Wherehouse Entertainment, Inc., Windpower Partners 1983-1, Windpower Partners
1984, World Financial Systems Co. Ltd., Wrap-N-Roll USA, Inc., and Wyrllis Corp.*

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission today instituted public administrative proceedings against the following seven companies to determine whether the registration of each class of their securities should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months for failure to file required periodic reports:

- What's For Free Technologies, Inc. (n/k/a Krifter Holdings, Inc.)
- Wherehouse Entertainment, Inc.
- Windpower Partners 1983-1
- Windpower Partners 1984
- World Financial Systems Co. Ltd.
- Wrap-N-Roll USA, Inc.
- Wyrllis Corp.

In this Order, the Division of Enforcement (Division) alleges that the seven issuers are delinquent in their required periodic filings with the Commission.

In these proceedings, instituted pursuant to Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) Section 12(j), a hearing will be scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge. At the hearing, the Administrative Law Judge will hear evidence from the Division and the respondents to determine whether the allegations of the Division contained in the Order, which the Division alleges constitute failures to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder, are true. The Administrative Law Judge in the proceeding will then determine whether the registrations pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 of each class of the securities of these Respondents should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months. The Commission ordered that the Administrative Law Judge in these proceedings issue an initial decision not later than 120 days from the date of service of the order instituting proceedings.
