In the Matter of

TOTAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT, INC.,
JACOB KEITH COOPER,
NATHAN MCNAMEE, AND
DOUGLAS DAVID SHOEMAKER

MOTION TO COMMISSION FOR EXTENSION

On April 15, 2014, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an Order Instituting Administrative and Cease-and-Desist Proceedings OIP) against Respondents Total Wealth Management, Inc. (Total Wealth), Jacob Keith Cooper (Cooper), Nathan McNamee (McNamee), and Douglas David Shoemaker (Shoemaker) (collectively, Respondents). Based on the service date of the OIP, the original due date for an Initial Decision is February 17, 2015.

On August 7, 2014, I stayed the proceeding based on the representation that the parties had reached an agreement in principle to settle the allegations in the OIP. Total Wealth Mgmt., Inc., Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 1678, 2014 SEC LEXIS 2857. On October 23, 2014, the Division of Enforcement (Division) notified me that it had withdrawn the Offer of Settlement from Commission consideration based on new information it had received. After a telephonic prehearing conference on November 18, 2014, I gave the Division additional time to review documents regarding the source of Respondents' settlement funds, and ordered another prehearing conference. Total Wealth Mgmt., Inc., Admin Proc. Rulings Release No. 2043, 2014 SEC LEXIS 4436 (Nov. 21, 2014). At the January 6, 2015, prehearing conference, the Division indicated that it was still unable to recommend settlement with all the Respondents. I ordered the Division and Respondents to confer and report to me by today whether settlement with all Respondents was possible within the given schedule. Total Wealth Mgmt., Inc., Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 2185, 2015 SEC LEXIS 19 (Jan. 6, 2015).

Today, this Office received notice from the Division that it is still unable to recommend settlement. Because the due date for the Initial Decision is a month away, to allow for further settlement negotiations and for a hearing if settlement proves impossible, I request a six month extension of the Initial Decision deadline to Monday, August 17, 2015.
