In the Matter of
Bryan Lee Addington

Order Finding Service and Scheduling Prehearing
Conference

Last week, the Division of Enforcement submitted a proposal for the conduct of further proceedings. The Division stated that it served the order instituting proceedings (OIP) on Respondent, who is in prison, and sent him a copy of the order directing the parties to confer, but that Respondent declined to speak with the Division.

I find that Respondent was served with the OIP by certified mail at his prison address on June 22, 2018. 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(i). Further, Respondent is aware of the proceeding, as his case manager notified him of the Division's request to confer. See Div. Notice Ex. 4.

Because this proceeding was stayed at the time Respondent was served, I find good cause to extend the deadline so that he has twenty days from today to answer the OIP. OIP at 3; 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.161(a), .220(b). I therefore ORDER Respondent to file an answer to the OIP by October 30, 2018. A telephonic prehearing conference will be held on the same day at 2:00 p.m. EDT. The parties should be prepared to discuss a procedural schedule for resolving this matter.
