Order Granting Extension

Following the hearing, I ordered that post-hearing briefs would be due on July 3, 2019, and rebuttal briefs would be due on July 31, 2019. Respondent Edward M. Daspin sent a roughly three-page email on June 28, 2019. On July 27, 2019, he submitted a longer document with the June 28 email appended to it. It is not clear whether Daspin intended the June 28 email or the July 27 submission to be his initial brief. Assuming the latter, the Division of Enforcement has moved to extend the time to file its rebuttal brief by one week, until August 7, 2019.

Given the ambiguity created by Daspin’s multiple submissions, I GRANT the Division’s motion. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.161(a). All rebuttal briefs are due by August 7, 2019. Each party’s brief should consist of a single document filed on or before the deadline; serial submissions will not be considered.
