ORDER AMENDING THE FINAL JUDGMENT AGAINST SCOTT S. BELL

This cause coming on to be heard on the Agreed Motion for an order amending the Court's previously issued Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief Against Scott S. Bell (Injunctive Order), and it appearing to the Court that there is just cause for the issuance of such an order, it is hereby:

ORDERED that the Injunctive Order, which was entered by this Court on February 11, 1998, shall be amended so that of the $143,900 in disgorgement which Defendant Scott S. Bell (Bell) was ordered to pay, $36,036 shall now be paid directly by Scott S. Bell via check into Defendant Theta Group, LLC's account at First Options of Chicago, Inc, within twenty days of the issuance of this order. The $36,036 shall be in lieu of monies which were ordered in the Injunctive Order to be transferred into the First Options account from: (1) the sale of Bell's BMW; (2) the Charles Schwab account; (3) the legal retainer held by the firm of Richard Spears Kibbe & Orb; (4) the Fidelity IRA account; and (5) $10,136 of the $12,000 surrender value in Bell's life insurance policy.

HONORABLE JUDGE ROBERT W. GETTLEMAN
