client's financial plan. The financial plan will be updated from time to time when requested by the client, or when determined to be necessary or advisable by SWMG based on updates to the client's financial or other circumstances.

To implement the client's recommended portfolio, SWMG will manage the client's investments on a discretionary basis. As a discretionary investment adviser, SWMG will have the authority to supervise and direct the portfolio without prior consultation with the client.

Ingenious-Digital Investment Services (Robo Advisor Program)

We offer an automated investment program (Ingenious) through which clients are invested in a range of investment strategies we have constructed and manage, each consisting of a portfolio of exchange-traded funds ("ETFs") and a cash allocation. The client may instruct us to exclude up to three ETFs from their portfolio. The client's portfolio is held in a brokerage account opened by the client at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("CS&Co"). We use the Institutional Intelligent Portfolios® platform ("Platform"), offered by Schwab Performance Technologies ("SPT"), a software provider to independent investment advisors and an affiliate of CS&Co., to operate Ingenious. We are independent of and not owned by, affiliated with, or sponsored or supervised by SPT, CS&Co., or their affiliates (together, "Schwab"). We, and not Schwab, are the client's investment advisor and primary point of contact with respect to Ingenious. We are solely responsible, and Schwab is not responsible, for determining the appropriateness of Ingenious for the client, choosing a suitable investment strategy and portfolio for the client's investment needs and goals, and managing that portfolio on an ongoing basis. We have contracted with SPT to provide us with the Platform, which consists of technology and related trading and account management services for Ingenious. The Platform enables us to make Ingenious available to clients online and includes a system that automates certain key parts of our investment process (the "System"). The System includes an online questionnaire that helps us determine the client's investment objectives and risk tolerance and select an appropriate investment strategy and portfolio. Clients should note that we will recommend a portfolio via the System in response to the client's answers to the online questionnaire. The client may then indicate an interest in a portfolio that is one level less or more conservative or aggressive than the recommended portfolio, but we then make the final decision and select a portfolio based on all the information we have about the client. The System also includes an automated investment engine through which we manage the client's portfolio on an ongoing basis through automatic rebalancing and tax-loss harvesting (if the client is eligible and elects).

We charge clients a fee for our services as described below under Item 5 Fees and Compensation. Our fees are not set or supervised by Schwab. Clients do not pay brokerage commissions or any other fees to CS&Co. as part of Ingenious.

We pay SPT an annual licensing fee of 0.10% (10 basis points) on the value of our clients' assets in Ingenious.

Third Party Wrap Programs – Closed to New Clients

SWMG does not currently recommend the services of a Separate Account Manager ("Manager") to assist with implementation of a client's portfolio. However, certain clients have legacy arrangements with a Manager in a Third-Party Wrap Program to manage all or a portion of their assets. A Wrap Program is one that charges one fee (the "wrap fee") for both the manager's fee and the transaction expenses incurred by the account. SWMG's fee is charged separately from and in addition to the wrap fee.

SWMG's role in this arrangement is to monitor the overall financial situation of the client, to monitor the investment approach and performance of the Manager, and to assist the client in understanding the investments of the portfolio.

Sub-Advisory Services

Other registered investment advisers and investment professionals (the "primary advisers") will recommend or hire SWMG to manage their clients' assets. In these arrangements, SWMG will implement and manage an investment strategy in the client's account; however, SWMG does not serve as the primary adviser to the client. The primary adviser will retain direct contact with the client and will manage the client relationship. The primary adviser's client will typically enter into an advisory contract directly with SWMG or alternatively, depending on the contractual arrangement the client has with the primary adviser, SWMG will contract directly with the primary adviser to provide the client investment advisory services.

SWMG will have exclusive investment discretion as to which securities shall be purchased or sold in the sub-advised client's account in a manner consistent with the client's selected product, investment objectives, policies and restrictions (if any) and the capabilities of the broker-dealer. In order to determine whether the strategy is suitable for a client, the primary adviser and the client are responsible for ascertaining the goals and objectives of the portfolio in question. In addition, SWMG will obtain initial documentation of the client's risk parameters and investment objectives. However, it is the responsibility of the primary adviser and/or the client to promptly notify SWMG of any changes in financial condition of the client that would necessitate a change in the client's investment objective.

Retirement Plan Advisory Services

Establishing a sound fiduciary governance process is vital to good decision-making and to ensuring that prudent procedural steps are followed in making investment decisions. SWMG will provide Retirement Plan consulting services to Plans and Plan Fiduciaries as described below. The particular services provided will be detailed in the consulting agreement. The appropriate Plan Fiduciary(ies) designated in the Plan documents (e.g., the Plan sponsor or named fiduciary) will (i) make the decision to retain our firm; (ii) agree to the scope of the services that we will provide; and (iii) make the ultimate decision as to accepting any of the recommendations that we provide. The Plan Fiduciaries are free to seek independent advice about the appropriateness of any recommended services for the Plan. Retirement Plan consulting services are offered individually or as part of a comprehensive suite of services.

