CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP®

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

CFP Board’s Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct reflects the commitment that all CFP® professionals make to high standards of competency and ethics. CFP Board’s Code and Standards benefits and protects the public, provides standards for delivering financial planning, and advances financial planning as a distinct and valuable profession. Compliance with the Code and Standards is a requirement of CFP® certification that is critical to the integrity of the CFP® marks. Violations of the Code and Standards may subject a CFP® professional to discipline.

Item 3. Disciplinary Information

None of the individuals listed above have had any legal or disciplinary events that are reportable under this Item.

Item 4. Other Business Activities

Mr. O'Connor volunteers at 7 Hills Church as a financial counselor to assist members with budgeting, debt reduction and building an emergency fund. Altus does not foresee this creating any conflict of interest due to the limited scope of the financial planning performed.

Mr. O'Connor also serves on the board of STG Foundation. Two other board members for the STG Foundation are also AWM clients.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

This item is not applicable.

Item 6. Supervision

As associates of Altus Wealth Management, LLC a registered investment advisor we have developed our own compliance program that includes, among other items, having robust policies and procedures to prevent violations of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Specifically, William H. Doecker, serves as Chief Compliance Officer (COO) of Altus Wealth Management, LLC. Serving in the capacity of CCO, William is tasked with supervising all advisory activities performed by the Advisor. Steve O'Connor, in his capacity as President, is William Doecker's supervisor.
