ORDER POSTPONING HEARING AND SCHEDULING PREHEARING CONFERENCE

On March 3, 2017, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting proceedings (OIP) pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, alleging that Respondents have securities registered with the Commission and are delinquent in their periodic filings.

On March 13, 2017, the Division of Enforcement submitted a declaration of service establishing that Respondents were served with the OIP in accordance with Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii), 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(ii), via U.S. Postal Service Priority Mail Express by March 8, 2017.¹ As such, Respondents' answers are due by March 21, 2017. OIP at 3; 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.160(b), .220(b).

I POSTPONE the hearing currently scheduled for March 28, 2017, and will instead hold a telephonic prehearing conference on that date at 2:00 p.m. Eastern. If Respondents fail to timely file answers, appear at the prehearing conference, or otherwise defend the proceeding, they will be deemed in default, the proceeding will be determined against them, and the registrations of their securities will be revoked. OIP at 3; 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), .220(f), .221(f).

¹ The declaration of service states that Respondent CirTran Corp. was served by mail sent to "4125 South 600 West, West Valley City, UT 84128." Although the correct address for CirTran, based on its most recent EDGAR filing, is "4125 South 6000 West, West Valley City, UT 84128," records from the Office of the Secretary indicate that the OIP was indeed sent to this latter address. Moreover, USPS tracking information provided by the Division indicates the package was delivered. Thus, it appears that the incorrect address in the service declaration was merely a typographical error and that service on CirTran was accomplished.

I take official notice that on March 9, 2017, Respondent Blink Technologies, Inc., filed a Form 15 with the Commission seeking to terminate its registration under Section 12(g) of the Securities Act. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.323 (allowing official notice to be taken of the public official records of the Commission). The effect Blink Technologies's Form 15 has on this proceeding, if any, will be discussed at the prehearing conference.
