NOTICE OF MOTION OF APPEAL

To Whom It May Concern:

FINRA COMPLAINT NO: 2011029619301

I am appealing the above mentioned decision recently handed down by FINRA NAC BOARD because of the following reasons

1. The hearing by FINRA was unfair and biased and prejudice
2. I disagree with the decision and will like an independent SEC investigation into this matter
3. FINRA failed to consider the fact that the fraud allegation or complaint has nothing to do with my security license or registration
4. In my over ten years of affiliation with FINRA there was no direct client complaint when it comes to my relationship with them and their account management
5. The people in this allegation were never a client they were friends
6. The complaint was filed by FINRA after my separation and resignation of my employment from any broker dealer
7. FINRA and Prudential Interfere with the witnesses testimony by offering them money or offer to pay them for their negative testimony against me

8. FINRA Through their attorney Mr Jonathan Golomb manipulated my testimony to suit their purpose for this decision.

9. I was never allowed to call any witness.

I will sincerely appreciate a new trial and investigation by an independent body to review the whole case

Sincerely

Kenny Akindemowo
