What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors including investment management services, investment advisory services, use of independent managers, and financial planning and consulting services. We offer our investment management services exclusively through a wrap fee program. We offer advice on a full suite of securities, including equities, fixed income, mutual funds, ETFs, and similar investments. Our services are generally provided on a discretionary basis, which means that we have the power to buy and sell securities for your account without your prior consent. This authority is usually unlimited and remains in effect until you revoke it. For financial planning services, we do not exercise discretionary authority or require you to use certain advisors. We may provide non-discretionary investment advice, where we make investment recommendations to you and you decide whether to implement the recommendation. We do not give advice on any proprietary investment products.

We provide continuous and regular supervision of advisory client assets as part of our standard service to you. In addition, we will conduct ad hoc reviews if you change your objectives or risk tolerance, upon significant market and economic events, or if we change our investment strategy.

We do not require a minimum account size or fee.

Other Questions You May Have

Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?

How will you choose investments to recommend to me?

What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Our quarterly fees are calculated as a percentage of the assets under our management, so our fees will rise and fall with the value of the assets we manage for you. While our fees may reduce the amount of your assets available for investment, we believe they are justified by our services and attention to your needs. Moreover, we believe our interests are aligned with yours in this type of fee structure. Nonetheless, a conflict of interest may appear in that we are economically incented to recommend that you place more assets in your account in order to increase the value of your portfolio, because as the value increases, so do our fees.

In addition, we provide our investment management services exclusively on a wrap fee basis. For wrap accounts, transaction costs and our advisory fee are included in the total asset-based wrap fee we charge you, which may be higher than in a non-wrap account. Whether to choose a wrap or non-wrap account depends on the size of your portfolio and the frequency of transaction activity. A non-wrap may be cheaper if you have a large portfolio with fewer transactions effected. Wrap fees may be better if you have a smaller portfolio where there is frequent trading activity. Please review Item 4 of our Wrap Brochure for information regarding conflicts of interest.

Some securities carry additional costs, such as mutual funds and ETFs. There are additional fees such as internal fees and expenses charged by mutual funds (i.e., 12b-1 distribution fees and management fees that are assessed within the mutual fund) and exchange-traded funds, third-party separate account manager fees, fees imposed by private placements and pooled investment vehicles, product-level fees and commission for insurance-related products, postage and handling, transfer taxes, SEC fees for sales of securities. Also, with certain investments such as variable annuities, you may have to pay fees such as “surrender charges” to sell or redeem the investment.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

You can find more information about our fees and costs under Item 5 of our Part 2A Brochure and Item 4 of our Wrap Brochure, available at Adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Other Questions You May Have

Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here is an example/are some examples to help you understand what this means:

- We may utilize solicitors to solicit business on our behalf. We pay the solicitor a percentage of our fee, and although this does not represent an increase in your fees, it does present a conflict of interest in that the solicitor may be recommending you establish an advisory relationship with us because of the payment we make to the solicitor and not because the solicitor feels that we're the best firm for your needs.
- Certain Walled Lake professionals are licensed to sell insurance, which creates a conflict of interest regarding compensation.

Additional information regarding conflicts of interest can be found in Items 5, 10, 11, 12, and 14 of our Part 2A Brochure, available at Adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Other Questions You May Have

How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial advisors are paid either a percentage of the fees we collect from you or a salary and bonus. We are incentivized to recommend that you add additional assets to your advisory account. Our financial advisors may receive commission-based compensation for the sale of insurance products. We do not receive non-cash compensation.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No. You can visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals.
