In the Matter of Indigenous Global Development Corporation, Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-12414

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION INSTITUTES ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST INDIGENOUS GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION FOR FAILURE TO MAKE REQUIRED PERIODIC FILINGS

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) today instituted public administrative proceedings against Indigenous Global Development Corporation (IGDC) to determine whether the registration of each class of its securities should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months for failure to file required periodic reports.

In the order instituting proceedings, the Division of Enforcement (Division) alleges that IGDC did not file its annual report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended June 30, 2005 and has not filed a report for any subsequent reporting period since it filed a quarterly report on Form 10-QSB for the quarter ending March 31, 2005 and that, as a result, IGDC has failed to comply with Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder.

In this proceeding, instituted pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12(j), a hearing will be scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge. At the hearing, the judge will hear evidence from the Division and IGDC to determine whether the allegations of the Division contained in the Order, which the Division alleges constitute failures to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder, are true. The judge in the proceeding will then determine whether the registration pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 of the securities of IGDC should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months. The Commission ordered that the Administrative Law Judge in this proceeding issue an initial decision not later than 120 days from the date of service of the order instituting proceedings.
