FORM CRS (Client Relationship Summary)

DBS Investment Advisers, LLC is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser and, as such, we provide advisory services rather than brokerage services. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you, our client, to understand the differences. Additionally, free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing. This Client Relationship Summary describes the services and fees we offer to "retail" investors, which are natural persons who seek or receive services primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We primarily offer the following investment advisory services to retail investors: Portfolio Management Services; Financial Planning/Consulting Services; and, Pension Consulting Services.

Account Monitoring: If you open an investment account with our firm, as part of our standard service we will monitor your investments on an ongoing basis and will review your account at least annually.

Investment Authority: We primarily manage investment accounts on a discretionary basis whereby we will decide which investments to buy or sell for your account. We may also have discretion to select, retain or replace third-party managers to manage your accounts. You may limit our discretionary authority (for example, limiting the types of securities that can be purchased or sold for your account) by providing our firm with your restrictions and guidelines in writing.

In limited circumstances, we may also offer non-discretionary management services whereby we will provide advice, but you will ultimately decide which investments to buy and sell for your account. You have an unrestricted right to decline to implement any advice provided by our firm on a non-discretionary basis.

Investment Offerings: We primarily use mutual funds to implement client portfolios. However, we provide advice on various types of investments and do not limit our advice to a specific type of investment or product.

Account Minimums and Requirements: In general, we require a minimum of $250,000 to open and maintain an advisory account. At our discretion, we may waive this minimum account size.

For a description of each service, please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A (Items 4, 5, 7, 13 & 16) by clicking the following link: ADV Part 2 (the full URL for the aforementioned abbreviated hyperlink, which is used throughout this Client Relationship Summary, is: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/123283>)

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or Why Not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications?
- What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

The following summarizes the principal fees and costs that you might pay when engaging our firm for investment advisory services:

- Asset-Based Fees - Fees are typically payable quarterly in advance, but we may negotiate other fee-paying arrangements. Since the fees we receive are based on the value of your account, we have an incentive to increase your account value which creates a conflict;
- Hourly Fees - Generally, fees are payable in arrears; and,
- Other Advisory Fees - In addition to our fees, you may also pay fees charged by the selected third-party managers depending on your investment objectives and portfolio strategy.

Examples of additional fees and costs that could possibly apply to our clients, but do not benefit our firm, may include:

- Custodian fees;
- Account maintenance fees;
- Fees related to mutual funds and exchange-traded funds;
- Transaction charges when purchasing or selling securities; and,
- Other product-level fees associated with your investments.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

- Our revenue is derived from asset-based fees, which could give us the incentive to take aggressive positions in efforts to grow your account. However, we are a fiduciary and will always act in your best interest.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

The financial professionals servicing your account(s) are compensated by salary and may receive a bonus. Financial professionals' compensation is based on the amount of client assets they service and/or the revenue the firm earns from the financial professionals' services.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No, our firm and our financial professionals currently do not have any legal or disciplinary history to disclose. Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple research tool.
