Re: NASD Examination 20070091204/OneAmerica Securities, Inc.
CRD No. 4173

Dear Ms. Schaffer:

Please find response to your inquiry regarding a Form U-5 filing by OneAmerica Securities, Inc. concerning Wanda L. Gilmer:

1. I failed to disclose the criminal charge on the U-4 as I was not fully aware that the charge existed. Because the charge was dropped due to a non-guilty plea, I assumed it would also be removed from my record. When completing the U-4 application, I felt that I fully disclosed all required information accurately. On 05/01/07, when notified, I immediately contacted the City of Calumet to ascertain how I should proceed with obtaining any documentation regarding the charge. This same date I was informed by OneAmerica Securities that there was a 30 day window to satisfy the request of the NASD but was terminated the following day, 05/02/2007.
2. Please find enclosed all documentation regarding the charge in addition to the confirmation of Expungement.
3. Please see attached documentation for information regarding the charge per the request of Lisa Schaffer, 08/03/2007.
4. OneAmerica Securities, Inc. provided me with the Form U-4 for completion. As stated above, I felt that I fully disclosed all required information accurately.
5. Additional Information: The Form U-5 indicated that I was terminated for falsification of initial hiring application, which is not true. The initial employment application asks: 8. Have you ever been convicted of a crime or denied a bond? No. This answer is correct as I have not been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor. This application is enclosed and highlighted for your convenience.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or require additional information at (708) 865-0415. Thank you in advance.

Kind regards,

Your response shall include, but not be limited to explaining why you apparently falsified this information and/or failed to disclose the criminal charges on your Form U-4 application and to OneAmerica Securities. Your response should clearly state whether you were aware that you were required to disclose your criminal charge(s) to the firm.

5. If your attorney prepares your response, we require that you sign or countersign the letter.
6. Any other information that you feel would be pertinent to this investigation.

You are requested to provide your response to the Chicago District Office by June 29th, 2007.

Notice

CRD® or IARD(SM) Information: This report contains information from the CRD (Central Registration Depository) system, or the IARD system (Investment Advisers Registration Depository), which are operated by FINRA, a national securities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The CRD system primarily contains information submitted on uniform broker-dealer and agent registration forms and certain other information related to registration and licensing. The IARD system primarily contains information submitted on uniform investment adviser and agent registration forms and certain other information related to registration and licensing. The information on Uniform Forms filed with the CRD or IARD is deemed to have been filed with each regulator with which the applicant seeks to be registered or licensed and shall be the joint property of the applicant and such regulators. The compilation constituting the CRD database as a whole is the property of FINRA. Neither FINRA nor a participating regulator warrants or guarantees the accuracy or the completeness of the CRD or IARD information. CRD information consists of reportable and non-reportable information. FINRA operates the CRD system in its capacity as a registered national securities association and pursuant to an agreement with the North American Securities Administrators Association, Inc. (NASAA). FINRA operates the IARD system as a vendor pursuant to a contract with the Securities and Exchange Commission and undertakings with NASAA and participating state regulators.

Reportable Information: Information that is required to be reported on the current version of the uniform registration forms. Non-Reportable Information: Information that is not currently reportable on a uniform registration form. Information typically is not reportable because it is out-of-date; it was reported in error; or some change occurred either in the disposition of the underlying event after it was reported or in the question on the form that elicited the information. Although not currently reportable, this information was once reported on a uniform form and, consequently, may have become a state record. Users of this information should recognize that filers have no obligation to update non-reportable data; accordingly, it may not reflect changes that have occurred since it was reported.

Ms. Shergill and Mr. Butani:

Thank you very much for the letter and quick turnaround. It appears that while the letter was sent to all previous addresses, it was not sent to the updated address submitted on September 5, 2008 to FINRA when requesting the Snapshot report and mailed to CRD Address Changes. I will, however, work directly with the SEC for future inquiries as you've directed.

Please advise and/or provide a copy of the referenced letters dated as follows within the Bar from Association as these were also possibly sent to previous addresses and not received:

1. October 10, 2008
2. November 3, 2008

You also advised that address updates should be directed to both FINRA and SEC. The address update requirement and timeline indicated on the Snapshot Report Request Form - August 2007, which is attached for your reference, differ from the instructions below. To ensure the appropriate address is on file for future mailings, I will craft a letter today, November 16, 2016 and mail to the addresses provided below respectively.

Thank you again.

Kind regards,
Wanda L Gilmer

You were permanently barred from associating with any FINRA member in any capacity pursuant to NASD Rule 9552 (now FINRA Rule 9552) on April 13, 2009 for your failure to respond to FINRA's requests for information pursuant to NASD Rule 8210 (now FINRA Rule 8210). FINRA's decision stands. The SEC is the entity that would have the authority to potentially lift the bar. As stated below, however, your timeline for an appeal to the SEC has passed. Please direct further inquiries to the SEC contact information noted below.

