- c. to engage in any transaction, practice or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any purchaser.

3. IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Defendant and his officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and those persons in active concert or participation with him who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise, be and hereby are permanently restrained and enjoined, from violating Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. §78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 [17 C.F.R. §240.10b-5], promulgated thereunder, directly or indirectly, in connection with the purchase or sale of securities, in the form of common stock or any other security, from making use of any means or instrumentalities of interstate commerce or of the mails, or of any facility of any national securities exchange:

(c) to engage in any act, practice or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

4. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Defendant and his agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with him who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise, and each of them, is restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly, engaging in the business of effecting transactions in securities, in the form of investment contracts, or any other security, for his own account as a dealer or for the account of others, while making use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, any security (other than an exempted security or commercial paper, banker's acceptances, or

5. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that, based upon Defendant's sworn representations in his Sworn Statement of Financial Condition dated October 25, 2001, and submitted to the Commission, the Commission is not seeking the imposition of a civil monetary penalty and the Court is not ordering Defendant to pay a civil money penalty pursuant to the provisions of Section 21(d)(3) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. §78u(d)(3)]. The determination not to impose a civil penalty is contingent upon the accuracy and completeness of Defendant's Sworn Statement of Financial Condition. If at any time following the entry of this Final Judgment the Commission obtains information indicating that the Defendant's representations to the Commission concerning his assets, income, liabilities or net worth were fraudulent, misleading, intentionally inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect as of the time such representations were made, the Commission may institute suit in this court for an order requiring Defendant to pay a civil penalty. In connection with any such suit, the only issues shall be whether the financial information provided by Defendant was fraudulent, misleading, intentionally inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect as of the time such representations were made, and the amount of civil penalty to be imposed. In its complaint, the Commission may seek all available remedies, including, but not limited to, ordering Defendant to turn over funds and assets, directing the forfeiture of any assets, or sanctions for contempt of this Final Judgment, and the Commission may also request additional discovery. Defendant may not, by way of defense to such complaint, challenge the validity of his Consent or this Final Judgment, plead res judicata (claim preclusion), plead collateral estoppel (issue preclusion), contest the allegations in the Complaint filed by the Commission or contend that the payment of a civil penalty should not be ordered.

6. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that this Final Judgment may be served upon Defendant in person or by mail either by the United States marshal, by the Clerk of the Court or by any member of the staff of the Commission.

7. There being no just reason for delay, the Clerk of this Court is hereby directed to enter this Final Judgment pursuant to Rule 54 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

SIGNED January 2, 2002.
