Before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 98537 / September 26, 2023

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-21727

In the Matter of

MONICA M. O'MEALIA,

Respondent.

ORDER INSTITUTING
ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS
PURSUANT TO SECTION 15(b) OF THE
SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF
1934, MAKING FINDINGS, AND
IMPOSING REMEDIAL SANCTIONS

I.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) against Monica M. O’Mealia (“O’Mealia” or “Respondent”).

II.

In anticipation of the institution of these proceedings, Respondent has submitted an Offer of Settlement (the “Offer”) which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the Commission’s jurisdiction over her and the subject matter of these proceedings and the findings contained in paragraph III.2 below, which are admitted, Respondent consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (“Order”), as set forth below.

III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent's Offer, the Commission finds that:

1. O'Mealia was a manager and sales agent for MJ Capital Funding, LLC ("MJ Capital"). At all relevant times, O'Mealia acted as a broker, but was not registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 15(a) of the Exchange Act or associated with a registered broker-dealer. O'Mealia, 28 years old, is a resident of Homestead, Florida.

2. On September 22, 2023, a final judgment was entered by consent against O'Mealia, permanently enjoining her from future violations of Sections 5(a) and 5(c) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"), and Section 15(a)(1) of the Exchange Act, in the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. Steven A. Fernandez, et al., Civil Action Number 0:23-cv-61816-WPD, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

3. The Commission's complaint alleged that from at least August 2020 through August 2021, O'Mealia personally, and through her team of about 35 sales agents, solicited and raised approximately $19.4 million from over 800 investors through sales of securities in unregistered transactions issued by MJ Capital. The securities sold to investors were in the form of "Merchant Cash Advance Agreements." O'Mealia solicited prospective investors through postings on her Instagram page, which she used to pique investors' interest in the investment opportunity. She also directed prospective investors to MJ Capital's website. O'Mealia received transaction-based compensation in the form of commissions from MJ Capital based on the sales of its securities.

IV.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest to impose the sanctions agreed to in Respondent O'Mealia's Offer.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED pursuant to Section 15(b)(6) of the Exchange Act that Respondent O'Mealia be, and hereby is:

barred from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, municipal securities dealer, municipal advisor, transfer agent, or nationally recognized statistical rating organization; and barred from participating in any offering of a penny stock, including: acting as a promoter, finder, consultant, agent or other person who engages in activities with a broker, dealer or issuer for purposes of the issuance or trading in any penny stock, or inducing or attempting to induce the purchase or sale of any penny stock.

With the right to apply for reentry after five (5) years to the appropriate self-regulatory organization, or if there is none, to the Commission.

Any reapplication for association by the Respondent will be subject to the applicable laws and regulations governing the reentry process, and reentry may be conditioned upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, compliance with the Commission's order and payment of any or all of the following: (a) any disgorgement or civil penalties ordered by a Court against the Respondent in any action brought by the Commission; (b) any disgorgement amounts ordered against the Respondent for which the Commission waived payment; (c) any arbitration award related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; (d) any self-regulatory organization arbitration award to a customer, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; and (e) any restitution order by a self-regulatory organization, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order.

By the Commission.
