Case # 3-18534

Please see attached answer. I would like to re-assert I believe I need a lawyer. I am not currently financially able to afford one. I believe my case to be complex involving potential Constitutional violations. I asked for a 90 day extension. This was denied. I asked the commission to do its own internal investigation. I have not been advised of any results. This has now taken over 10 years and I don't believe I ever violated the rules.

Sincerely,
