

Form ADV, Part 3: Client Relationship Summary (CRS)

March 28, 2024

Fisher Investments (FI) is an investment adviser registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. Our investment advisory services and fees can differ from those of a broker-dealer, and it is important for you to understand those differences. You can conduct research on firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/CRS, which provides free and simple tools and educational materials for you. Some of the services and descriptions below may not apply to all clients.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory and financial planning services to investors, namely discretionary portfolio management tailored to your investment goals.

As a client, we will work with you to understand your personal financial situation and help you determine your investment goals. Next, we will provide a portfolio recommendation designed to help you achieve those goals and managed according to our capital markets outlook. We're a discretionary investment adviser, so we'll have the authority to make investment decisions in your portfolio on your behalf and on an ongoing basis as long as you are a client. We'll monitor your portfolio regularly and make adjustments as our capital markets views change. Should we forecast market conditions that warrant it, we may also engage in defensive strategies in an effort to minimize downside risk. We will also contact you regularly to discuss your portfolio and our capital markets views. You'll also receive regular communications to help keep you informed and access to our exclusive client programs. Your portfolio will typically be invested in stocks, bonds and/or cash. However, we may also utilize exchange-traded funds, exchange-traded notes, mutual funds, options, or other security types depending on our capital markets views or circumstances related to you or your account.

Conversation Starters:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

You can find more information about our business and services from our Firm Brochures (Form ADV, Part 2A), which are available at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/107342>.

What fees will I pay?

You'll pay a fee based on the value of the assets we manage for you, which is calculated and charged quarterly. The annual fee for accounts with $500,000 or more is based on the following tiered fee structure:

- 1.25% on the first $1 million in your account;
- 1.125% on the amount in your account over $1 million and less than or equal to $5 million; and,
- 1.00% on any additional amount in your account over $5 million.

Conversation Starters:

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $500,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

If you establish a relationship with us to manage multiple accounts, accounts with less than $500,000 will be billed at an annual rate of 1.50%. Please refer to our Letter of Agreement for additional information.

Given that our advisory fee is based on total assets we manage for you, we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the amount of assets under our management. You will also generally pay trading commissions or fees to third-party brokerage firms we utilize to custody and make trades for your account. Should we invest in exchange-traded funds or notes, you will pay fees—generally in the form of an expense ratio—to those issuers. Other services we may offer through third parties—such as certain estate or tax planning services—may result in separate charges by those third parties. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

You can find more information about our business and services from our Firm Brochures (Form ADV, Part 2A), which are available at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/107342>.

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

Conversation Starter:

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Conflict of Interest	Description of Conflict of Interest
Employee personal account trading	When employees invest for their own accounts, conflicts of interest can arise between the trades we place for clients and the trades employees place in their own accounts. We have adopted a personal account trading policy reasonably designed to address this conflict.
Employee personal accounts managed by FI	When we manage an employee's personal account, conflicts of interest can arise between the trades we place for client and employee accounts. We have procedures in place so that at no time will proprietary account transactions be placed in any manner such that an employee could benefit at the expense of a client.

You can find more information about our conflicts of interest from our Firm Brochures (Form ADV, Part 2A), which are available at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/107342>.

How do your financial professionals make money?

The financial professionals responsible for the investment decisions regarding your account (the Investment Policy Committee) receive a combination of base salary and discretionary bonus compensation. Compensation (base salary and discretionary bonus) is based on the individual's contribution to the firm and firm accomplishments. The financial professionals responsible for servicing your relationship primarily receive a combination of base salary and discretionary bonus. Certain service professionals receive additional compensation tied to the total value of assets you entrust to our management. The financial professionals responsible for introducing our services to you are compensated based on the total value of assets you entrust to our management.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

The individuals responsible for making investment decisions for your account do not have any legal or disciplinary disclosures. Certain other financial professionals who are registered as investment adviser representatives with our firm have minor disclosures.

Visit www.investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our financial professionals and us.

Conversation Starters:

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
- Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer?
- Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?

Please visit our website at www.fisherinvestments.com for more information about our services or call us at (800) 851-8845 to request up-to-date information or a copy of the relationship summary.

Form ADV, Part 3: Client Relationship Summary (CRS)

25 March 2024

Fisher Investments (FI) is an investment adviser registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. Our investment advisory services and fees can differ from those of a broker-dealer, and it is important for you to understand those differences. You can conduct research on firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/CRS, which provides free and simple tools and educational materials for you.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory and financial planning services to investors, namely discretionary portfolio management tailored to your investment goals.

