Re: Trident Acquisition, Inc.
Filing SEC reports.

Dear Ms. Paterson:

After reading your letter of September 5, 2014, I am very confused as to why I am being asked to file SEC reports for Trident Acquisitions, Inc. I submit to you the following reasons for my confusion:

1. Trident Acquisitions, Inc., a company I formed, is not a public company,
2. I have never issued any stock to anyone,
3. I never performed any transactions using the company name,
4. I never used the company for any purpose,
5. There were no money transactions within the company.

Since no stock was ever sold or issued in Trident Acquisitions, Inc., and since the company has been dormant since its inception, I do not understand why I have the obligation to file any reports to the Security and Exchange Commission.

I am asking you for clarification in this matter.

Thank you.

Yours truly,
