In the Matter of

Gary C. Snisky

Order Granting in Part Respondent's
Motion for Discovery and Revising Briefing Schedule

The Division of Enforcement produced its investigative file to Respondent Gary C. Snisky in 2016 in electronic format pursuant to Rule of Practice 230. Snisky asserts that prison staff can no longer locate the electronic copies. Snisky has moved for an order requiring the Division to produce its file again, but in paper this time. According to the Division, the file previously produced runs to 118,000 pages and would cost approximately $10,000 to print.

In light of this, Snisky's motion is GRANTED IN PART. The Division is ordered to produce its investigative file to Snisky on both a thumb drive and on CD or DVD by February 20, 2019. I also direct the Division to provide Snisky with a hard copy of the Commission's Rules of Practice, as he asserts that he has no internet access. Snisky states that he will keep the file "confidential and shall in no way disclose or discuss their contents to any person, except to counsel." If the Division intends to move for a protective order, it shall do so by February 20, 2019, as well.

I further ORDER that Snisky's response to the Division's motion for summary disposition is due by March 20, 2019. The Division's reply is due April 1, 2019. No further extensions will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances.
