Pursuant to Rules 190 and 322 of the Commission's Rules of Practice, the Division of Enforcement ("Division") respectfully submits this motion for confidential treatment of the Division's Response in Opposition to Respondents' Motion to Stay the Proceedings and Compel the Division to Make Further Disclosures Regarding Two Division Witnesses ("Response"). Rule 322 provides that a party may move to limit public disclosure of documents or testimony that contains confidential information, and that such a motion shall be granted upon a finding that the harm resulting from disclosure would outweigh the benefits of disclosure. The Response contains certain confidential nonpublic information that should at this time not be publicly disclosed. There is no identifiable benefit of disclosure. Thus, the harm of resulting from the disclosure of this information outweighs the benefit of disclosure.

For these reasons, the Division respectfully requests confidential treatment of its Response.