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") sets forth rules under which Plan Fiduciaries are permitted to retain investment advisers for various types of services with respect to Plan assets. For certain services, SWMG will be considered a fiduciary under ERISA. For example, SWMG will act as an ERISA §3(21) fiduciary when providing non-discretionary investment advice to the Plan Fiduciaries by recommending a suite of investments as choices among which Plan Participants may select. Also, to the extent that the Plan Fiduciaries retain SWMG to act as an investment manager within the meaning of ERISA § 3(38), SWMG will provide discretionary investment management services to the Plan. With respect to any account for which SWMG meets the definition of a fiduciary under Department Of Labor rules, SWMG acknowledges that both SWMG and its Related Persons are acting as fiduciaries. Additional disclosure is located in this Brochure or in the written agreement between SWMG and Client.

Fiduciary Consulting Services

- Investment Selection Services
SWMG will provide Plan Fiduciaries with recommendations of investment options consistent with the safe harbor requirements of ERISA section 404(c) while acting as a 3(21) fiduciary. Plan Fiduciaries retain responsibility for the final determination of investment options and for compliance with ERISA section 404(c).

Non-Discretionary Investment Advice

SWMG provides Plan Fiduciaries and Plan Participants general, non-discretionary investment advice regarding asset classes and investments.

- Investment Monitoring

SWMG will assist in monitoring the plan's investment options by preparing periodic investment reports that document investment performance, consistency of fund management and conformation to the guidelines set forth in the investment policy statement and SWMG will make recommendations to maintain or remove and replace investment options. The details of this aspect of service will be enumerated in the engagement agreement between the parties.

Non-Fiduciary Services

- Participant Education

SWMG will provide education services to Plan Participants about general investment principles and the investment alternatives available under the Plan. Education presentations will not take into account the individual circumstances of each Plan Participant and individual recommendations will not be provided unless a Plan Participant separately engages SWMG for such services. Plan Participants are responsible for implementing transactions in their own accounts.

- Participant Enrollment

SWMG will assist with group enrollment meetings designed to increase retirement Plan participation among employees and investment and financial understanding by the employees.

Item 5 - Fees and Compensation

General Fee Information

Fees paid to SWMG are exclusive of all custodial and transaction costs paid to the client's custodian, brokers or other third party consultants. Please see Item 12 - Brokerage Practices for additional information. Fees paid to SWMG are also separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds, ETFs (exchange traded funds) or other investment pools to their shareholders (generally including a management fee and fund expenses, as described in each fund's prospectus or offering materials). The client should review all fees charged by funds, brokers, SWMG and others to fully understand the total amount of fees paid by the client for investment and financial-related services.

Stand-Alone Financial Planning Fees

Stand-alone financial planning services are provided for a fixed fee that typically ranges from $500 - $1,500. Alternatively, for limited engagements, SWMG will charge an hourly fee. Fees are negotiated with each client based on the scope and complexity of the requested services. Payment is due upon delivery of the financial plan or requested analysis.

Portfolio Management Fees

As noted above, financial planning is provided in conjunction with SWMG's portfolio management services for one all-inclusive fee. Portfolio management fees are individually negotiated with each client and range up to 1.45% annually. Factors considered in determining the fee schedule generally include, but are not limited to: the complexity of the client's portfolio; assets to be placed under management; anticipated future assets; related accounts; portfolio style; account composition; or other special circumstances or requirements. The specific fee schedule will be identified in the Investment Advisory Agreement between the client and SWMG.

The minimum portfolio value is generally set at $100,000. The minimum annual fee for any portfolio is $1,250. SWMG will, at its discretion, make exceptions to the foregoing or negotiate special fee arrangements where SWMG deems it appropriate under the circumstances.

Portfolio management fees are calculated and paid to the SWMG each calendar quarter in advance based on the value of the client's portfolio on the last business day of the previous quarter. Fees are prorated for deposits and withdrawals of $50,000 or more. If management begins after the start of a quarter, fees will be prorated accordingly. With client authorization, unless other arrangements are made, fees are normally debited directly from client account(s).

Either SWMG or the client may terminate their Investment Advisory Agreement at any time, subject to any written notice requirements in the agreement. In the event of termination, any paid but unearned fees will be promptly refunded to the client based on the number of days that the account was managed, and any fees due to SWMG from the client will be invoiced or deducted from the client's account prior to termination.

Ingenious-Digital Investment Services (Robo Advisor Program) Fees

As described in Item 4 Advisory Business, clients do not pay fees to SPT or brokerage commissions or other fees to CS&Co. as part of Ingenious. Ingenious charges clients an advisory fee as described below. Ingenious fees are not set or supervised by Schwab. Some of the securities used in the Program are available for commission-free trading by all Schwab customers even if they do not participate in this Program. The particular securities selected by Ingenious for any given strategy will only include securities that are eligible for commission-free trading outside the Program, and therefore, clients will not receive any extra benefit from the commission-free trading this Program provides.

Schwab does receive other revenues in connection with the Program, as described in the Program Disclosure Brochure. These revenue sources combine and cover any expenses, such as trading costs, which clients who invest in the same securities outside the program would have to pay separately. Ingenious does not receive any portion of this revenue.

