The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued its Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) against eight Respondents on September 7, 2005, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). Respondent eGlobe, Inc. (eGlobe), was served with the OIP by October 27, 2005, and its Answer was due on or by November 7, 2005. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.220(b); OIP at 4. Respondents American Film Technologies, Inc. (American Film); BPI Packaging Technologies, Inc. (BPI); CML Group, Inc. (CML); Compositel, Ltd. (Compositel); and Dispatch Management Services Corp. (Dispatch) were served by November 3, 2005, and their Answers were due on or by November 14, 2005. Id. To date, these remaining Respondents have failed to file an Answer.¹

On November 17, 2005, the Division of Enforcement filed a renewed motion for default against Respondents for failing to answer the OIP. I ordered Respondents to show cause on or by December 23, 2005, why they should not be held in default and why they should not have each class of their securities revoked. To date, Respondents have failed to show such cause.

¹ Previously, a Default Order was issued against Respondent Advanced Media, Inc., on October 27, 2005, and Respondent Ameriquest Technologies, Inc., submitted an Offer of Settlement, which the Commission accepted on October 31, 2005. Advanced Media, Inc., Exchange Act Release Nos. 52687, 52702.

Respondents are in default for failing to answer the OIP, respond to a dispositive motion with the time frame provided, or otherwise defend the proceeding. 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155, .220(f). Pursuant to Rule 155(a) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 17 C.F.R. § 201.155(a), I find the following allegations in the OIP to be true as to the remaining Respondents.