Hello Robert:

My name is Wanda Gilmer CRD# 5311699 and I'm writing to you today because only yesterday, November 8th, 2016 was I made aware that I am 'barred' from the industry. Please allow me to share with you what I know.

In August of 2007, I responded to an inquiry from Lisa Schaffer with FINRA. Per her request, I responded in detail to her inquiries meeting the appropriate due date. In September 2008, I submitted duplicate copies of my response along with court documentation to the Expungment Department. The last communication I received from FINRA was the Snapshot Report that I requested on September 5th, 2008. Effectively, since September 2008 and only up until yesterday, I was unaware that any action was required on my part nor was I aware that I had any issues facing me with FINRA.

I would like to reference the response to Lisa Shaffer in 2007 acknowledging I incorrectly answered Form U-4, question 8. This was done completely without malicious or deceptive intent. In light of the fact that the incident occurred in 1994 and I was found not guilty in a court of law is the reason I answered question 8 the way I did. I now realize that I misinterpreted the question and should have answered yes. When the response was brought to my attention, I immediately took action to update and provide the appropriate documents respectively.

It is my hope that you can assist me in correcting this situation. For your reference and review, I've attached supporting documents. Please advise as to what steps I need to take that will lead me to reinstating my good status and remain in the industry. Should you wish to contact me, please feel free to do so via e-mail at: [REDACTED] or phone [REDACTED]. Thank you in advance.

Kind regards,

Wanda L Gilmer

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure and with complete confidence that I write this letter of reference for Wanda Gilmer.

I have known Wanda both professionally and personally for over 15 years and I can say without doubt that you are dealing with a person of great personal character. It is evident to both me and those around her of her deep dedication to her family and work life. It is important to me in both my personal and business life to surround myself with people that I can trust to have my best interest at stake and by far, Wanda is in that circle. Should I ever need for anything, she is there and willing.

Wanda is gifted in many ways but her work ethic and intense devotion to being the consummate professional is what sets her apart from most. I am confident that she will be successful in whatever she embarks on and I look forward to knowing her for many years to come.

Should you have any questions, you are more than welcome to reach out to me.

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to tell you of the many fine qualities of Wanda Gilmer, whom I have known since 2004 in various capacities, including a co-worker, colleague and a very close personal friend.

Beginning in 2004, we worked very closely together for 3 years. I could not have done my job without Wanda's knowledge, professionalism and friendly customer service. She made my job easier. While getting to know her during this time, I can say without a doubt that she is a great person of very good moral character. Wanda operates with integrity, and is a true team player, she never has a bad word to say about anyone. She is also hard working and dedicated, and never leaves a job unfinished. These are characteristics that are hard to find in the financial services industry these days. Her dedication and loyalty is further proved by her long tenures with OneAmerica Retirement Services and Transamerica Retirement Services.

When we were no longer co-workers, we remained very close personal friends. She has always been extremely involved in the lives of my children. When both of my kids were born, Wanda was one of the first people at the hospital with us. When our second child was born in 2011, we discovered he has [REDACTED]. We do not know what we would do with her loyalty, compassion and friendship.

I have no doubt about her abilities as a professional, friend and all around good person. Her honesty, dedication have always been commended.

Thank you,

To whom it may concern,

I'm writing to share with you my endorsement of Wanda Gilmer for your vacant position, an individual whom I know to be highly intelligent, talented, motivated and team-centric.

I had the privilege of working closely with Wanda for over 6 years, during which time she acted as my executive assistant while running the national sales organization. She distinguished herself as a tireless worker, entirely committed to the well-being of our organization and the development of my division. She is timely, responsive, proactive and resourceful. Further, she knew when to solicit guidance and when to go it alone, resulting in an invaluable support structure that enabled me to focus on pressing priorities.

In addition to my experiences, I can attest to numerous instances of appreciation from both internal and external audiences regarding Wanda's contributions. She was very much viewed as a key member of our team and had earned the reputation as someone who could help to drive execution on a number of fronts.

Lastly, I have had the chance to get to know Wanda and her family beyond the professional environment, and I say without a doubt that you are dealing with a person of very good ethical character. She cares about her job and her performance, but more so about those around her. I, in turn, care very much about her well-being, and to that end I highly recommend her for your opening.

Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

All the best,

I am writing this letter to provide a character reference for Wanda Gilmer. I have worked with Wanda Gilmer at OneAmerica/ AUL previously for seven years from 2000-2007. During the time I worked with Wanda, I became very familiar with her personality and work ethic and am happy to share my impressions with you.

I have great respect for Wanda and feel that she would be an asset to any organization. Wanda displayed a willingness to help co-workers as well as leadership traits as a self-starter. Wanda is a team player with integrity.

I feel certain that the experience you have with Wanda will be similar to what I observed during the time we worked together. If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,