Ingenious is compensated for its advisory services by charging a negotiable annual percentage fee of not more than 1.00% which is based on the market value of a client's investment account. Portfolio management fees are generally payable quarterly, in advance. If management begins after the start of a quarter, fees will be prorated accordingly. In accordance with the Investment Management Agreement, fees are debited directly from client account(s).

Wrap Program Fees

SWMG's fees are charged separately from and in addition to Wrap Program fees.

Sub-Advisory Fees

When SWMG serves as the investment manager to accounts of other advisers and investment professionals (i.e., the primary advisers), there are three components that comprise the client's fee/pricing structure: the primary adviser's management fee, SWMG's management fee, and the broker-dealer's fee for brokerage and custody services. Sub-advisory fees are individually negotiated with each adviser and range up to 0.50% annually. The client should see the primary adviser's Form ADV Part 2A for more information regarding its fees, as fees will vary by adviser.

Retirement Plan Advisory Fees

Retirement plan advisory fees are individually negotiated with the Fiduciary(ies) of each Plan and take the form of an asset-based, fixed and/or hourly fee arrangement. Factors considered when determining the fee include, without limitation, the size of the Plan and number of Plan Participants, the scope and complexity of services to be provided, and whether the selected services will be ongoing or periodic in nature. The Plan's specific fee arrangement will be detailed in the Plan's contract with SWMG.

Other Compensation

Certain of SWMG's employees are also licensed insurance agents and/or Registered Representatives of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments ("PKS"), a FINRA and SIPC member, and registered broker/dealer. As such, they are entitled to receive commissions or other remuneration on the sale of insurance as well as other products. This is a conflict of interest. To protect client interests, SWMG's policy is to disclose all forms of compensation before any such transaction is executed. Clients will not pay both a commission to these individuals and also pay an advisory fee to SWMG on the same pool of assets. These fees are exclusive of each other.

Although he does not actively recommend variable annuity products, Scott Bishop receives 12b-1 fees from variable annuities that he sold to clients in the past or on variable annuities on which he has become the broker of record. The following provides important information about the cost structure of variable annuity products. Variable annuity products have additional costs to the client. These costs include surrender fees if the purchase of the product results from the transfer from another variable product; costs associated with living or death benefits; administrative fees; sub-account management fees; mortality and expense fees; and bonus expenses if the product has a bonus element. Certain variable annuities have surrender fees if the annuity is transferred or liquidated within the stated surrender period. Surrender periods can range from 5 to 10 years depending on the individual product purchased. Additionally, certain variable products often have limitations on the number of transactions that can be conducted among the subaccounts. Exceeding the limitation could result in additional expenses. Please read the variable annuity prospectus for details on the costs associated with the product.

SWMG attempts to mitigate the conflicts of interest relating to the receipt of commissions by providing you with these disclosures. You have the right to decide whether or not to engage services and purchase products and which professionals to use. You are free to consult with other professionals regarding the implementation of your financial or retirement plan if you so choose. Furthermore, as a Registered Representative with PKS these individuals are subject to a supervisory structure at PKS for all securities business.

As a result of this relationship, PKS will have access to certain confidential information (e.g., financial information, investment objectives, transactions, and holdings) about SWMG clients, even if the client does not establish any account through PKS. If you would like a copy of PKS's privacy notice, please contact James O. Sims.

To protect client interests, SWMG's policy is to disclose all forms of compensation before any such transaction is executed.

Item 6 - Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

SWMG does not have any performance-based fee arrangements. “Side-by-Side Management” refers to a situation in which the same firm manages accounts that are billed based on a percentage of assets under management and at the same time manages other accounts for which fees are assessed on a performance fee basis. Because SWMG has no performance-based fee accounts, it has no side-by-side management.

Item 7 - Types of Clients

SWMG serves individuals, high net worth individuals, pension and profit-sharing plans, corporations, and charitable organizations. With some exceptions, the minimum portfolio value eligible for conventional investment advisory services is $100,000, and the annual minimum fee charged is $1,250.

Clients eligible to enroll in Ingenious, our Digital Investment Services (Robo Advisor Program) include individuals, high net worth individuals, IRAs, and revocable living trusts. Clients that are organizations (such as corporations and partnerships) or government entities, and clients that are subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, are not eligible for Ingenious. The minimum investment required to open an account in Ingenious is $5,000. The minimum account balance to enroll in the tax-loss harvesting feature is $50,000.

Item 8 - Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies

SWMG’s strategic approach is to invest in accordance with the financial plan and recommended portfolio that has been developed specifically for each client. SWMG typically manages clients’ accounts under two distinct portfolio series: The Signature Equity Income Series and The Signature Mutual Fund Series. Each series has its own distinct processes and methodologies designed to achieve different financial goals. And within each series there are contained several different portfolios; variations on a theme which will meet the needs and risk tolerances of different individual investors.

