ORDER INSTITUTING ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO SECTION
203(f) OF THE INVESTMENT ADVISERS
ACT OF 1940 AND NOTICE OF HEARING

I.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (“Advisers Act”) against Christopher W. Burns (“Respondent” or “Burns”).

II.

After an investigation, the Division of Enforcement alleges that:

A. RESPONDENT

1. From at least April 2017 through October 2020, Burns was the sole owner of Investus Advisers LLC d/b/a Dynamic Money LLC (“Investus Advisers”). Burns registered Investus Advisers in Georgia as an investment adviser in April 2017, and the firm had more than 90 advisory clients. During this time period, Burns was also designated as an investment adviser representative of Investus Advisers.

B. ENTRY OF THE INJUNCTION

2. On May 25, 2022, a final judgment was entered by default against Burns, permanently enjoining him from future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities Act”), Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Sections 206(1) and 206(2) of the Advisers Act, in the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. Christopher W. Burns, et al., Civil Action Number 1:20-CV-4620-WMR, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia.

3. The Commission's complaint alleged that, from 2017 until 2020, in connection with the offer and sale of promissory notes, Burns misappropriated investor funds, falsely stated to investors how their funds would be and were being used, falsely told investors that their funds were earning positive returns, and otherwise engaged in a variety of conduct that operated as a fraud and deceit on investors.

4. Specifically, Burns recommended to his advisory clients the purchase of promissory notes issued by two entities that he wholly owned. Burns told prospective investors that the notes were part of a peer-to-peer loan program, called Peer Connect, and that the proceeds of the note sales would be loaned to small businesses. According to Burns, the notes offered returns between 5% and 15% per year. Burns made numerous misrepresentations to investors, including the nature of the investment, how returns would be generated, and how investor funds would be used. Contrary to Burns' statements to investors, the Peer Connect loan program was a sham, he misappropriated a significant portion of investor funds, and he used the remaining funds to pay purported returns to earlier investors in the scheme. In total, Burns sold more than $10 million in fraudulent notes to investors.

III.

In view of the allegations made by the Division of Enforcement, the Commission deems it necessary and appropriate in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be instituted to determine:

A. Whether the allegations set forth in Section II hereof are true and, in connection therewith, to afford Respondent an opportunity to establish any defenses to such allegations;

B. What, if any, remedial action is appropriate in the public interest against Respondent pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Advisers Act; and

IV.

IT IS ORDERED that a public hearing before the Commission for the purpose of taking evidence on the questions set forth in Section III hereof shall be convened at a time and place to be fixed by further order of the Commission, pursuant to Rule 110 of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 17 C.F.R. § 201.110.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall file an Answer to the allegations contained in this Order within twenty (20) days after service of this Order, as provided by Rule 220(b) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 17 C.F.R. § 201.220(b).

The parties may meet in person or participate by telephone or other remote means; following the conference, they shall file a statement with the Office of the Secretary advising the Commission of any agreements reached at said conference. If a prehearing conference was not held, a statement shall be filed with the Office of the Secretary advising the Commission of that fact and of the efforts made to meet and confer.

If Respondent fails to file the directed Answer, or fails to appear at a hearing or conference after being duly notified, the Respondent may be deemed in default and the proceedings may be determined against him upon consideration of this Order, the allegations of which may be deemed to be true as provided by Rules 155(a), 220(f), 221(f) and 310 of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), 201.220(f), 201.221(f), and 201.310.

This Order shall be served forthwith upon Respondent by any means permitted by the Commission's Rules of Practice.
