Administrative Proceeding
File No. 3-19145

In the Matter of

Matthew R. Rossi and SJL Capital, LLC

Order Regarding Confidential Information

At the start of this proceeding, I issued a protective order establishing procedures for limiting the use of confidential information.¹ If the parties wished to file materials containing confidential information, including at the hearing, the order provided that the documents should be redacted, if possible, or filed under seal.² But multiple exhibits containing confidential information were not redacted or sealed, including most of Matthew R. Rossi's Form D-A, which had been originally filed entirely under seal. Although Rossi may disclose his own confidential information, it appears that at least some of these disclosures were inadvertent.

To provide an opportunity to correct this oversight, I ORDER the parties, by November 25, 2019, to identify exhibits that should be sealed or redacted and submit redacted copies of any exhibits, as appropriate. In addition, the parties may designate portions of the hearing transcript, if any, that they believe should be sealed due to the discussion of confidential information.
