Form CA-1 – Exhibit G

Attach as Exhibit G copies of all contracts with any national securities exchange, national securities association or clearing agency or securities market for which the registrant acts as a clearing agency or performs clearing agency functions.

Cboe Clear U.S., LLC (“CCUS”) provides clearing and settlement services pursuant to agreements with designated contract market (“DCM”) and national securities exchange (“NSE”) counterparties (“Participating Exchanges”).

Current CCUS Participating Exchanges:

- Exhibit G-1 – Cboe Futures Exchange, LLC (DCM)
- Exhibit G -2 – Cboe Exchange, Inc. (NSE) (Pending)

CCUS uses the following criteria to evaluate current and potential Participating Exchanges as set forth in Exhibit E-1.102 - CCUS Participating Exchange Review Policy:

(i) Legal and Regulatory – CCUS reviews each Participating Exchange’s required registrations and licenses, prior disciplinary actions, OFAC attestation and considers any required amendments to CCUS rules and procedures;

(ii) Ownership and Management – CCUS reviews each Participating Exchange’s ownership and management structures;

(iii) Creditworthiness – CCUS reviews each Participating Exchange’s financial statements and credit ratings;

(iv) Operational Risk and Business Continuity – CCUS reviews documentation related to the Participating Exchange’s operational controls–particularly as they relate to business continuity planning, systems architecture, history of system outages and remedial actions, and performance and capacity statistics); and

(v) Cybersecurity – CCUS reviews each Participating Exchange’s cybersecurity controls.

After CCUS Risk management staff review a potential Participating Exchange for onboarding, staff will present its review to the Risk Management Committee. If the Risk Management Committee determines to approve the Participating Exchange applicant, it will recommend that the Board of Directors also approve the applicant as a Participating Exchange.
