Order Regarding the Securities and Exchange
Commission's Order on Pending
Administrative Proceedings

On May 12, 2017, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued six orders instituting proceedings (OIPs) pursuant to Section 8(d) of the Securities Act of 1933. On July 26, 2017, I issued an initial decision on default suspending the effectiveness of the registration statements filed by Canso Enterprises Ltd., Privoz, Universal Movers Corp., Lorilay Corp., Formous Corp., and Lion Print Corp. Canso Enters. Ltd., Initial Decision Release No. 1155, 2017 SEC LEXIS 2215. The Commission issued a finality order on October 19, 2017. Canso Enters. Ltd., Securities Act Release No. 10427, 2017 SEC LEXIS 3345.

On November 30, 2017, the Commission remanded this and all other administrative proceedings pending review or, as in this case, in which a finality order was issued but the time to seek review in federal court had not expired. The Commission directed the assigned administrative law judge to: (1) reconsider the record in the proceeding, including all substantive and procedural rulings; (2) allow the parties to file any new evidence that the parties deem relevant to the reexamination of the record by January 5, 2018; (3) determine whether to revise or ratify prior rulings; and (4) issue by February 16, 2018, an order on ratification. Pending Admin. Proc., Securities Act of 1933 Release No. 10440, 2017 SEC LEXIS 3724, <https://www.sec.gov/litigation/opinions/2017/33-10440.pdf>.

Accordingly, I ORDER the parties to file by January 5, 2018, any new evidence that they consider relevant to my reexamination of the record in this proceeding. Each party may also submit a brief explaining the relevance of its new evidence and identifying any challenged rulings, findings, or conclusions. If either party chooses to submit a brief by January 5, the other party will have until January 16, 2018, to file a responsive brief.

In addition to the required filing with the Commission Secretary, I ask the parties to email a courtesy copy of their submissions to alj@sec.gov in PDF text-searchable format. Exhibits should be submitted as separate attachments, not as a combined PDF.