The Signature Equity Income Series is a group of portfolios whose unifying theme and overarching goal is to create a stable and growing income stream primarily from the dividends of common stocks. The current lineup includes:

The Signature Equity Income Strategy – our core offering comprised of companies that typically pay a dividend yield higher than that of ‘the market’ average. They also have a history of growing their dividends, although that growth is secondary to current income. This Equity Income Strategy is typically paired with a portfolio of individual bonds for risk mitigation as well as additional income.

The Signature Total Income Strategy – This portfolio is an asset allocated version of the Signature Equity Income Strategy. It contains all of the stocks (and ancillary funds) of the Equity Income Strategy and enhances them with primarily fixed income ETFs (exchange traded funds) designed to balance out risk and volatility all within one portfolio.

The Signature Rising Dividend Strategy – This portfolio utilizes the same principle as our Equity Income Strategy; investing in common stocks that generate dividends. However, the balance between current income and growth of income is weighted more in favor of dividend growth over time. This program is typically more appropriate either for younger investors who have higher risk tolerances and longer time horizons or accounts such as Roth IRAs that are usually a smaller portion of a client's total wealth.

All of these strategies are unified by the Signature Fundamental Research Process. We utilize a company's reported financial data, along with independent outside research to develop a thorough understanding of its Balance Sheet, Income Statement, and Statement of Cash Flows. Once we believe that the company has the ability and propensity to pay and grow its dividend over time, we then incorporate it into a balanced portfolio of 30-40 stocks. These will typically be the largest and most well capitalized companies, mostly U.S. listed (with smaller allocations to American Depositary Receipts of non-U.S. companies). And the portfolio will be managed to achieve its overall dividend yield throughout the process of selling stocks when their dividend yield falls below our target yield, and buying stocks when their dividend yield enters the target band, either through dividend increases or price declines.

In addition to our Equity Income Series of stock portfolios, we also offer the Signature Mutual Fund Series. The Signature Mutual Fund Strategies were created to provide a potential for wealth-building that can be critical to reaching long-term financial goals. We utilize mutual funds in these strategies for greater diversification available through funds or also to access investment themes, processes or strategies that are not available through the Equity Income Series.

These different strategies are typically built around a select menu of core funds which are evaluated based on short and long term performance, manager tenure, third party research evaluations, corporate investment culture, and positioning to meet a particular investment need. For each portfolio, we will attempt to balance such factors as investment size (large, medium, small cap stocks), style (value vs. growth), and domicile (U.S. vs International) within the overarching framework of asset allocation (stocks vs. bonds vs. cash). The Signature Mutual Fund Series lineup includes:

Signature Growth Strategy – This combination of mutual funds is designed for an investor who has a 10 or more year time horizon for the funds they are investing. These investors have a longer time horizon and want investments that will afford growth with a reasonable amount of volatility. The Growth Strategy seeks to smooth out the ups and downs of the market, while providing growth that meets long term investment goals.

Signature Growth & Income Strategy – The growth and income strategy is designed for an investor with a 5-10 year time horizon for the funds they are committing to invest. These investors are willing to accept a slightly lower return than longer time horizon investors in exchange for less volatility. Therefore the asset allocation is different than the growth investor. Many of the underlying investments are the same, but the weightings will be different and favor the less volatile investments that are not as growth oriented and more balanced.

Signature Conservative Strategy – The conservative strategy is designed with the pre-retiree and retiree in mind. These investors will typically have less than 5 year time horizon for potential usage of the funds. With this in mind, this investor is even less risk tolerant than the balanced investor. This investor is seeking preservation of capital with growth as a secondary objective. Therefore, the funds selected will be primarily short-duration fixed income funds with a modest allocation to conservative growth-oriented funds.

We also offer two income-oriented mutual fund strategies, typically for investors who need income from their portfolios but are not committing enough capital to adequately diversify through one of our Equity Income Series portfolios:

Signature Income Strategy – The income strategy is designed to provide a current income stream for an investor who rely on the asset’s income to provide current cash-flow. The asset allocation favors income producing investments in the form of dividend yield. This investor has a similar risk tolerance as the conservative investor and also requires current income in the portfolio.

Signature Tax Efficient Growth & Income Strategy – The tax-efficient strategy is designed for investors who have excess cash in non-retirement accounts. This strategy offers a less volatile option to investors than the growth or growth and income strategies and has enhanced tax-efficiency accomplished by the addition of municipal bond exposure.

Summary

All in all, we believe we can meet the needs of nearly all investors through a portfolio represented within these two series. Each one will be carefully thought out, thoroughly researched, and diligently monitored as we strive to provide the best outcome available, consistent with market conditions and appropriate time horizons.

Risk of Loss

While SWMG seeks to diversify clients’ investment portfolios across various asset classes consistent with their financial plans in an effort to reduce risk of loss, all investment portfolios are subject to risks. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that client investment portfolios will be able to fully meet their investment objectives and goals, or that investments will not lose money.

Below is a description of several of the principal risks that client investment portfolios face.

