

RESOLUTE CAPITAL, LLC
December 2024

Item 1. Introduction.

RESOLUTE CAPITAL, LLC is registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand the differences.

Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers and investing.

Item 2: What investment services and advice can you provide to me?

Resolute Capital provides investment management services to retail investors. We do not provide financial planning services. We tailor your investment management services to match the investment objectives, goals, risk parameters, financial and other information which you provide to us. We monitor the holdings and performance of your account on an ongoing basis. We provide investment management services on a discretionary basis pursuant to authority granted to us in your client agreement. Pursuant to this discretionary authority we are authorized to determine which securities are bought and sold, the total amount to be bought and sold, and the costs at which transactions will be effected. In addition, we generally do not limit the types of investments we utilize for clients and the securities utilized for client accounts consist of registered mutual funds, exchange traded funds, equity securities, variable annuities, corporate bonds and other fixed income instruments. In addition, we may utilize other securities as well to help diversify a client portfolio when determined suitable for a client. We do not impose account minimums for new clients. Regardless, we reserve the right to accept or decline a potential client for any reason in our sole discretion.

For additional information, please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure, especially Item 4 Advisory Business and Item 7 Types of Clients.

Questions to Ask Us:

Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
How will you choose the investments that you recommend to me?
What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 (part 1): What fees will I pay?

For investment management services we charge an asset based fee, which is billed on a monthly basis in arrears. For an asset based fee, the more assets that are in a client's advisory account, the more a client will pay in fees. Therefore, we may have an incentive to encourage clients to increase the assets in his or her account.

In addition to our fees you will be responsible for other fees and expenses, such as, transaction charges and fees/expenses charged by any custodian of your account, mutual fund, exchange traded fund, variable annuity, and any taxes or fees required by federal or state law. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For additional information, see Item 5 Fees and Compensation of our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure.

Question to Ask Us:

Help me to understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

Item 3 (part 2): What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide to you. As an example, we receive various benefits and services from custodians that we may recommend to you. For additional information, please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure, specifically Item 12 Brokerage Practices.

Question to Ask Us:

How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Item 3 (part 3): How do your financial professionals make money?

One of our financial professionals is paid pursuant to his participation in firm profits as the owner of the firm. The compensation of other financial professionals is in part determined by consideration of factors such as the amount of client assets they service, new clients obtained and/or an increases in client assets supervised by the professional. Financial professionals compensated pursuant to their ownership in the firm or otherwise determined by consideration of the factors described above, are subject to a conflict of interest due to the fact increases in firm or client account revenue and increases in clients and managed client assets may lead to increased firm profits or increases in earned compensation. In addition, some of our financial professionals are licensed insurance agents and in that capacity may recommend the purchase of certain insurance products to our clients. The financial professionals earn commissions for the sale of insurance products and, therefore, this presents a conflict of interest because the financial professionals in their role as insurance agents are incentivized to make insurance product recommendations based on the compensation received rather than on a client's needs. For additional information regarding our financial professionals' activities as insurance agents please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure, specifically Item 10 Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations.
