Item 2 Education Background and Business Experience

Chad Lafate Clary was born in 1974. Mr. Clary has been an investment adviser representative of Syntal Capital Partners, LLC since May of 2012. From May of 2012 to November of 2012, Mr. Clary was a registered representative of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments. From February of 2011 to May of 2012, Mr. Clary was a Private Wealth Advisor at Bank of America. From December of 1998 to May of 2012, Mr. Clary was a Private Wealth Advisor of Merrill Lynch.

Mr. Clary has held the designation of Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA[®]) since 2004. The CIMA[®] certification signifies that an individual has met initial and on-going experience, ethics, education, and examination requirements for the job of investment management consulting, including advanced investment management theory and application. The designation is administered through the Investments & Wealth Institute[®] (IWI). Prerequisites for the CIMA[®] certification are three years of financial services experience and an acceptable ethical background/compliance history as decided in an admissions peer review process governed by the Ethics Board. To obtain the CIMA certification, candidates must successfully complete a one-week classroom education program provided by a Registered Education Provider at an AACSB accredited university business school and pass a Certification Examination. CIMA designees are required to adhere to IWI's Code of Professional Responsibility and Guidance Document, Disciplinary Rules and Procedures, and Rules and Guidelines for Use of the Marks. CIMA designees must report 40 hours of continuing education credits, including two ethics and one tax/regulations hours, every two years to maintain the certification.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

None.