As a client, we will work with you to understand your personal financial situation and help you determine your investment goals. Next, we will provide a portfolio recommendation designed to help you achieve those goals and managed according to our capital markets outlook. We're a discretionary investment adviser, so we'll have the authority to make investment decisions in your portfolio on your behalf and on an ongoing basis as long as you are a client.

We'll monitor your portfolio regularly and make adjustments as our capital markets views change. Should we forecast market conditions that warrant it, we may also engage in defensive strategies in an effort to minimise downside risk. We will also contact you regularly to discuss your portfolio and our capital markets views. You'll also receive regular communications to help keep you informed and access to our exclusive client programmes. Your portfolio will typically be invested in equities, fixed interest and/or cash. However, we may also utilise exchange-traded funds, exchange-traded notes, mutual funds, options, or other security types depending on our capital markets views or circumstances related to you or your account. For tax-efficiency purposes, we typically manage UK client assets within an open-ended investment company for which Fisher Investments serves as investment manager (FI OEIC)—though we can and do manage UK client assets within separately managed accounts as well.

You can find more information about our business and services from our Firm Brochures (Form ADV, Part 2A), which are available at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/107342>.

What fees will I pay?

You will pay a fee between 0.25%-2.25% for initial funding and subsequent additions up to £3,000,000 and an ongoing annual fee based on the value of the assets we manage for you, which is calculated and charged quarterly for separate accounts. FI will waive its separate account advisory fee to the extent you invest in shares of the OEIC that pay the advisory fee directly to FI. You will pay for all the operating and other expenses associated with an investment in the OEIC.

The initial fee as described in the FI OEIC Prospectus does not apply to you.

For accounts up to £2,999,999, the Initial Fee for each account will be reduced by a pro rata portion of the Fisher Investments UK initial adviser charge of £825.

The ongoing annual fee for separately managed and Fisher OEIC accounts are based on the following tiered fee schedules:

UK Separately Managed Accounts	Annual Management Fee
First £500,000	1.50%
Next £500,000	1.25%
Next £9 million	1.125%
Next £10 million	0.90%

Assets Invested in Fisher OEIC	Annual Management Fee Paid Directly to FI
Up to £1,999,999	1.50% (B Shares)
£2,000,000 and above	1.25% (A Shares)

Conversation Starters:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Conversation Starter:

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you £500,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

Given that our advisory fee is based on total assets we manage for you, we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the amount of assets under our management. You will also generally pay trading commissions or fees to third-party brokerage firms we utilise to custody and make trades for your account. Should we invest in exchange-traded funds or notes, you will pay fees—generally in the form of an expense ratio—to those issuers. Other services we may offer directly to you or through other parties may charge you separate fees, which vary. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Additional information regarding the fees you will pay are detailed in Appendix A of the Fisher Investments UK Terms of Business.

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

Conversation Starter:

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Conflict of Interest	Description of Conflict of Interest
Employee personal account dealing	When employees invest for their own accounts, conflicts of interest can arise between the trades we place for clients and the trades employees place in their own accounts. We have adopted a personal account dealing policy reasonably designed to address this conflict.
Employee personal accounts managed by FI	When we manage an employee's personal account, conflicts of interest can arise between the trades we place for client and employee accounts. We have procedures in place so that at no time will proprietary account transactions be placed in any manner such that an employee could benefit at the expense of a client.

You can find more information about our conflicts of interest from our Firm Brochures (Form ADV, Part 2A), which are available at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/107342>.

How do your financial professionals make money?

The financial professionals responsible for the investment decisions regarding your account (the Investment Policy Committee) and those servicing your account receive a combination of base salary and discretionary bonus compensation. Compensation (base salary and discretionary bonus) is based on the individual's contribution to the firm and firm accomplishments. Certain service professionals receive additional compensation tied to the total value of assets you entrust to our management. The Fisher Investments UK financial professionals responsible for introducing our services to you receive a base salary and compensation based on the total value of assets you entrust to our management.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

The individuals responsible for making investment decisions for your account do not have any legal or disciplinary disclosures. Certain other financial professionals who are registered as investment adviser representatives with our firm have minor disclosures.

Visit www.investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our financial professionals and us.

Conversation Starters:

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
- Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer?
- Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?

Please visit our website at www.fisherinvestments.com for more information about our services or call us at 00-1-800-851-8845 to request up-to-date information or a copy of the relationship summary.