In the Matter of

CHARLES L. HILL, JR.

ORDER GRANTING RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO
FILE CORRECTED POST-
HEARING BRIEF

Today, Respondent submitted a consent motion for leave to file a corrected post-hearing brief and his corrected post-hearing brief. The motion states that due to “logistical and computer difficulties,” Respondent’s original post-hearing brief did not contain a table of contents, table of authorities, and a certificate of word count. Mot. at 1. Respondent additionally proposes “fewer than 10 proofreading changes” and notes that he has not made any substantive changes to his brief. Id. Respondent represents that the Division of Enforcement consents to the relief sought by this motion.

I GRANT Respondent’s motion and accept the filing of Respondent’s corrected post-hearing brief.
