ORDER GRANTING RESPONDENTS'
REQUEST TO AMEND FILING

Respondents submit that after timely filing their Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it came to their attention that they had, inadvertently, not followed the format requested in an earlier order. See Edgar R. Page, Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 2629, 2015 SEC LEXIS 1712 (May 5, 2015). They request leave to amend their Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law for the sole purpose of quoting the specific sections of the record that are cited in their Proposed Findings of Fact.

Consistent with 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.111, .161, Respondents' request is GRANTED and by May 21, 2015, Respondents may file Amended Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law that quote the specific sections of the record cited.

Respondents are FURTHER DIRECTED not to file another motion or request without first conferring with the Division of Enforcement. Respondents must address the results of their attempt to confer with the Division of Enforcement in any future motions or requests.