Management Risks. While SWMG manages client investment portfolios, or recommends one or more Managers, based on SWMG’s experience, research and proprietary methods, the value of client investment portfolios will change daily based on the performance of the underlying securities in which they are invested. Accordingly, client investment portfolios are subject to the risk that SWMG or a Manager allocates client assets to individual securities and/or asset classes that are adversely affected by unanticipated market movements, and the risk that SWMG’s specific investment choices could underperform their relevant indexes.

Risks of Investments in Mutual Funds, ETFs and Other Investment Pools. As described above, SWMG or a Manager(s) invest client portfolios in mutual funds, ETFs and other investment pools (“pooled investment funds”). Investments in pooled investment funds are generally less risky than investing in individual securities because of their diversified portfolios; however, these investments are still subject to risks associated with the markets in which they invest. In addition, pooled investment funds’ success will be related to the skills of their particular managers and their performance in managing their funds. Pooled investment funds are also subject to risks due to regulatory restrictions applicable to registered investment companies under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

The risks with ETFs include the fact that actively traded ETFs can create increased trading expenses and fees and the intraday trading opportunities created by ETFs may not fit into a long-term investor's strategy. In addition, an ETF more heavily weighted towards a particular market sector may be more volatile over short and long periods of time than a more broadly diversified ETF.

Equity Market Risks. SWMG and any Manager(s) will generally invest portions of client assets directly into equity investments, primarily stocks, or into pooled investment funds that invest in the stock market. As noted above, while pooled investments have diversified portfolios that may make them less risky than investments in individual securities, funds that invest in stocks and other equity securities are nevertheless subject to the risks of the stock market. These risks include, without limitation, the risks that stock values will decline due to daily fluctuations in the markets, and that stock values will decline over longer periods (e.g., bear markets) due to general market declines in the stock prices for all companies, regardless of any individual security's prospects.

Fixed Income Risks. SWMG and any Manager(s) may invest portions of client assets directly into fixed income instruments, such as bonds and notes, or may invest in pooled investment funds that invest in bonds and notes. While investing in fixed income instruments, either directly or through pooled investment funds, is generally less volatile than investing in stock (equity) markets, fixed income investments nevertheless are subject to risks. These risks include, without limitation, interest rate risks (risks that changes in interest rates will devalue the investments), credit risks (risks of default by borrowers), or maturity risk (risks that bonds or notes will change value from the time of issuance to maturity).

Foreign Securities Risks. SWMG and any Manager(s) may invest portions of client assets into pooled investment funds that invest internationally. While foreign investments are important to the diversification of client investment portfolios, they carry risks that are different from U.S. investments. For example, foreign investments may not be subject to uniform audit, financial reporting or disclosure standards, practices or requirements comparable to those found in the U.S. Foreign investments are also subject to foreign withholding taxes and the risk of adverse changes in investment or exchange control regulations. Finally, foreign investments involve currency risk, which is the risk that the value of the foreign security will decrease due to changes in the relative value of the U.S. dollar and the security's underlying foreign currency.

Item 9 - Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to a client's evaluation of SWMG or the integrity of SWMG's management. SWMG has no disciplinary events to report.

Item 10 - Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Certain of SWMG's employees are also licensed insurance agents and/or Registered Representatives of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments, a FINRA and SIPC member, and registered broker/dealer. Please see Item 5 for more information.

Item 11 - Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics and Personal Trading

SMWG has adopted a Code of Ethics ("the Code"), the full text of which is available to you upon request. SWMG's Code has several goals. First, the Code is designed to assist SWMG in complying with applicable laws and regulations governing its investment advisory business. Under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, SWMG owes fiduciary duties to its clients. Pursuant to these fiduciary duties, the Code requires persons associated with SWMG (managers, officers and employees) to act with honesty, good faith and fair dealing in working with clients. In addition, the Code prohibits such associated persons from trading or otherwise acting on insider information.

Next, the Code sets forth guidelines for professional standards for SWMG's associated persons. Under the Code's Professional Standards, SWMG expects its associated persons to put the interests of its clients first, ahead of personal interests. In this regard, SWMG associated persons are not to take inappropriate advantage of their positions in relation to SWMG clients.

Third, the Code sets forth policies and procedures to monitor and review the personal trading activities of associated persons. From time to time SWMG's associated persons invest in the same securities recommended to clients. Under its Code, SWMG has adopted procedures designed to reduce or eliminate conflicts of interest that this could cause. The Code's personal trading policies include procedures for limitations on personal securities transactions of associated persons, reporting and review of such trading and pre-clearance of certain types of personal trading activities. These policies are designed to discourage and prohibit personal trading that would disadvantage clients. The Code also provides for disciplinary action as appropriate for violations.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

As outlined above, SWMG has adopted procedures to protect client interests when its associated persons invest in the same securities as those selected for or recommended to clients. In the event of any identified trading conflicts of interest, SWMG's goal is to place client interests first.

Consistent with the foregoing, SWMG maintains policies regarding participation in initial public offerings ("IPOs") and private placements to comply with applicable laws and avoid conflicts with client transactions. If an associated person of SWMG wishes to participate in an IPO or invest in a private placement, he or she must submit a pre-clearance request and obtain the approval of the Chief Compliance Officer.

