Form ADV Part 3 – Client Relationship Summary
Date: As of, December 31, 2023

ITEM 1: INTRODUCTION

Promus Advisors is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission offering advisory and management accounts services. Please know that brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and that it is important for you to understand the differences. This document gives you a summary of the types of services we offer and their corresponding fees. Please visit www.investor.gov/CRS for free, simple tools to research firms and financial professionals and for educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Promus Advisors provides investment management services to its clients. Joshua J. Prince is President and Manager who conducts reviews client portfolios. Promus works with its clients to accomplish their goals through integrity, independence and objectivity. As of December 31, 2023, the firm has assets under management of $454,360,523 for 255 accounts.

ITEM 2: RELATIONSHIPS AND SERVICES

What investment services and advice can you provide me? Promus carefully selects third party managers for active portfolio allocation. As part of our standard services, we typically monitor client accounts daily. For example, if Promus desires domestic large cap equity exposure, then Promus selects a manager who has excelled in this area. In other cases, when a client's portfolio may be better suited for less active management, Promus will typically utilize an index exchange traded fund ("ETF") which is a security that tracks an index, a commodity or a basket of assets as opposed to active stock selection. This active, consultative approach allows the firm to research, recommend, select, monitor (and terminate if necessary) managers and strategies based on their fundamental merits and on-going results.

Promus Advisors will offer discretionary and non-discretionary investment advisory services to individuals, businesses, trusts, estates, retirement plans, endowments and foundations. and financial planning, investment consulting with respect to asset allocation, portfolio diversification, portfolio risk, and other general economic and financial topics. As part of our standard services, we typically monitor client accounts daily.

Investment advisory services are guided by the objectives and restrictions outlined in each client's investment management agreement (IMA) and or investment policy statement (IPS). Clients have the ability to restrict investment in certain securities or types of securities in their account, as well as to provide guidance and direction with respect to the securities maintained, purchased and sold in their account.

Promus may recommend pooled investment vehicles, such as hedge funds, private equity funds, limited partnerships, or one or more third-party investment managers. Third-party investment managers recommended to clients will have full investment discretion and trading authority over that portion of a client's account and shall have sole responsibility for the implementation of the third-party strategy's investment objectives. With respect to the assets held in portfolios managed by third-party investment managers, Promus will not place orders for transactions in that portion of the client's account or otherwise exercise trading authority over the third-party account. However, Promus periodically monitors the third-party investment managers and reserves the authority to hire or terminate such managers.

Promus provides an array of general personal financial planning services in addition to investment management. Such services include, but are not limited to, retirement planning, financial planning, personal tax and cash flow planning, estate planning, insurance planning, marriage and divorce planning, college planning, compensation and benefits planning, and the preparation of financial analyses and personal financial statements reflecting net worth, cash flow, and income tax projections. Financial planning services may be provided as a stand-alone service or as part of the Firm's investment advisory services.

Questions to ask us: Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

ITEM 3: FEES, COSTS, CONFLICTS, AND STANDARD OF CONDUCT

What fees will I pay? Promus Advisors charges an asset-based fee using a tiered fee schedule. Regardless of the size of a client's assets under management with Promus, the minimum annual investment management fee is $5,000.00 per annum. Promus may elect to receive a fixed fee or a percentage of assets under management for its investment management fee, on any product, or other services performed by Promus. In certain unique instances, an alternative fee may be negotiated with a client depending on the services to be provided. Investment management fees are charged quarterly in advance. Please see Items 5 & 6 of our Part 2 Brochure for details on our portfolio management fees.

Investment management fees are calculated using a multi-tiered fee schedule with breakpoints that are applied on a blended basis. This blended fee schedule is used to calculate your fee by weighing your aggregate account value for breakpoints. Please see Items 5 & 6 of our Part 2 Brochure for details on our portfolio management fees.

Householding: Client may elect to aggregate the amounts in the accounts held directly by Client or for the benefit of a spouse, parent, child, or any extended family member for fee calculation purposes. These accounts are deemed to be in the same "Household" and the aggregation process is referred to as "householding" related aggregated accounts. Householding related accounts may collectively qualify the accounts for a fee breakpoint and elimination of minimum fee. The fee breakpoints are set forth in the fee schedules above based on the account value. Householding related accounts does not authorize others in Client's household to conduct transactions in Client's account.

Third Party Costs: In addition to the fees charged by Promus Advisors, clients may be responsible for additional expenses, such as brokerage fees, commissions, mark-ups and mark-downs, custody fees, tax preparation fees and fees and expenses charged by unaffiliated custodians, as well as investment management fees charged by third-party mutual funds, pooled investment vehicles, and third-party managers. Account assets invested in these types of investment vehicles will be included in calculating the value of the account for purposes of computing the fee Promus Advisors charges for the investment advisory services it provides, and the same assets will also be subject to additional fees and expenses, as set forth in the offering documents of those investment vehicles, including, for example, third party manager fees, if applicable. Item 5 of our Part 2 Brochure provides more details.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Questions to ask us: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you \$10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser?

When we act as your investment adviser, we must act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

The amount of assets in your account affects our advisory fee; the more assets you have in your advisory account, the more you will pay us and thus we have an incentive to increase those assets to increase our fee. Similarly, a recommendation by us to rollover a 401(k) plan to an IRA under management with us constitutes a conflict of interest. Promus Advisors' Part 2 Brochure includes helpful information to understand various conflicts.

Question to ask us: How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are compensated based on a salary/bonus structure and, in some years, based on the profitability of the firm (see the conflicts listed in the paragraph immediately above). We do not receive economic benefits from any other person or entity in connection with providing investment advice to clients. Please also see Item 10 of our Part 2 Brochure for additional details.

ITEM 4: DISCIPLINARY HISTORY

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history? No. We do not have legal and/or disciplinary events. Visit <https://www.ivestor.gov/> for a free, simple search tool to research us and our financial professionals.

Questions to ask us: As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?

ITEM 5: ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

For additional information on our advisory services, see our Part 2 Brochure available at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/157484> and any individual brochure supplement your representative provides. If you have any questions, need additional up-to-date, or want another copy of this Client Relationship Summary, then please contact us at 214.612.5750.

Questions to ask us: Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer? Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?
