If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

If you open a brokerage account through Light Horse with $10,000 and want to invest in securities, you will pay no commission on your trades. If you choose to use additional services, such as wire transfers or ACATS, those services are charged at the then prevailing rate. If you incur returned ACH fees, those are charged to you.

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

Light Horse does not provide recommendations. We are not subject to a fiduciary duty to you and do not monitor or manage your account, including the monitoring of brokerage account investments, unless we state otherwise in writing. We are paid when you complete a transaction, which means we have an incentive to encourage you to make larger investments and trade more frequently. Additionally, we receive Payment for Order Flow (PFOF) from part or all of your transactions. We address these potential conflicts of interest by ensuring that all accounts are self-directed by our customers. We do not recommend any investments, nor do we recommend any investment strategies.