Finally, if associated persons trade with client accounts (i.e., in a bundled or aggregated trade), and the trade is not filled in its entirety, the associated person's shares will be removed from the block, and the balance of shares will be allocated among client accounts in accordance with SWMG's written policy. No affiliated person may trade in a client's account in such a way as to disadvantage any client.

Item 12 - Brokerage Practices

Best Execution and Benefits of Brokerage Selection

When given discretion to select the brokerage firm that will execute orders in client accounts, SWMG seeks "best execution" for client trades, which is a combination of a number of factors, including, without limitation, quality of execution, services provided and commission rates. Therefore, SWMG may use or recommend the use of brokers who do not charge the lowest available commission in the recognition of research and securities transaction services, or quality of execution. Research services received with transactions include proprietary or third party research (or any combination), and will be used in servicing any or all of SWMG's clients. Therefore, research services received may not be used for the account for which the particular transaction was effected.

SWMG recommends that clients establish brokerage accounts with Raymond James Financial, Inc. ("RJF"), or Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab") (collectively the "Custodians") FINRA registered broker-dealers, member SIPC, as the qualified custodians to maintain custody of clients' assets. SWMG will also effect trades for client accounts at the Custodians, or will in some instances, consistent with SWMG's duty of best execution and specific agreement with each client, elect to execute trades elsewhere. Although SWMG recommends that clients establish accounts at the Custodians, it is ultimately the client's decision to custody assets with the Custodians. SWMG is independently owned and operated and is not affiliated with the Custodians.

The Custodians provide SWMG with access to their institutional trading, custody, reporting and related services, which are typically not available to the Custodians' retail investors. The Custodians also make available various support services. Some of those services help SWMG manage or administer our clients' accounts while others help SWMG manage and grow our business. These services generally are available to independent investment advisors on an unsolicited basis, at no charge to them. These services are not soft dollar arrangements, but are part of the institutional platform offered by the Custodians. The Custodians' brokerage services include the execution of securities transactions, custody, research, and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.

For SWMG client accounts maintained in their custody, the Custodians generally do not charge separately for custody services but are compensated by account holders through commissions and other transaction-related or asset-based fees for securities trades that are executed through the Custodians or that settle into the Custodians' accounts. The Custodians also make available to SWMG other products and services that benefit SWMG but do not directly benefit its clients' accounts. Many of these products and services are used to service all or some substantial number of SWMG accounts, including accounts not maintained at the Custodians.

The Custodians' products and services that assist SWMG in managing and administering clients' accounts include software and other technology that (i) provide access to client account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements); (ii) facilitate trade execution and allocate aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts; (iii) provide pricing and other market data; (iv) facilitate payment of SWMG's fees from its clients' accounts; and (v) assist with back-office functions, recordkeeping and client reporting.

The Custodians also offer other services intended to help SWMG manage and further develop its business enterprise. These services include: (i) technology compliance, legal and business consulting; (ii) publications and conferences on practice management and business succession; and (iii) access to employee benefits providers, human capital consultants and insurance providers. The Custodians make available, arrange and/or pay third-party vendors for the types of services rendered to SWMG. The Custodians discount or waive fees it would otherwise charge for some of these services or pay all or a part of the fees of a third-party providing these services to SWMG. The Custodians also provide other benefits such as educational events or occasional business entertainment of SWMG personnel.

In addition, RJF has agreed to provide financial assistance to SWMG by extending SWMG a 5 year repayable business loan. The loan is intended to assist SWMG with start-up costs, including rent, overhead expenses, computers, monies owed to third parties, and similar costs. The receipt of such loan creates a financial incentive for SWMG to recommend RJF as a custodian for its clients' assets. The terms of the RJF repayable loan are competitive with interest rates offered within the securities industry, including margin loan interest rates. In the event of an unheeded default under the terms of the loan agreement, RJF may terminate and/or accelerate the loan, which may have a material adverse effect on the SWMG's ability to perform services for you.

Some of the products, services and other benefits provided by the Custodians, including the RJF/SWMG business loan noted above, benefit SWMG and not benefit SWMG's client accounts. SWMG's recommendation/requirement that a client place assets in the Custodians' custody may be based in part on benefits the Custodians provide to SWMG, and not solely on the nature, cost or quality of custody and execution services provided by the Custodians. SWMG places trades for its clients' accounts subject to its duty to seek best execution and its other fiduciary duties. In evaluating whether to recommend that clients custody their assets at the Custodians, SWMG takes into account the availability of some of the foregoing products and services and other arrangements as part of the total mix of factors it considers and not solely on the nature, cost or quality of custody and brokerage services provided by the Custodians, which creates a conflict of interest.

