The Securities and Exchange Commission issued an Order Instituting Administrative and Cease-and-Desist Proceedings under four securities statutes against ten respondents on September 23, 2013.<sup>1</sup> The original due date for an Initial Decision was August 28, 2014. I requested and received an extension to January 26, 2015. Donald J. Anthony, Securities Act Release No. 9628, 2014 SEC LEXIS 2854 (Aug. 7, 2014). This motion is for a second extension of thirty days, pursuant to Rule of Practice 360(a)(3). See 17 C.F.R. § 201.360(a)(3).

The present due date is impossible to meet because I have two Initial Decisions in 300-day proceedings that are due and that will be timely issued in late December and early January. In addition, a large Initial Decision assigned to another Administrative Law Judge, with a record similar in size to Anthony—of fifty-three volumes of exhibits and nearly 5,000 pages of transcript, is requiring much of the Office’s attention to meet a January 12, 2015, due date. It will be impossible to meet these other deadlines, keep up with normal case assignments, and meet the January 26, 2015, Anthony deadline. I apologize. By this motion, I request an additional thirty day extension from the January 26, 2015, Initial Decision deadline, to February 25, 2015.

<sup>1</sup> Richard D. Feldmann settled with the Commission. Donald J. Anthony, Exchange Act Rel. No. 71864, 2014 SEC LEXIS 1223 (Apr. 3, 2014). Donald J. Anthony defaulted and I will order sanctions against him as part of the Initial Decision. Donald J. Anthony, Admin. Proc. Rulings Release. No. 1081, 2013 SEC LEXIS 3808 (Dec. 4, 2013).
