We review your accounts on a quarterly basis as part of our standard service. We offer advisory services to you on a discretionary basis which means we buy and sell investments in our clients' accounts without asking in advance. We also offer advisory services to you on a non-discretionary basis which means we provide advice to you and you decide which investments to buy and sell. We require a minimum account size of $1,000,000. For additional information, please see Form ADV, Part 2A brochure Items 4 and 7. Ask your financial professional— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? What do these qualifications mean?</li> </ul>
What fees will I pay?	Our investment advisory fees are based on the percentage of assets under management which are billed quarterly in advance. Your asset-based fee is based on the balance in your account on the last day of the previous quarter. Our fees are negotiable at our discretion. Your fee is agreed upon when we commence a relationship with you. Financial planning type services provided as a separate service are charged on an hourly or fixed fee basis at our discretion. You are responsible for the payment of all third-party fees which include custodian fees, brokerage fees, mutual fund fees and transaction fees. Those fees are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by the Firm. The more assets there are in your account, the more you will pay in fees, and we may therefore have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?	When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours.