Directed Brokerage

The sole exception to our requirement that clients hold their assets at the Custodians is for clients who request that we provide services to accounts that cannot be moved to the broker-dealer we select, such as with assets held within employer retirement plans that either cannot be moved, or if it would not be in the client's best interest for the assets to be rolled out of the plan. In such "directed brokerage" arrangements, SWMG is not in a position to negotiate the commission rates and other fees to be paid to the broker. The arrangement that SWMG has with the Custodians is designed to maximize efficiency and to be cost effective. By directing brokerage arrangements, the client acknowledges that these economies of scale and levels of efficiency are generally compromised when alternative brokers are used. While every effort is made to treat clients fairly over time, the fact that a client is required to use the brokerage and/or custodial services of these alternative service providers can in fact result in a certain degree of delay in executing trades for their account(s) and otherwise adversely affect management of their account(s).

Aggregated Trade Policy

SWMG enters trades as a block where possible and when advantageous to clients whose accounts have a need to buy or sell shares of the same security. This method permits the trading of aggregate blocks of securities composed of assets from multiple client accounts. It allows SWMG to execute trades in a timely, equitable manner, and may reduce overall costs to clients

SWMG will only aggregate transactions when it believes that aggregation is consistent with its duty to seek best execution (which includes the duty to seek best price) for its clients, and is consistent with the terms of SWMG's Investment Advisory Agreement with each client for which trades are being aggregated. No advisory client will be favored over any other client; each client that participates in an aggregated order will participate at the average share price for all SWMG's transactions in a given security on a given business day. Transaction costs for participating accounts will be assessed at the custodian's commission rate applicable to each account; therefore, transaction costs vary among accounts. Accounts will be excluded from a block due to tax considerations, client direction or other factors making the account's participation ineligible or impractical.

SWMG will prepare, before entering an aggregated order, a written statement ("Allocation Statement") specifying the participating client accounts and how it intends to allocate the order among those clients. If the aggregated order is filled in its entirety, it will be allocated among clients in accordance with the Allocation Statement. If the order is partially filled, it will generally be allocated pro-rata, based on the Allocation Statement, or randomly in certain circumstances. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the order will be allocated on a basis different from that specified in the Allocation Statement if all client accounts receive fair and equitable treatment, and the reason for different allocation is explained in writing and is approved by an appropriate individual/officer of SWMG. SWMG's books and records will separately reflect, for each client account included in a block trade, the securities held by and bought and sold for that account. Funds and securities of clients whose orders are aggregated will be deposited with one or more banks or broker-dealers, and neither the clients' cash nor their securities will be held collectively any longer than is necessary to settle the transaction on a delivery versus payment basis; cash or securities held collectively for clients will be delivered out to the custodian bank or broker-dealer as soon as practicable following the settlement, and SWMG will receive no additional compensation or remuneration of any kind as a result of the proposed aggregation.

Item 13 - Review of Accounts

Managed portfolios are reviewed at least quarterly, but will be reviewed more often if requested by the client, upon receipt of information material to the management of the portfolio, or at any time such review is deemed necessary or advisable by SWMG. These factors generally include, but are not limited to, the following: change in general client circumstances (marriage, divorce, retirement); or economic, political or market conditions. James Sims and Scott Bishop, SWMG's Managing Partners, as well as Stephen Brown an advisory representative, review accounts.

For those clients to whom SWMG provides separate financial planning services, reviews are conducted on an as needed or agreed upon basis. Such reviews are conducted by one of SWMG's investment adviser representatives or principals.

Account custodians are responsible for providing monthly or quarterly account statements which reflect the positions (and current pricing) in each account as well as transactions in each account, including fees paid from an account. Account custodians also provide prompt confirmation of all trading activity, and year-end tax statements, such as 1099 forms. In addition, SWMG provides at least an annual report for each managed portfolio. This written report normally includes a summary of portfolio holdings and performance results. Additional reports are available at the request of the client.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

As noted above, SWMG receives an economic benefit from the Custodians in the form of support products and services it makes available to SWMG and other independent investment advisors whose clients maintain accounts at the Custodians. In addition, RJF extended SWMG a repayable loan. These products and services, how they benefit our firm, and the related conflicts of interest are described in Item 12 - Brokerage Practices. The availability of the Custodians' products and services to SWMG is based solely on our participation in the programs and not in the provision of any particular investment advice. Neither the Custodians nor any other party is paid to refer clients to SWMG.

Item 15 - Custody

Raymond James Financial, Inc. ("RJF"), or Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab") are the custodians of nearly all client accounts at SWMG. From time to time however, clients select an alternate broker to hold accounts in custody. In any case, it is the custodian's responsibility to provide clients with confirmations of trading activity, tax forms and at least quarterly account statements. Clients are advised to review this information carefully, and to notify SWMG of any questions or concerns. Clients are also asked to promptly notify SWMG if the custodian fails to provide statements on each account held.

From time to time and in accordance with SWMG's agreement with clients, SWMG will provide additional reports. The account balances reflected on these reports should be compared to the balances shown on the brokerage statements to ensure accuracy. At times there may be small differences due to the timing of dividend reporting, pending trades or other similar issues.

