ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-15845

In the Matter of

JULIANNE CHALMERS

Respondent.

DIVISION OF ENFORCEMENT'S MOTION TO DISCONTINUE, WITHOUT PREJUDICE, ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING BECAUSE RESPONDENT
CANNOT BE LOCATED

The Division of Enforcement seeks to discontinue, without prejudice, the Administrative Proceeding against Respondent Julianne Chalmers because despite diligent efforts, the Division has been unable to serve her with the Order Instituting Proceedings.

A. Procedural History

On April 17, 2014, the Division brought this proceeding against Chalmers pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act"). The OIP alleges that on April 9, 2014, the District Court in the Middle District of Florida entered a permanent injunction by default against Chalmers ("Permanent Injunction") in the civil action Securities and Exchange Commission v. Julianne Chalmers, et al., (Civil Action Number 13-CV-1747 EAK-TGW (M.D. Fla.)). The Permanent Injunction enjoined Chalmers from further violations of Sections 5(a) and 5(c) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 15(a) of the Exchange Act. The Commission obtained the Permanent Injunction by default after an extensive attempt to reach and serve Chalmers. Ultimately, the District Court granted the Commission authorization to serve Chalmers via notice of publication. Details regarding the numerous attempts at serving Chalmers in the District Court case is outlined in the Division's Motion to Serve Respondent by Alternative Means submitted to the Law Judge on September 23, 2014.

B. Division's Attempts to Serve Chalmers with the OIP

On April 17, 2014, the Commission issued the OIP. The Commission mailed the OIP via certified mail requesting a return receipt, but there was no response to the service attempt. The OIP was returned as "Unclaimed Unable to Forward". (Copy of return envelope attached as Exhibit A). As a result, Division counsel proceeded to attempt service through a process server. The process server made at least seven attempts to personally serve Chalmers at the [REDACTED] address she provided. (Declaration of Non Service attached as Exhibit B). Because the process server could not serve Chalmers, Division counsel hired a private investigation company to locate her. The investigator concluded he could not locate Chalmers. (Declaration of Mabel Martinez of Searchers Investigating Company, LLC attached as Exhibit C).

On August 20, 2014, Division counsel sent an e-mail to Chalmers at her e-mail address [REDACTED] attaching the OIP, Order Scheduling Hearing and Designating Presiding Judge, and the three postponement orders. Commission counsel advised Chalmers of the Division's difficulties locating her and asked Chalmers to provide an alternative address or schedule a time to have a process server provide her with the documents. (E-mail attached as Exhibit D). Chalmers did not respond to the e-mail. On September 16, 2014 Division counsel also called Chalmers at her last known phone number, which is no longer a working number.

The Division's staff has continuously searched public databases for any new information on Respondent's whereabouts that may have become available since the Commission issued the OIP. In October 2014 we attempted service on Chalmers at two addresses in California that she was previously associated with. Again, Chalmers could not be located at either of those addresses. (Return of Non-Service attached as Exhibit E and F.) Later in February 2015, we believed we had located Chalmers. However, after hiring yet another process server and serving a person named Julie Chalmers with the OIP and related documents it was determined that she was not our Respondent. (Affidavit of Attempt/Non Serve attached as Exhibit G). Our continued efforts to located Respondent have failed to reveal any new information pointing toward her present location.

C. Request to Discontinue

In the Law Judge's postponement orders dated September 24, 2014, December 10, 2014, and April 9, 2015 it was suggested that we consider moving to discontinue the proceedings if Chalmers cannot be found. Pursuant to the Commission's Rules of Practice, Delegation of Authority to Chief Administrative Law Judge, 17 C.F.R. § 200.30-10(a)(8), the Commission has delegated authority to the Chief Administrative Law Judge "to grant motions of staff counsel to discontinue administrative proceedings as to a particular respondent who has died or cannot be found, or because of a mistake in the identity of a respondent named in the order for proceedings." Here we are requesting that the Chief Administrative Law Judge discontinue the administrative proceeding against Respondent Chalmers due to the fact that she cannot be located. Discontinuance is supported by the Commission's Rules and precedent. See In the Matter of James Patrick Reedy, Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 698, 2012 SEC Lexis 942 (C.A.L.J. Mar. 23, 2012) (discontinuance without prejudice ordered by Chief Administrative Law Judge where Respondent could not be found); In the Matter of Richard Cannistraro, Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Release No. 39521, 1998 SEC Lexis 15 (Jan. 1, 1998) (the Commission affirmed dismissal without prejudice where Respondent could not be found).

D. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the Division requests that the proceedings against Respondent Chalmers be discontinued without prejudice. In the event we located the Respondent, we will seek to reactivate the administrative proceeding.

I, Mabel Martinez declare:

1. That I am now, and at all times herein mentioned was, an employee of Searchers Investigating Company, LLC a Nevada Limited Liability Company duly licensed in the State of California whose California State license number is A-5152.
2. I am over the age of 18 years, and am not a party to, nor do I have a proprietary interest in this matter.
3. The Government Agency of Securities and Exchange Commission referred the above matter to Searchers Investigating Company, LLC for the purpose of locating and serving Julianne H. Chalmers with the following documents:
 1. Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 15(b) of The Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Notice of Hearing
 2. Entry of an Injunction Against Chalmers

1 3. Copy of a Certified Letter addressed to Julianne Chalmers from Jill M. Peterson,
2 Assistant Secretary for the United States Securities and Exchange Commission

3 4. A Postponement Order

4 5. The only information supplied by the Securities and Exchange Commission was
5 that Julianne Chalmers was living with her son, [REDACTED]

6 [REDACTED]
7 In order to effectuate the assignment between the dates of June 25, 2014 and July 1,
8 2014, the declarant performed the following pursuant to Section 415.C.C.P.50. Public
9 records were checked, including the Assessor's Records for the State of California, data
10 bases which are a composite of various telephone directories and all the information
11 developed failed to provide a current location.

12 Declarant was dispatched to the residential address; the house was empty and appeared
13 to be abandoned. A canvass of the block developed the following information.

14 1. Declarant was informed by the neighbors that [REDACTED]

15 [REDACTED]
16 The neighbors advised that to the best of their knowledge there was no woman described 17 as approximately 66 years of age living at that address.

18 2. Declarant then ran two data bases utilizing the name of Julianne Chalmers and 19 located five (5) additional addresses. A check of each of these addresses failed to reveal
20 that Julianne Chalmers was not in residence at any of these addresses.

21 3. Declarant ran a search with the California Department of Motor Vehicles in the 22 name of Julianne Chalmers; all information developed failed to provide a current address
23 for this individual.

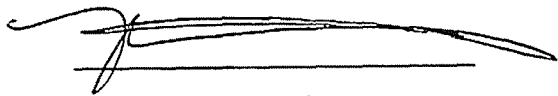

24 4. The Declarant knows of no relative or friend of Julianne Chalmers; could not locate
25 any employer, union, vocation, or business, requiring a license for Julianne Chalmers.
26 After a Due Diligent search, Declarant has been unable to locate the current whereabouts
27 of Julianne Chalmers.
