ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS RULINGS
Release No. 4870/June 14, 2017

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-17950

In the Matter of

DAVID PRUITT, CPA

ORDER GRANTING IN PART
EXTENSION OF TIME FOR MOTIONS
FOR A RULING ON THE PLEADINGS

Under the Commission's Rules of Practice, motions for a ruling on the pleadings are due within fourteen days after a respondent files an answer. 17 C.F.R. § 201.250(a). Respondent David Pruitt, CPA, seeks an extension of that time, based on his pending motion for a more definite statement of certain allegations in the order instituting proceedings (OIP), which will not be fully briefed until June 16, 2017. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.154(b) (establishing standard briefing timelines for motions). Respondent notes that the Division of Enforcement consents to his request. For good cause shown, I GRANT Respondent's motion in part. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.161(a), (b). If Respondent's motion for a more definite statement is granted, Respondent's Rule 250(a) motion shall be due fourteen days after the Division serves an amended OIP or otherwise provides the information sought by Respondent. If Respondent's motion for a more definite statement is denied, Respondent's Rule 250(a) motion shall be due fourteen days after the denial order is issued.