SWMG does not have physical custody of any client funds or securities. However under government regulations, we are deemed to have constructive custody of your assets if you:

1. Authorize us to instruct your custodian to deduct our advisory fees directly from your account. Your custodian maintains the actual custody of your assets. You will receive account statements directly from your custodian at least quarterly. They will be sent to the email or postal mailing address you provided to them. You should carefully review those statements promptly when you receive them. You should compare the performance reports we provide you with the statement you receive from your custodian. Please see Item 5 for more information regarding the deduction of advisory fees from client accounts.
2. Set up certain 1st party wire disbursements and/or 3rd Party Standing Letters of Authorization (SLOAs) to direct us to transfer funds or securities from your account to a specified party.

Item 16 - Investment Discretion

As described above under Item 4 - Advisory Business, SWMG manages portfolios on a discretionary basis. This means that after a financial plan is developed for the client's investment portfolio, SWMG will execute that plan without specific consent from the client for each transaction. For discretionary accounts, a Limited Power of Attorney ("LPOA") is executed by the client, giving SWMG the authority to carry out various activities in the account, generally including the following: trade execution; the ability to request checks on behalf of the client; and, the withdrawal of advisory fees directly from the account. SWMG then directs investment of the client's portfolio using its discretionary authority. The client may limit the terms of the LPOA to the extent consistent with the client's investment advisory agreement with SWMG and the requirements of the client's custodian. The discretionary relationship is further described in the agreement between SWMG and the client.

Item 17 - Voting Client Securities

As a policy and in accordance with SWMG's client agreement, SWMG does not vote proxies related to securities held in client accounts. The custodian of the account will normally provide proxy materials directly to the client. Clients may contact SWMG with questions relating to proxy procedures and proposals; however, SWMG generally does not research particular proxy proposals.

Item 18 - Financial Information

SWMG does not require nor solicit prepayment of more than $1,200 in fees per client, six months or more in advance, and therefore has no disclosure with respect to this item.

Item 19 – Requirements for State Registered Advisers

This section is not applicable to SWMG since it is not state registered. SWMG is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Additional information about Jim is available on the SEC’s website at www.AdviserInfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

James O. Sims (year of birth 1964) is Managing Partner of SWMG. For the first year and a half, he also served as the firm’s Chief Compliance Officer. Prior to co-founding SWMG in 2017, Jim served as a Senior Vice President with Raymond James & Associates, establishing Signature Financial Group as a working group within that firm in 2008. From April 2017 to November 2017, Jim was a Registered Representative of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments (“PKS”), an SEC registered broker/dealer and member of FINRA and SIPC. He was also a Financial Advisor with Merrill Lynch for over a decade. With more than 20 years of financial experience, he continues to leverage his background with a disciplined approach to a wide variety of investments.

Jim earned his Bachelor of Arts degree, cum laude, from Wake Forest University and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Edinburgh in Scotland. He is a Certified Financial Planner™ practitioner*. A native of Kingsport, Tennessee, Jim and his wife, Jan, are active members of the Kennesaw United Methodist Church. They have one daughter, Caroline, and live in Kennesaw, Georgia.

* The CFP® certification is granted by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (CFP Board). To attain the certification, the candidate must complete the required educational, examination, experience and ethics requirements set forth by CFP Board. Certain designations, such as the CPA, CFA and others may satisfy the education component, and allow a candidate to sit for the CFP® Certification Examination. A comprehensive examination tests the candidate's ability to apply financial planning knowledge to client situations. Qualifying work experience is also required for certification. Qualifying experience includes work in the area of the delivery of the personal financial planning process to clients, the direct support or supervision of others in the personal financial planning process, or teaching all, or any portion, of the personal financial planning process. CFP® professionals must complete 30 hours of continuing education accepted by the CFP Board every two years.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

Advisers are required to disclose any material facts regarding certain legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of an adviser; however, Jim has no such disciplinary information to report.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Jim is also a licensed insurance agent with the State of Georgia.

You are not obligated to purchase insurance or securities products through Jim. However, if you implement insurance recommendations through him, he will receive commissions. The insurance business comprises approximately 5% of his time. The amount of income he receives from insurance business will fluctuate depending on the amount of sales. There may be other insurance products and services available through other insurance professionals at a lower cost than those products available through Jim.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Raymond James Financial, Inc. ("RJF") has agreed to provide financial assistance to SWMG by extending SWMG a 5 year repayable business loan. The loan is intended to assist SWMG with start-up costs, including rent, overhead expenses, computers, monies owed to third parties, and similar costs. The receipt of such loan creates a financial incentive for SWMG and its personnel to recommend RJF as a custodian for clients' assets. See Part 2A, Item 14 for additional information.

Item 6 - Supervision

Jim is Managing Partner and co-owner of SWMG. Scott Bishop is a Managing Partner and co-owner of SWMG. Both are Portfolio Managers and serve on the investment committee. Overall investment decisions are made as a team by the investment committee, and portfolio activity based on these decisions will be carried out by these individuals, as assisted by other staff members of the firm.

Brian Walker is Chief Compliance Officer of SWMG. As such, Brian is responsible for providing compliance oversight to the staff. He may be contacted at (678) 932-2500.
