ORDER FOLLOWING
PREHEARING CONFERENCE

On December 22, 2015, the Securities and Exchange Commission instituted this proceeding pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, alleging that Respondents have securities registered with the Commission and are delinquent in their periodic filings.

On January 13, 2016, I issued an order to show cause by January 25, 2016, why this proceeding should not be determined against Respondents due to their failures to file answers or otherwise defend the proceeding. Bravo Res. Partners, Ltd., Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 3501, 2016 SEC LEXIS 125. A prehearing conference was held on January 15, 2016, attended by David S. Frye, counsel for the Division of Enforcement, and Herbert Ono, counsel for Starcore International Ventures Ltd. (a/k/a Starcore International Mines Ltd.). During the conference, the Division and Starcore stated that a settlement offer by the Division is currently under consideration by Starcore's board of directors. In light of Starcore's participation in the prehearing conference, the order to show cause is discharged as to it.

With the agreement of the Division and Starcore, I set the following schedule to apply if the Division's settlement offer is not approved by Starcore:

January 22, 2016:	Herbert Ono shall file a notice of appearance on behalf of Starcore.
February 5, 2016:	Starcore's answer is due.
February 12, 2016:	Motions for summary disposition are due.
February 26, 2016:	Oppositions to motions for summary disposition are due.
March 7, 2016:	Replies to oppositions are due.

If the remaining Respondents do not respond to the show cause order by January 25, 2016, they will be deemed in default and the proceeding will be determined against them for their failures to file answers, participate in the prehearing conference, or otherwise defend this proceeding. See OIP at 3; 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), .220(f), .221(f).
