The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued its Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on March 3, 2010, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). The Division of Enforcement (Division) and the Office of the Secretary have provided evidence that the Commission delivered or attempted to deliver the OIP to Respondents by March 15, 2010, in a manner that complies with Rule 141 of the Commission's Rules of Practice.

The Commission accepted a settlement offer from Respondent Presidio Oil Co. (n/k/a Encana Oil & Gas (USA), Inc.) on March 22, 2010. The time for filing an Answer has expired as to all other Respondents and no Answers have been received. Accordingly, these eight Respondents are in default. See Rules 155(a) and 220(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. As authorized by Rule of Practice 155(a), the following allegations of the OIP are deemed to be true.

Power Plus Corp. (n/k/a PPC Capital Corp.) (Power Plus) (CIK No. 853444) is an Alberta corporation located in Markham, Ontario, Canada, with a class of securities registered with the Commission pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12(g). As discussed in more detail above, these eight Respondents are delinquent in their periodic filings with the Commission and have repeatedly failed to meet their obligations to file timely periodic reports. They have also failed to heed delinquency letters sent to them by the Division of Corporation Finance requesting compliance with their periodic filing obligations or, through their failure to maintain a valid address on file with the Commission as required by Commission rules, did not receive such letters.

Exchange Act Section 13(a) and the rules promulgated thereunder require issuers of securities registered pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 to file with the Commission current and accurate information in periodic reports, even if the registration is voluntary under Section 12(g). Specifically, Rule 13a-1 requires issuers to file annual reports and Rule 13a-13 requires domestic issuers to file quarterly reports. Rule 13a-16 requires foreign private issuers to furnish quarterly and other reports to the Commission under cover of Form 6-K if they make or are required to make the information public under the laws of the jurisdiction of their domicile or in which they are incorporated or organized; if they file or are required to file information with a stock exchange on which their securities are traded and the information was made public by the exchange; or if they distribute or are required to distribute information to their security holders.

As a result of the foregoing, these eight Respondents failed to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 or 13a-16 thereunder.
