

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-15823

In the Matter of

Visionary Trading LLC,
Lightspeed Trading LLC,
Andrew Actman,
Joseph Dondero,
Eugene Giaquinto,
Lee Heiss, and Jason Medvin

Respondents

STIPULATION AND NOTICE OF PARTIES' AGREEMENT ON SERVICE OF PAPERS

Pursuant to the Commission's Order, dated March 18, 2020, concerning electronic service of papers, the Division of Enforcement ("Division") and Respondents Lee Heiss and Jason Medvin ("Respondents"), by their undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate and agree to waive paper service of all opinions and orders in these proceedings and instead accept service of all opinions and orders by email to the following email addresses:

For the Division:
Thomas P. Smith, Jr
smithth@sec.gov

For Respondents:
Jenice Malecki, Esq.
Malecki Law
Jenice@Maleckilaw.com

The Division and Respondents further stipulate and agree to waive paper service in these proceedings of all papers described in Rule 150(a) (the "Papers") and instead accept service of all Papers by email to the email addresses listed above.

The Division and Respondents further stipulate and agree that they waive any arguments, objections, and defenses based on the manner of service of any opinions, orders, or Papers, insofar as any such arguments, objections, or defenses may exist, in these proceedings and any further proceedings in this matter before the Commission or any United States court.

STIPULATED AND AGREED TO BY:

Date: April 1, 2020

_____/S

Thomas P. Smith, Jr.
Securities and Exchange Commission
Division of Enforcement
New York Regional Office
Brookfield Place
200 Vesey Street, Suite 400
New York, NY 10281
(212) 336-0171
smithth@sec.gov

Date: April 1, 2020

_____/S

Jenice L. Malecki, Esq.
Malecki Law
11 Broadway #715
New York, NY 10004
(212) 943-1233 Ext. 1
Jenice@maleckilaw.com

Counsel for Respondents