Notice to the Parties and Order
Vacating Summary Disposition
Schedule

On November 30, 2017, the Securities and Exchange Commission ratified the appointment of its administrative law judges and directed each administrative law judge to reconsider the record, including all substantive and procedural actions, in pending proceedings for which no initial decision has been issued. Pending Admin. Proc., Securities Act of 1933 Release No. 10440, 2017 SEC LEXIS 3724.¹ The Commission also remanded every pending case before it on appeal. Id. at *3.

I issued an initial decision of default as to Respondents Next Galaxy Corp. and Novamex Energy, Inc., which has been remanded by the Commission. No initial decision has been issued as to Respondents Occidental Development Group, Inc., and Sable Natural Resources Corporation. Sable is participating in the proceeding, and currently has until December 7, 2017, to respond to the Division's motion for summary disposition. Next Galaxy Corp., Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 5238, 2017 SEC LEXIS 3654, at *2 (ALJ Nov. 20, 2017). Occidental has not filed an answer but has submitted a signed settlement offer. Next Galaxy Corp., Initial Decision Release No. 1228, 2017 SEC LEXIS 3645, at *1 n.1 (ALJ Nov. 20, 2017).

Given the foregoing, I VACATE the procedural schedule for summary disposition. Consistent with the Commission’s order, all parties—including the ones subject to the remand—are granted “until January 5, 2018 to submit any new evidence the parties deem relevant to [my] reexamination of the record.” Pending Admin. Proc., 2017 SEC LEXIS 3724, at *3. Any party that submits new evidence must contemporaneously file a brief explaining the relevance, materiality, and reliability of the evidence submitted. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.320(a). The brief should also address whether I should “ratify or revise in any respect” any action I have taken in this proceeding. Pending Admin. Proc., 2017 SEC LEXIS 3724, at *3; see Wilkes-Barre Hosp. Co. v. NLRB, 857 F.3d 364, 371–72 (D.C. Cir. 2017). If a party declines to submit evidence, it may nonetheless submit a brief no later than January 5, 2018, addressing whether I should “ratify or revise in any respect” any action I have taken in this proceeding. A party’s brief may not exceed 4,000 words in length. A party may file a brief in opposition, not to exceed 2,500 words, by January 16, 2018.

I will set a new procedural schedule after the deadline to submit new evidence passes.
