ORDER INSTITUTING ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO SECTION
203(f) OF THE INVESTMENT ADVISERS
ACT OF 1940 AND NOTICE OF HEARING

I.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (“Advisers Act”) against Bradley C. Reifler (“Respondent” or “Reifler”).

II.

After an investigation, the Division of Enforcement alleges that:

A. RESPONDENT

1. Beginning no later than 2009, Reifler served as the founder, chief executive officer, or primary principal of a financial services enterprise that included asset management, investment banking, and investment advisory services all doing under the name of “Forefront.”

Reifler has also been associated with an investment adviser firm registered with the Commission since 2014. From November 1986 through November 2015, Reifler was also a registered-representative associated with broker-dealers registered with the Commission. Reifler, is 63 years old, and is currently incarcerated at a federal correctional institution located in Otisville, New York.

B. RESPONDENT’S CRIMINAL CONVICTION

2. On or about May 5, 2022, Respondent pled guilty to one count of mail fraud in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Sections 1343 and 2 before the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina, in United States v. Bradley C. Reifler, Crim. No. 1:20-CR-512. On or about November 7, 2022, a judgment in the criminal case was entered against Respondent and he was sentenced to a prison term of five years, three years supervised release, and ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $20,322,220.

3. The count of the criminal indictment to which Respondent pled guilty alleged, inter alia, that during the time Reifler was associated with an investment advisers registered with the Commission, he was also the CEO and founder of Forefront Capital Holdings and was responsible for investing approximately $34 million of the insurance company’s assets according to guidelines contained in a trust agreement and investment advisor agreement. Rather than investing the assets in secure investment vehicles as required by the agreements, Reifler misappropriated the funds for the benefit of his own companies and then used the funds for improper purposes, such as paying for overhead expenses and repaying prior investors to whom he owed money. Reifler also diverted other funds to risky investment vehicles that did not comply with the investment guidelines.

III.

In view of the allegations made by the Division of Enforcement, the Commission deems it necessary and appropriate in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be instituted to determine:
