File No. 3-21266

In the Matter of

MICHAEL A. GRAMINS,

Respondent.

DIVISION OF ENFORCEMENT'S
MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE
REPLY BRIEF AS TO RESPONDENT
GRAMINS' OPPOSITION TO SUMMARY
DISPOSITION

Pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice §201.161(b)(1), the Division of Enforcement (the "Division") respectfully requests an adjournment of the deadline for the Division to submit a reply in support of its motion for summary disposition. Under the current briefing schedule, the Division's reply brief is due on April 12, 2023. The Division, with the consent of Respondent Michael Gramins ("Gramins"), seeks to adjourn the deadline for the reply brief to April 26, 2023. The Division makes this first request for an adjournment due to serious family health issues that are limiting the availability of undersigned Division counsel.

In filing this Motion, the Division notes that the proceedings have been ongoing for approximately three months. The Order Instituting Proceedings was filed by the Secretary's Office on December 30, 2022. The Division and Gramins then agreed to a briefing schedule for the Motion for Summary Disposition, with the Commission filing the Motion on March 3, 2023, and Gramins filing his opposition on March 29, 2023.

Where an adjournment of the briefing schedule would be in the interest of justice, and with the consent of the parties, the Division respectfully requests that the Commission extend the deadline for the Division's reply brief from April 12, 2023 to April 26, 2023.

Dated: April 10, 2023

Respectfully submitted,
